His work of over fifty years is examined in seven essays and illustrated by more than 50 exhibited works. First published to accompany an exhibition in Rome at Galleria Borghese that took place in early 2019. In 1917 Pablo Picasso traveled to Rome and Naples with Jean Cocteau and Igor Stravinskij. During this trip for the first time he could admire directly Hellenistic and Roman sculpture that of the Renaissance and Baroque eras but also the Roman frescoes of Pompei. The first exhibition dedicated to Picasso's sculpture to be held in Rome and its accompanying catalogue were conceived as a journey through the centuries that chronologically follows the interpretation of forms and different themes, stories and myths, bodies and figures, objects and fragments in sculpture. The exhibition of masterpieces of the great Spanish master is accompanied by previously unpublished images of his sculpture studios by Edward Quinn that narrate the context in which these works were born. The catalogue includes essays that explore the visual and conceptual dialogue between the works of Picasso and works of the past, illustrating and examining over fifty works, some of which have never been exhibited before.

Picasso Pablo Picasso, 1967 Catalogue of the Harvard University Fine Arts Library, The Fogg Art Museum Harvard University. Fine Arts Library, 1976 Picasso sculpture; with a complete catalogue W. Spies, 1971 Sculpture 1900-1945 Penelope Curtis, 1999 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of the significant growth of sculpture as an artistic form in Europe and America from 1900-1945. Using a clearly defined thematic structure, it identifies key issues and developments throughout this important period in the history of art. Individual chapters cover public sculpture, the monument, the object, image making, the built environment, the figurative ideal and different materials. These themes broadly reflect the changing cultural and political climate of a turbulent period which included two world wars, each preceded by widespread rising nationalism. The practice of sculpture is considered within the wider artistic context of painting and architecture and the development of international art markets. Auguste Rodin, whose ground-breaking exhibition opened in Paris in 1900, serves as the book's point of departure and as a recurrent point of reference.
