Praxis Marxist Criticism And Dissent In Socialist Yugoslavia:

Praxis Gerson S. Sher, 1977      Praxis Gerson S. Sher,      Conflict and Cohesion in Socialist Yugoslavia Steven L. Burg, 2014-07-14 Steven L. Burg views Yugoslav politics since 1966 in terms of the communist leadership's efforts to preserve political cohesion in the face of powerfully divisive domestic conflicts. He examines the bases of those conflicts, their suppression with the establishment of communist power, and their reemergence and escalation into crisis during the late 1960s and early 1970s, a period when the conflict between hostile nationalisms, reinforced by regional economic differences, directly challenged communist power. Originally published in 1983, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print-on-demand technology to again make available previously out-of-print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905.      Unsettled 1968 in the Troubled Present Aleksandra Konarzewska, Anna Nakai, Michał Przeperski, 2019-10-14 Why does 1968 matter today? The authors of this volume believe that it is a crucial point of reference for current developments, especially the illiberal turn both in Europe and America. If we want to understand it, we need to look back into 1968, the year that founded the cultural and political order of today's world. The book consists of the following four sections: 1968 and transnationality, 1968 and the transformation of meanings, Artistic representations of 1968, and 1968 and the European contemporary. This is followed by an afterword from the significant keynote speaker at the conference, Unsettled 1968: Origins, Myth, Impact, in June 2018 in Tübingen, Germany. Irena Grudzinska-Gross herself, a Polish 68er, reflects upon the conference and leaves remarks on her 50 years of engagement with what happened in 1968.      This Is Not My World Adair Rounthwaite, 2024-01-16 A close-up history of the Yugoslav artists who broke down the boundaries between public and private. In the decades leading up to the dissolution of socialist Yugoslavia, a collective of young artists based in Zagreb took to using the city's public spaces as a platform for radical individual expression. This Is Not My World presents a detailed account of the Group of Six Authors and their circle in the prolific and experimental period from 1975 to 1985, highlighting the friction between public and private that underlied their innovative practices. Looking to circumvent the rigid bureaucracy of official art institutions, this freewheeling group of conceptual artists and their peers brought artistic activities directly to an unwitting public by staging provocative performances, exhibiting artworks, and interacting with passersby on the streets. Exploring artworks such as Vlasta Delimar's act of tying herself to a tree in a busy pedestrian area, eljko Jerman's production of a giant banner declaring 'Intimate Inscription' in the city's central square, and Vlado Martek's creation of an artwork on a seaside beach using women's underwear, Adair Rounthwaite examines the work of these artists as a site of tension between the intimacy of artistic expression and the political structure of the public sphere under state socialism. Whereas many histories of modern and contemporary art in formerly socialist countries tend to be dominated by discussions of ideology and resistance This Is Not My World focuses its attention on the affective aspects of the group s activities using artist interviews and extensive documentation to bring the reader closer to the felt experience of their public interventions Situating the group s work within the context of broader developments in conceptualism and theories of the avant garde Rounthwaite provides a fresh consideration and newly detailed account of this marginalized episode in global art history Made in Yugoslavia Danijela Beard,Ljerka Rasmussen,2020-06-01 Made in Yugoslavia Studies in Popular Music serves as a comprehensive and thorough introduction to the history sociology and musicology of popular music in Yugoslavia and the post Yugoslav region across the twentieth and twenty first centuries The book consists of chapters by leading scholars and covers the major figures styles and social contexts of music in the region that for most of the past century was known as Yugoslavia Exploring the role played by music in Yugoslav art culture social movements and discourses of statehood this book offers a gateway into scholarly explanation of a key region in Eastern Europe An introduction provides an overview and background on popular music in Yugoslavia followed by chapters in four thematic sections Zabavna Pop Rock Punk and New Wave Narodna Folk and Neofolk Music and the Politics of Popular Music Under Socialism Critical Social Theory in the Interests of Black Folks Lucius T. Outlaw Jr.,2005-09-15 Examining the situations of African Americans in the U S A Lucius Outlaw s essays illustrate over twenty years of work dedicated to articulating a critical theory of society that would account for issues and limiting factors affecting African descended peoples in the U S Attempting to put politics aside Outlaw writes from a non partisan standpoint in the hopes that the issues he raises in his essays will inspire improvement for the well bring of African Americans and will also strengthen America s democracy Outlaw envisions a democratic order that is not built upon racist projections of the past Instead he seeks in these essays a transformative social theory that would help create a truly democratic social order The Politics of Serbia in the 1990s Robert Thomas,1999 Thomas carefully examines the complexities of modern Serbian politics largely in the words of the political players themselves He illuminates the chronic factionalism that has frustrated any attempt to unseat Slobodan Milosevic from the presidency Creating a Socialist Yugoslavia Hilde Katrine Haug,2012-03-30 The Yugoslav communist leaders aspired to create a socialist Yugoslavia and when they came into power in 1945 they claimed to have introduced a socialist solution to the Yugoslav national question But what did it imply to solve a national question and what did introducing a socialist solution to a national question entail Creating a Socialist Yugoslavia Tito Communist Leadership and the National Question charts how the Yugoslav Communist leaders approached the national question and what influence the complex national relations in the multinational state of Yugoslavia had on the development of the Yugoslav communists policies and on their post war socialist project From 1935 to 1990 tremendous changes took place in the Yugoslav approach to the national question and in the institutions they devised as part of this solution There were also significant changes to the role of the republics and the relations between the different national groups within the

Yugoslav state Discussions on the national question were not absent during this period despite the communists claim to have solved it Debates over what kind of Yugoslav unity was the most desirable continued to be a question of contention and different groups had different visions of this A struggle over resources also developed between different republics This book identifies and examines four particular phases in the communists strategies towards the national question each marked by particular processes issues and challenges The claim to have solved the national question often meant that this issue could not be discussed openly and had to be expressed in a particular rhetoric approved by the Party Creating a Socialist Yugoslavia provides an authoritative account of the Yugoslav communist leaders national policy and attempts to deal with the challenges encountered by the communists in reconciling their aspiration to create a socialist Yugoslavia with the need to regulate national conflict within the federation

Mediating Spaces James M. Robertson, 2024-07-17 Throughout the twentieth century in the lands of Yugoslavia socialists embarked on multiple projects of supranational unification Sensitive to the vulnerability of small nations in a world of great powers they pursued political sovereignty economic development and cultural modernization at a scale between the national and the global from regional strategies of Balkan federalism to continental visions of European integration to the internationalist ambitions of the Non Aligned Movement In Mediating Spaces James Robertson offers an intellectual history of the diverse supranational politics of Yugoslav socialism beginning with its birth in the 1870s and concluding with its violent collapse in the 1990s Showcasing the ways in which socialists in Southeast Europe confronted the political economic and cultural dimensions of globalization the book frames the evolution of supranational politics as a response to the shifting dynamics of global economic and geopolitical competition Arguing that literature was a crucial vehicle for imagining new communities beyond the nation Robertson analyzes the manuscripts journals and personal correspondence of the literary left to excavate the cultural geographies that animated Yugoslav socialism and its supranational horizons The book ultimately illuminates the innovative strategies of cultural development used by socialist writers to challenge global asymmetries of power and prestige Mediating Spaces reveals the full significance of supranationalism in the history of socialist thought recovering a key concern for an era of renewed geopolitical contestation in Eastern Europe

The International History of Communication Study Peter Simonson, David W. Park, 2015-10-14 The International History of Communication Study maps the growth of media and communication studies around the world Drawing out transnational flows of ideas institutions publications and people it offers the most comprehensive picture to date of the global history of communication research and education This volume reaches into national and regional areas that have not received much attention in the scholarship until now including Asia Latin America Africa and the Middle East alongside Europe and North America It also covers communication study outside of academic settings in international organizations like UNESCO and among commercial and civic groups It moves beyond the traditional canon to cover work by forgotten figures including women scholars in the field and those outside of the United States and Europe and it situates them all within the broader geopolitical institutional and intellectual landscapes that have shaped communication study globally Intended for scholars and graduate students in communication media studies and journalism this volume pushes the history of communication study in new directions by taking an aggressively international and comparative perspective on the historiography of the field Methodologically and conceptually the volume breaks new ground in bringing comparative transnational and global frames to bear and puts under the spotlight what has heretofore only lingered in the penumbra of the history of communication study

Communist Political Systems Stephen

White,1982-09-01 The third edition of this text provides a background to the politics of China Eastern Europe and what was the Soviet Union The book has been rewritten throughout to reflect the emergence of pluralist multi party systems and non Communist governments are marked

Social Inequalities and Discontent in Yugoslav Socialism Rory Archer,Igor

Duda,Paul Stubbs,2016-03-31 Socialist countries like Yugoslavia garnered legitimacy through appealing to social equality Yet social stratification was characteristic of Yugoslav society and increased over the course of the state s existence By the 1980s the country was divided on socio economic as well as national lines Through case studies from a range of social milieux contributors to this volume seek to bring class back in to Yugoslav historiography exploring how theorisations of social class informed the politics and policies of social mobility and conversely how societal or grassroots understandings of class have influenced politics and policy Rather than focusing on regional differentiation between Yugoslav republics and provinces the emphasis is placed on social differentiation and discontent within particular communities The contributing authors of these historical studies come from diverse disciplinary backgrounds linking scholarship from the socialist era to contemporary research based on accessing newly available primary sources Voices of a wide spectrum of informants are included in the volume from factory workers and subsistence farmers to fictional television characters and pop folk music superstars

The Crisis of Marxist Ideology in Eastern Europe Vladimir Tismaneanu,2023-03-31 First published in 1988 The Crisis of Marxist Ideology in Eastern Europe states that since de Stalinisation began in Eastern Europe the dead hand of institutional Marxism has been eroded by revisionist Marxism with the turn to young Marx and the philosophy of human emancipation to undermine prevailing orthodoxies But this revisionism clung to the old socialist dogmas and refused a total break with the system and the effort eventually failed The result was the emergence of a dissident counterculture rejecting the system entirely Independent social movements such as unofficial peace groups and trade unions like Solidarity have given this counterculture a major role in Eastern Europe whilst the ruling elites have responded with confusion Tismaneanu concludes that the only hope for the anti totalitarian intellectuals of Eastern Europe is to oppose the regimes with non Marxist ideas otherwise they will be permanently reduced to the status of a hopeless albeit heroic minority This book will be of interest to students of economics political science and international relations

Politics, Art and Commitment in the

East European Cinema D.W. Paul,1983-06-18 For Humanism David Alderson,Robert Spencer,2017-02-20 Today anti humanism is a dominant even definitive feature of contemporary theory Setting out to challenge this tendency editors David Alderson and Kevin Anderson argue that the political moment demands a reappraisal of the humanist tradition Humanism in all its diversity and complexity may facilitate the renewal of progressive theory through the championing of human subjectivity agency and freedom Across four extended essays David Alderson Kevin Anderson Barbara Epstein and Robert Spencer engage critically with the Marxist tradition recent developments in poststructuralism postcolonialism and queer theory Incorporating an overview of the historical context that resulted in socialist humanism s eclipse in the 1950s and 60s and a strident critique of anti humanism For Humanism offers a coherent and compelling argument for the rehabilitation of a much maligned tradition     Marxism and the Good Society John P. Burke, Lawrence Crocker, Lyman H.

Legters, 2011-03-03 These 1981 essays examine the problems that have arisen from attempts to implement Marx s critical theory to which the concept of the good society is central As long as socialist regimes continue to invoke Marx they subject themselves to the norms contained within Marx s understanding of freedom in a community     Sociocide Keith Doubt, 2020-11-03 Wars have a destructive impact on society The violence in the first case is domicile in the second urbicide in the third genocide and in the fourth the book introduces a neologism sociocide the killing of society Through the lens of this neologism Keith Doubt provides persuasive evidence of the social political and human consequences of today s wars in countries such as Bosnia and Iraq Sociocide Reflections on Today s Wars rigorously formulates develops and applies the notion of sociocide as a Weberian ideal type to contemporary wars Drawing upon sociology anthropology philosophy and literature Doubt analyzes war crimes scapegoating and torture and concludes by examining capitalism in the face of the coronavirus pandemic as a sociocidal force Embedded in the humanistic tradition and informed by empirical science this book provides a clear conceptual account of today s wars one that is objective and moral critical and humanistic
