Sculptures Musée du Louvre, Marine Degli, 2000      Géographie ... Europe - Asie - Océanie - Afrique - Amérique, France et ses colonies Reclus, 1873      In the Museum of Man Alice L. Conklin, 2013-10-15 In the Museum of Man offers new insight into the thorny relationship between science society and empire at the high water mark of French imperialism and European racism Alice L Conklin takes us into the formative years of French anthropology and social theory between 1850 and 1900 then deep into the practice of anthropology under the name of ethnology both in Paris and in the empire before and especially after World War I and finally into the fate of the discipline and its practitioners under the German Occupation and its immediate aftermath Conklin addresses the influence exerted by academic networks museum collections and imperial connections in defining human diversity socioculturally rather than biologically especially in the wake of resurgent anti-Semitism at the time of the Dreyfus Affair and in the 1930s and 1940s Students of the progressive social scientist Marcel Mauss were exposed to the ravages of imperialism in the French colonies where they did fieldwork as a result they began to challenge both colonialism and the scientific racism that provided its intellectual justification Indeed a number of them were killed in the Resistance fighting for the humanist values they had learned from their teachers and in the field A riveting story of a close knit community of scholars who came to see all societies as equally complex In the Museum of Man serves as a reminder that if scientific expertise once authorized racism anthropologists also learned to rethink their paradigms and mobilize against racial prejudice a lesson well worth remembering today      Metropolitan Fetish John Warne Monroe, 2019-09-15 From the 1880s to 1940 French colonial officials businessmen and soldiers returning from overseas postings brought home wooden masks and figures from Africa This imperial and cultural power play is the jumping off point for a story that travels from sub Saharan Africa to Parisian art galleries from the pages of fashion magazines through the doors of the Louvre to world fairs and international auction rooms into the apartments of avant garde critics and poets to the streets of Harlem and then full circle back to colonial museums and schools in Dakar Bamako and Abidjan John Warne Monroe guides us on this journey one that goes far beyond the world of Picasso Matisse and Braque to show how the Modernist avant garde and the European colonial project influenced each other in profound and unexpected ways Metropolitan Fetish reveals the complex trajectory of African material culture in the West and provides a map of that passage tracing the interaction of cultural and imperial power A broad and far reaching history of the French reception of African art it brings to life an era in which the aesthetic category of primitive art was invented      Around and about Marius Barbeau Gordon E Smith, Lynda Jessup, Andrew Nurse, 2007-01-01 Marius Barbeau 1883 1969 played a vital role in shaping Canadian culture in the twentieth century Rooted in the premise that his cultural work in anthropology fine arts music film folklore studies fiction historiography cannot be read uni dimensionally the sixteen articles that comprise this book demonstrate that by merging disciplinary perspectives about Barbeau evaluations and understandings of the situation around Barbeau can be
