explores a variety of topics pondering over the essence of love as in The Lovebirds and The Experiment or describing reflections of an old man at the end of life in The Visit or empathetically dissecting the making of a sociopath sentenced to death by comparing him to the instinctual life of a solitary predator of the Savannah in The Leopard. Humorous insights over a dysfunctional family united in spite of untold love is presented in A Rebellious Story while other stories such as Wife and Scrooge 2011 portray the disorganized and confusing conduct of two self absorbed men who cannot appreciate the nurturing love that surrounds them. There are in addition two short stories contributed by guest writers. In The Rider contributed by Catterina Cocha Clara creates her own reality show by glancing out of the big screen of the train window while in the apocalyptic The Eve contributed by Jamie Marincola husband and wife deal in different ways with extreme circumstances creating a humorous portrait of family life.

The Rejected Princess and Other Stories Swapna Dutta, 2022-10-28

The Mahabharat one of the two great epics of India depicts life on earth and human beings in all its myriad shades. There is a popular saying that what has not been depicted in the Mahabharat be it good or bad does not exist in life. It is the story of human beings with all their goodness and virtues as well as faults frailties and weaknesses. In the age of the Mahabharat people lived life king size. A son thought nothing of renouncing the throne and with it life's major happiness for the sake of making his father happy. A celestial river could readily agree to go down on earth marry a human being and give birth to eight young brothers. A princess unfairly rejected by her lover could pray so hard so earnestly and for so long that Lord Shiva himself could be moved and grant her the boon of destroying the man who had ruined her happiness. A sage who is otherwise a wonderful man has such a massive ego about not keeping his promise that he demands an obnoxious and cruel sacrifice from an innocent and devoted disciple. In the Mahabharat one sees man at his best and at his worst. And how good and evil always co exist side by side.

The Bishop and Other Stories Anton Chekhov, 2020-12-08

The Bishop and Other Stories 1919 is a collection of short stories by Russian writer Anton Chekhov. The title story of the collection originally published in 1902 finds the author at his most introspective. Written while Chekhov was dealing with the long term effects of tuberculosis a period in which he began to accept the inevitability of his own death. The Bishop is a meditative story that follows a dedicated man who in the face of oblivion wants nothing more than to go about his work to the best of his ability. The Bishop is the story of a man named Pyotr. Set during Easter Week it begins while Pyotr is passing out palms at a service on the night before Palm Sunday. As he begins to feel faint he sees his mother whose presence he did not expect and begins to cry. Over the next several days Pyotr goes about his duties caring for the sick and dying officiating at the local cathedral and meeting with his colleagues all while growing sicker and increasingly irritable. As he succumbs to typhoid fever his mother and his faith are all he has left in a world that will soon forget him. The Letter is a similarly religious earlier story in which a conversation between two priests Father Orlov and Father Anastasi is interrupted by the deacon. As the three discuss what is to be done with the deacon's wayward son the difference between morality and mercy is illuminated for all to see. The Bishop and Other
