director's work from when it first emerged on the modern stage to its multifarious present day manifestations. By combining an historical focus with the latest contemporary research from an international range of perspectives and authors, this collection marks an important moment in Meyerhold studies as well as offering a new assessment of his relation to today's theatre. Making Its dynamic blend of research is presented in five sections. Histories enlarges on more conventional subjects like the grotesque and Biomechanics to overlooked topics such as Meyerhold's failed projects and his work in film.

Collaborations and Connections extends understandings of Meyerhold's well-known collaborative capacities to consider new cultural influences and lesser-known working relationships. Sources engages with hitherto untapped material in Meyerhold's oeuvre by reproducing and contextualising previously untranslated primary sources on his work. Practitioner Voices offer lively on-the-ground testimony of the contemporary impact of Meyerhold's practice. Meyerhold in New Contexts maps the routes of his practice across continents and examines ways in which his work is being applied in a number of contemporary scenarios such as motion capture, computer-based 3D visualisations and the new normal of digital pedagogy. This is a key resource for students and scholars of European Theatre, acting theory and actor training as well as for those more broadly interested in the socio-political impact of theatre.

Devising Performance Jane Milling, Deirdre Heddon, 2015-10-11. What is the history of devised theatre? Why have theatre makers since the 1950s chosen to devise performances? What different sorts of devising practices are there? What are the myths attached to devising and what are the realities? First published in 2005, Devising Performance remains the only book to offer the reader a history of devising practice. Charting the development of collaboratively created performances from the 1950s to the early 21st century, it presents a range of case studies drawn from Britain, America and Australia. Companies discussed include The Living Theatre, Open Theatre, Australian Performing Group, People Show, Teatro Campesino, Theatre de Complicité, Legs on the Wall, Forced Entertainment, Goat Island and Graeae. Providing a history of devising practice, Deirdre Heddon and Jane Milling encourage us to look more carefully at the different modes of devising and to consider the implications of our use of these practices in the 21st century.

Claire Dobbin, Helen Garner, Evelyn Krape, Jude Kuring and Yvonne Marini mocked the ocker character beloved by Pram Factory playwrights and performed monologues about men, sex and how they felt as a woman. Directed by Kerry Dwyer and produced by the Carlton Women's Liberation group, the play's frank revelations stunned audiences and shocked the Pram Factory world. Set against a backdrop of moratorium marches, inner-city cafes and share houses and the rising tide of sexual liberation and countercultural movements Kath Kenny uses interviews and archival material to tell the story of Betty Can Jump On the 50th anniversary of this ground breaking play she considers its ongoing impact on Australian culture and asks why the great cultural renaissance of women s liberation has been largely forgotten She sets out her stake in this story as a theatre reviewer today and as a child born into the revolutionary early 1970s And she asks why feminism keeps getting stuck in mother daughter battles rethinking her own experience as a young feminist who clashed with Garner over the publication of The First Stone Australian Theatre, Modernism and Patrick White Denise Varney, Sandra D'Urso, 2018-09-15 In the early 1960s the board of governors of the Adelaide Festival of Arts in Australia rejected two Patrick White plays The Ham Funeral in 1962 and Night on Bald Mountain in 1964 Australian Theatre Modernism and Patrick White documents the scandal that followed the board s rejections of White s plays especially as it acted against the advice of its own drama committee and artistic director on both occasions Denise Varney and Sandra D Urso analyze the two events by drawing on the performative behaviour of the board of governors to focus on the question of governance They shed new light on the cultural politics that surrounded the rejections arguing that it represents an instance of executive governance of cultural production in this case theatre and performance The central argument of the book is that aesthetic modernism in theatre and drama struggled to achieve visibility and acceptability and posed a threat to the norms and values of early to mid twentieth century Australia The recent productions indicate that despite the Adelaide Festival s early hostile rejections White s plays endure Australian Book Review ,2002 Fearless Beatrice Faust Judith Brett, 2025-04-23 A fascinating biography of feminist political activist Beatrice Faust controversial writer on sex and gender founder of the Women s Electoral Lobby and campaigner for abortion law reform from the 1960s to 1990s The Making of the Australian Literary Imagination Richard Nile, 2002 In this controversial and engrossing study Richard Nile debunks some of the powerful myths of cultural nationalism and observes its passing in favour of the celebrity author He explores the power of nationalism as a governing force in the creation and ultimate demise of Australian literature In a clear and accessible way Nile invokes the stylistic possibilities of narrative history and creative non fiction playfully blurring the lines between them The Making of the Australian Literary Imagination moves from literary London to the delights of Australian bookshops gets inside Angus and Robertson and interrogates the politics of reputation It investigates censorship and patronage paperback heroes and the able bodied writer and explores cinema and literature in the century that quite clearly belonged to the novelist AQ ,2001 Australasian Drama Studies ,2001 Australian Literary Studies ,2003 Contemporary Australian Drama Leonard Radic, 2006 In the late 1960s new theatre companies who had a passion for Australianess were created in opposition to stuffy mostly imported theatre of no relevance to themselves This work gives insights on how the new drama explored Australian themes and issues in a theatre where the playwright had pride of place Acts of Resistance in Late-Modernist Theatre Richard Murphet, 2019-10-29 In Acts of Resistance in Late Modernist Theatre Richard Murphet presents a close analysis of the theatre practice of two ground breaking artists Richard Foreman and Jenny Kemp active over the late twentieth and the early twenty first century In addition he tracks the development of a form of epileptic writing over the course of his own career as writer director Murphet argues that these three auteurs have developed subversive alternatives to the previously dominant forms of dramatic realism in order to re think the relationship between theatre and reality They write and direct their own work and their artistic experimentation is manifest in the tension created between their content and their form Murphet investigates how the works are made rather than focusing upon an interpretation of their meaning Through an examination of these artists we gain a deeper understanding of a late modernist paradigm shift in theatre practice
