Professional Journal of the United States Army ,1993      Here in 'China' I Dwell Zhaoguang Ge, 2017-08-28 Here in China I Dwell is a historiographical account of the formation of Chinese historical narratives in light of outside pressures on China the view from China's borders There is a special discussion of the influence of Japanese historians on the concept of China and its borders including the nature of their sources cultural and religious and more In Ge's comparative account a new portrait of Chinese historical narratives along with the views and assumptions implicit in these narratives emerges in the context of East Asia a similarly constructed concept with its own multitudes of frontiers and peoples      Surveying the South John Shelton Reed, 1993 Ten previously published essays by sociologist Reed well known for his studies of the South He talks about sociology itself continuity and change in the region stereotypes race relations and other topics He calls on sociologists to follow his lead in writing in a clear jargon free style accessible to some besides themselves Paper edition unseen 14 95 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR      Engagement with the Past William Palmer, 2021-10-21 Arthur M Schlesinger Jr John Hope Franklin Daniel Boorstin C Vann Woodward Edmund S Morgan Barbara Tuckman Eric Hobsbawm Hugh Trevor Roper Lawrence Stone aside from carrying the distinction as some of the most successful and well respected historians of the twentieth century these scholars found their lives and careers evolving amid some of the world's pivotal historical moments Dubbed the World War II Generation the twenty two English and American historians chronicled by William Palmer grew up in the aftermath of World War I went to college in the 1930s as the threats of the Great Depression Hitler and Communism loomed over them saw their careers interrupted by World War II and faced the prospect of nuclear annihilation They gained from their experiences the perspective and insight necessary to write definitive histories on topics ranging from slavery to revolution Engagement with the Past offers biographies of these individuals in the context of their generation's intellectual achievement Based upon extensive personal interviews and careful reading of their work Engagement with the Past is a fascinating behind the scenes look at a generation of historians and how they helped record and shape modern history      With Their Bare Hands Gene Fax, 2017-02-23 With Their Bare Hands traces the fate of the US 79th Division men drafted off the streets of Baltimore Washington and Philadelphia from boot camp in Maryland through the final years of World War I focusing on their most famous engagement the attack on Montfaucon the most heavily fortified part of the German Line during the Meuse Argonne Offensive in 1918 Using the 79th as a window into the American Army as a whole Gene Fax examines its mistakes and triumphs the tactics of its commander General John J Pershing and how the lessons it learned during the Great War helped it to fight World War II Fax makes some startling judgments on the role of future Army Chief of Staff Colonel George C Marshall whether the Montfaucon battle had it followed the plan could have shortened the war and if Pershing was justified in ordering his troops to attack right up to the moment of the Armistice Drawing upon original documents including orders field messages and the letters and memoirs of the soldiers themselves Fax tells the engrossing story of the 79th Division s bloody involvement in the final months of World War I     The Arts and the Teaching of History Penney Clark, Alan Sears, 2020-08-26 This book closely examines the pedagogical possibilities of integrating the arts into history curriculum at the secondary and post secondary levels Students encounter expressions of history every day in the form of fiction paintings and commemorative art as well as other art forms Research demonstrates it is often these more informal encounters with history that define students knowledge and understandings rather than the official accounts present in school curricula This volume will provide educators with tools to bring together these parallel tracks of history education to help enrich students understandings and as a mechanism for students to present their own emerging historical perspectives     The End of Greatness Aaron David Miller, 2014-10-07 The Presidency has always been an implausible some might even say an impossible job Part of the problem is that the challenges of the presidency and the expectations Americans have for their presidents have skyrocketed while the president s capacity and power to deliver on what ails the nation has diminished Indeed as citizens we continue to aspire and hope for greatness in our only nationally elected office The problem of course is that the demand for great presidents has always exceeded the supply As a result Americans are adrift in a kind of Presidential Bermuda Triangle suspended between the great presidents we want and the ones we can no longer have The End of Greatness explores the concept of greatness in the presidency and the ways in which it has become both essential and detrimental to America and the nation s politics Miller argues that greatness in presidents is a much overrated virtue Indeed greatness is too rare to be relevant in our current politics and driven as it is by nation encumbering crisis too dangerous to be desirable Our preoccupation with greatness in the presidency consistently inflates our expectations skews the debate over presidential performance and drives presidents to misjudge their own times and capacity And our focus on the individual misses the constraints of both the office and the times distorting how Presidents actually lead In wanting and expecting our leaders to be great we have simply made it impossible for them to be good The End of Greatness takes a journey through presidential history helping us understand how greatness in the presidency was achieved why it s gone and how we can better come to appreciate the presidents we have rather than being consumed with the ones we want     The Cyprus Detention Camps Yitzhak Teutsch, 2019-07-23 Beginning in August 1946 stateless and visaless Jews most of them survivors of the Nazi death camps who sought to immigrate to the Land of Israel were intercepted by the Royal Navy and deported to the nearby island of Cyprus where they were detained in camps surrounded by barbed wire Despite occupying a dramatic and fateful position in modern history this saga has remained largely inaccessible due to the widespread dispersal of the primary sources and the linguistic difficulties presented by them To address these problems this book scrutinizes the scholarly literature consulting hundreds of primary sources many of them previously unknown on three continents bringing together interviews with scores of eyewitnesses and translating foreign language terms into English The result is a comprehensive meticulously footnoted guide that uses such tools as maps a detailed timeline and biographical entries to make this riveting saga accessible to a broad audience of scholars and general readers Maurice Samuel Alan T. Levenson, 2022-08-02 This short intellectual biography reassesses one of the premier Jewish humanists of the mid twentieth century the Rumanian born English educated American belletrist Maurice Samuel Although he spoke in a staccato Midlands accent Samuel left Manchester England in 1913 joined the American Army served in military intelligence in World War I and became a United States citizen Samuel resettled his family in Palestine in 1929 then returned to the US and spent his most creative years in New York City A diaspora intellectual or rootless cosmopolitan as Alan Levenson describes him Samuel made an indelible mark on many features of contemporary Jewish thought and culture
