

Praise the Lord, the Almighty

Joachim Neander

"Lobe den Herren" from the Stralsund Gesangbuch, 1665

$\text{♩} = 120$

The first system of the musical score is in 3/4 time. The right hand (treble clef) features a melody of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together. The left hand (bass clef) provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. The system concludes with a repeat sign.

The second system continues the piece, marked with a repeat sign at the beginning. It features a key signature change to two flats (B-flat and E-flat) in the middle of the system. The right hand continues with a melodic line, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment.

The third system, marked with a repeat sign, continues the composition. It maintains the two-flat key signature. The right hand has a more active melodic role with many beamed notes, while the left hand provides a solid harmonic foundation with sustained chords and moving lines.
