Practising Identities Power And Resistance:

Practising Identities Sasha Roseneil, 2016-07-27 Practising Identities is a collection of papers about how identities gender bodily racial ethnic and national are practised in the contemporary world Identities are actively constructed chosen created and performed by people in their daily lives and this book focuses on a variety of identity practices in a range of different settings from the gym and the piercing studio to the further education college and the National Health Service Drawing on detailed empirical studies and recent social and cultural theory about identity this book makes an important intervention in current debates about identity reflexivity and cultural difference

Strong and Hard Women Tanya Bunsell, 2013-04-12 Females with large muscles evoke strong reactions from men and women often involving disgust discomfort anger and threat The controversial nature of female bodybuilding has caused a significant rupture on feminist ground Whilst proponents claim that female bodybuilding is a way of empowering and liberating women others see it as a form of corporeal entrapment This book investigates the controversy Do women who pump iron resist physical restrictions of imposed femininity or are they engaged in an ultimately oppressive quest for perfect bodies In an original two year ethnographic study based in the South of England Tanya Bunsell immersed herself into the world of female bodybuilders By mapping these extraordinary women's lives the research illuminates the pivotal spaces and essential lived experiences that make up the female bodybuilder Whilst the women appear to be embarking on an empowering radical body project for themselves the consequences of their activity remains culturally ambivalent This research exposes the Janus faced nature of female bodybuilding exploring the ways in which the women negotiate accommodate and resist pressures to engage in more orthodox and feminine activities and appearances This book will be of interest to academics and students in the fields of gender studies the sociology of sport the body and research methodology

Sport in the Black Atlantic Janelle Joseph, 2017-01-31 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC open access license This book outlines the ways sport helps to create transnational social fields that interconnect migrants dispersed across a region known as the Black Atlantic England North America and the Caribbean Many Caribbean men's stories about their experiences migrating to Canada settling in Toronto finding jobs and travelling involved some contact with a cricket and social club It offers a unique contribution to black diaspora studies through showing sport in Canada as a means of contending with ageing in the diaspora creating transnational relationships and marking ethnic boundaries on a local scale The book also brings black diaspora analysis to sport research and through a close look at what goes on before during and after cricket matches provides insights into the disunities contradictions and complexities of Afro diasporic identity in multicultural Canada It will be of interest to students and scholars in sociology sport studies and black diaspora studies

The Body Andrew Blaikie, Mike Hepworth, Mary Holmes, 2003-08-28 This collection offers a uniquely comprehensive guide to the sociology of the body With a strong historical scope and conceptual framework it provides an indispensable reference for undergraduate and postgraduate students and a robust source for scholars working in the area The central focus is on understanding sociology through the body what is often described as re reading sociology in a more corporeal light This is an interdisciplinary process drawing on history feminism cultural history art history anthropology social psychology philosophy medical sociology and media and communications as well as sociology While this has been primarily a Western practice The Body seeks to broaden the perspective to include references that draw on alternative cultural assumptions beliefs and practices including Japan and South America

Sport, Leisure and Culture in the Postmodern City Stephen Wagg, 2016-04-01 The widespread concept of the postmodern city is frequently linked to the decline of traditional manufacturing industries and a corresponding wane of white working class culture In place of these appear flexible working practices a diversified workforce and a greater emphasis on consumption leisure and tourism Illustrated by an interdisciplinary study of Leeds a typical postmodern city this volume examines how such cities have reinvented themselves commercially politically and spatially over the past two decades The work addresses issues like cultural policy city centre development sport leisure and identity and explores different urban processes in relation to changing configuration of class gender and ethnicity in the postmodern city

Race and Society Tina Patel, 2016-11-26 Race and Society is a thoughtful and critically engaging exploration of some of the key issues around race and racialisation which have arisen in what is considered to be a highly diverse and complex society With a progressive approach emphasising the social construction of race issues within a post racial era moving away from essentialist and polarized explanations of raced interaction Tina Patel Introduces the main concepts and key theories including their post developments Focuses on the processes and impact of racial categorisation in contemporary society Highlights the intersectional and multifaceted nature of race and related conceptualizations Illustrates how race has morphed into newer forms of categorizations Race and Society is packed with topical examples and international case studies to engage students along with chapter summaries study questions and further reading It s a highly readable and thought provoking guide to the study of race and racialisation processes for students of sociology criminology and related disciplines

Critical Readings in Bodybuilding Adam Locks, Niall Richardson, 2013-03-01 In recent years the body has become one of the most popular areas of study in the arts humanities and social sciences Bodybuilding in particular continues to be of interest to scholars of gender media film cultural studies and sociology However there is surprisingly little scholarship available on contemporary bodybuilding Critical Readings in Bodybuilding is the first collection to address the contemporary practice of bodybuilding especially the way in which the activity has become increasingly more extreme and to consider much neglected debates of gender eroticism and sexuality related to the activity Featuring the leading scholars of bodybuilding and the body as well as emerging voices this volume will be a key addition to the fields of Sociology Sport Studies and Cultural Studies

Everyday Multiculturalism A. Wise, S. Velayutham, 2009-07-16 This book explores everyday lived experiences of multiculturalism in the contemporary world

Chinese Food and Foodways in Southeast Asia and Beyond Tan Chee-Beng, 2012-08-01 Chinese cuisine has had a deep impact on culinary traditions in Southeast Asia where the lack of certain ingredients and access to new ingredients along with the culinary knowledge of local people led Chinese migrants to modify traditional dishes and to invent new foods This process brought the cuisine of southern China considered by some writers to be the finest in the world into contact with a wide range of local and global cuisines and ingredients When Chinese from Southeast Asia moved on to other parts of the world they brought these variants of Chinese food with them completing a cycle of culinary reproduction localization and invention and globalization The process does not end there for the new context offers yet another set of ingredients and culinary traditions and the embedding and fusing of foods continues creating additional hybrid forms Written by scholars whose deep familiarity with Chinese cuisine is both personal and academic Chinese Food and Foodways in Southeast Asia and Beyond is a book that anyone who has been fortunate enough to encounter Southeast Asian food will savour and it provides a window on this world for those who have yet to discover it

Counselling and Identity Alex Howard, 2004-11-17 Questions relating to personal identity are of central importance within counselling which is often seen as an essentially and perhaps excessively me focussed activity People often come to counsellors to find reclaim come to terms with or control aspects of themselves They want to see how they have been shaped helped or damaged by their circumstances Yet there has been surprisingly little systematic examination of the conceptions of self that are could be or should be available to counsellors This accessible book meets this need and more deeply than most other texts into the foundations and underlying presuppositions of the subject Alex Howard takes a fresh look at counselling and psychotherapy and advocates greater philosophical and sociological awareness for trainees

The 'Olympic and Paralympic' Effect on Public Policy Daniel Bloyce, Andy Smith, 2016-04-14 Set against the backdrop of the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games this book examines the impact on public policy from broader political decisions taken in relation to Olympic and Paralympic related policy It considers the major political justifications for hosting these global sports events evidence for their expected impacts and topical issues including environmental protection and sustainability the use of technology and political protest The book will be essential reading for anyone with an interest in sport policy and politics and how broader political decisions come to impact on the development of Olympic and Paralympic sport This book was published as a special issue of the International Journal of Sport Policy and Politics

Olympic Cities: 2012 and the Remaking of London Iain MacRury, 2017-03-02 Drawing upon historical cultural economic and socio demographic perspectives this book examines the role of a sporting mega event in promoting urban regeneration and social renewal Comparing cities that have or will be hosting the event it explores the political economy of the games and the changing role of the state in creating post industrial metropolitan spaces It evaluates the changing perceptions of the Olympic Games and the role of sport in the global media age in general and assesses the implication of mega event regeneration policies for local communities and their cultural social and economic identities with specific reference to east London and the Thames Gateway

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Food and Material Cultures Irina D. Mihalache, Elizabeth Zaroni, 2023-02-23 Cookbooks Menus Ingredients Dishes Pots Kitchens Markets Museum exhibitions

These objects representations and environments are part of what the volume calls the material cultures of food The book features leading scholars professionals and chefs who apply a material cultural perspective to consider two relatively unexplored questions 1 What is the material culture of food and 2 How are frameworks concepts and methods of material culture used in scholarly research and professional practice This book acknowledges that materiality is historically and culturally specific local but also global as food both transcends and collapses geographical and ideological borders Contributors capture the malleability of food its material environments and stuff and its representations in media museums and marketing while following food through cycles of production circulation and consumption As many of the featured authors explore food and its many material and immaterial manifestations not only reflect social issues but also actively produce preserve and disrupt identities communities economic systems and everyday social practices The volume includes contributions from and interviews with a dynamic group of scholars museum and information professionals and chefs who represent diverse disciplines such as communication studies anthropology history American studies folklore and food studies

Queering Public Address Charles E. Morris, 2007 Ten noted rhetorical critics disrupt the silence regarding nonnormative sexualities in the study of American historical discourse and upend the heteronormativity that governs much of rhetorical history Enacting both political and radical visions these scholars articulate the promises of gay lesbian bisexual and transgender public address The contributors consider figures such as Abraham Lincoln Eleanor Roosevelt Harvey Milk Marlon Riggs and Lorraine Hansberry and issues as diverse as collective identity nineteenth century semiotics of gender and sexuality the sexual politics of the Harlem Renaissance psychiatric productions of the queer and violence induced traumatic styles

Activism and the Olympics Jules Boykoff, 2014-07-27 The Olympics have developed into the world's premier sporting event They are simultaneously a competitive exhibition and a grand display of cooperation that bring together global cultures on ski slopes shooting ranges swimming pools and track ovals Given their scale in the modern era the Games are a useful window for better comprehending larger cultural social and historical processes argues Jules Boykoff an academic social scientist and a former Olympic athlete In Activism and the Olympics Boykoff provides a critical overview of the Olympic industry and its political opponents in the modern era After presenting a brief history of Olympic activism he turns his attention to on the ground activism through the lens of the Vancouver 2010 Winter Olympics and the 2012 Summer Olympics in London Here we see how anti Olympic activists deploy a range of approaches to challenge the Olympic machine from direct action and the seizure of public space to humor based and online tactics Drawing on primary evidence from myriad personal interviews with activists journalists civil libertarians and Olympics organizers Boykoff angles in on the Games from numerous vantages and viewpoints Although modern Olympic authorities have strived even through the Cold War era to appear apolitical Boykoff notes the Games have always been the site of hotly contested political actions and competing interests During the last thirty years as the Olympics became an economic juggernaut they also generated numerous reactions from groups that have sought to challenge the event s triumphalism and pageantry The 21st century has seen an increased level of activism across the world from the Occupy Movement in the United States to the Arab Spring in the Middle East What does this spike in dissent mean for Olympic activists as they prepare for future Games

'Race' and Sport Kevin Hylton,2008-08 Offering a genuinely cutting edge review of critical race theory this book opens the field to a wide readership of students and researchers

Old Age and Agency Emmanuelle Tulle,2004 This book is about rethinking the ways in which we make sense of social action or agency in later life The contributions in this collection challenge traditional academic approaches to the study of later life which arguably often deny older people agency Social gerontology and the wider society should be more reflexive and rather than contribute to the continued marginalisation of older people should draw attention to the extent to which the latter s actions may be understood within the set of normalising discourses which people have to manage and negotiate as they get old The purpose of this collection is to continue this process by providing philosophical theoretical conceptual and empirical direction for a reflexive social gerontology This book argues that the management of later life has become complex caught as it is within a broad discourse which continues to construct old age as a time of decline and dependency but has shifted the burden of responsibility for the avoidance of decline on individuals

Food in Nineteenth-Century British History Ian Miller,2025-07-25 Volume 4 examines the British diet from its colonial and global perspectives Colonialism combined with rapidly improving global transport networks introduced the British introduced to a plethora of unfamiliar foods from overseas Changing economic trading patterns also impacted massively on the changing British diet Emigration inwards and outwards and military service further encouraged a global inter mingling of diets and palates The British stomach was introduced to new spices and herbs either at home or abroad although fears persisted that the British constitution was ill suited to rich foreign foods A selection of sources will bring to life how the increasingly globalised world changed British eating habits while introducing readers to the many debates surrounding this transition

Economic Nationalism in a Globalizing World Eric Helleiner,Andreas Pickel,2018-08-06 Is economic nationalism an outdated phenomenon in light of globalization Economic Nationalism in a Globalizing World demonstrates the enduring and even heightened economic significance of national identities and nationalism in the current age The volume s contributors pioneers in the reinterpretation of economic nationalism explore diverse ways in which national identities and nationalism continue to shape contemporary economic policies and processes The authors examine the question in a range of geographical contexts and issues European Union food politics competitiveness strategies in New Zealand East Asian development strategies Japanese liberalization monetary politics in Quebec and Germany and post Soviet economic reforms Together the cases explore the policy breadth of nationalism It is not just a protectionist ideology but is in fact associated with a wide variety of economic policies including support for economic liberalization and globalization

Birth in the Pacific Vicki Lukere, Margaret Jolly, 2001-11-30 This collection explores birth in the Pacific against the background of debates about tradition and modernity A wide ranging introduction and conclusion together with case studies from Papua New Guinea New Caledonia Vanuatu Fiji and Tonga show how simple contrasts between traditional and modern practices technocratic and organic models of childbirth indigenous and foreign approaches and notions of before and after can be potent but problematic The difficulties entailed confront public health programs concerned with practical issues of infant and maternal survival in developing countries as well as scholarly analyses of birth in cross cultural contexts The introduction analyzes central concepts and themes questions of survival safety and well being the significance of postures practices and sites the role of midwives traditional birth attendants and nurses and the role of men in birth and reproduction Contributors four anthropologists a historian and a community health worker offer insights into the ways mothers midwives and nurses relate the traditional and the modern and how ideas of tradition and modernity have shaped representations of Pacific childbirth The conclusion provides researchers with a guide to relevant literature from several disciplines As a whole the collection warns against either a celebration of emancipation through biomedicine or a recuperative romance about women's past powers in reproduction Contributors Ruta Fiti Sinclair Margaret Jolly Vicki Lukere Shelley Mallett Helen Morton Christine Salomon
