Herbert, 2014-01-21 In the late seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries cultural economic and political changes as well as increased geographic mobility placed strains upon British society But by cultivating friendships and alliances women worked to socially cohere Britain and its colonies In the first book length historical study of female friendship and alliance for the early modern period Amanda Herbert draws on a series of interlocking microhistorical studies to demonstrate the vitality and importance of bonds formed between British women in the long eighteenth century She shows that while these alliances were central to women's lives they were also instrumental in building the British Atlantic world Pioneer Woman Elizabeth Helen Thompson, 1991 In The Backwoods of Canada and The Canadian Settler's Guide Catherine Parr Traill described a pioneer woman's role on the Ontario frontier presenting an idealized portrait of the Canadian woman pioneer in the mid nineteenth century By transposing this figure into fiction Traill managed to create what was in effect a new fictional character type the pioneer woman A Collection of Chicken Soup for the Woman's Soul, 2005 The London and Paris ladies' magazine of fashion, ed. by Mrs. Edward Thomas Jane Thomas (née Pinhorn), 1877 The Deep Seam Jack Bethea, 1926 Owens, Laura Scott Rothkopf, 2017-01-01 A richly illustrated expansive mid career survey of the stand out American artist's pioneering and influential work with each copy featuring a unique silk screen cover printed in Owens's studio Since the early 1990s Laura Owens b 1970 has challenged traditional assumptions about figuration and abstraction in her pioneering approach to painting Created in close collaboration with the artist on the occasion of her mid career survey at the Whitney Museum of American Art this inventive and comprehensive book features an incisive introduction by Scott Rothkopf critical essays literary texts and short commentaries on a variety of subjects related to Owens's broad interests which range from folk art and needlework to comics and wallpaper Reflections by more than twenty of Owens's fellow artists collaborators assistants dealers family members and friends offer an array of perspectives on her work at different periods in her life beginning with her high school years in Ohio and ending with her current exhibition A rich trove of more than a thousand images drawn from the artist's personal archive and largely unpublished before now includes personal correspondence journals academic transcripts handwritten notes source material exhibition announcements clippings and installation photographs Strikingly each copy also features a unique silk screen cover printed in Owens's studio giving readers the opportunity to own an original work of art Together all of these elements provide a rare and intimate look at how an artist might make her way in the world as well as how art gets made movements take hold and relationships evolve over time The Woman's World ... Oscar Wilde, 1890 Morgenröthe: a Book, and a Sign of this Age John Pulsford, 1883 New complete dictionary of the English and Dutch languages Isaac Marcus Calisch, 1890 Morgenröthe: A Book, and a Sign of this Age. industrial corporations into developing areas of the world particularly in those industries employing primarily women has generated tension between traditional familial and social roles and the demands of industrial working life In Israel these tensions are further complicated by the social and political dynamics of Arab Jewish conflict as well as the strictly demarcated roles of women and men in traditional Arab society The resolution of these tensions on the shop floor shapes the social relations of production the factories management systems family life in the industrial towns and individual status and autonomy The negotiation involves unequal power relations manifested in a dual patriarchal structure the Arab cultural practice of male domination of women as well as the formal management system of the textile concern which dictates the nature of relationships between Jewish managers and Arab women workers To meet their business goals the managers must cooperate with the community that provides their workforce adapting its norms and appropriating its worldview The managers are constrained by the strict social rules of Arab and Druse society and respond by attempting to harness and manipulate local family values to foster personal commitment furthering production goals through paternal control The consequence of this paternalism is a workforce that relates to the organization as family identifies with its goals and internalizes feelings of loyalty However the workforce also uses the plant as the arena for developing self awareness and enhancing personal independence and status within the family The seamstresses emerge as active shapers of the organizational culture forcing the managers to adapt to and comply with their personal needs and perceptions of work

The World of fashion and continental feuilletons [afterw.] The Ladies' monthly magazine, The World of fashion [afterw.] Le Monde élégant; or The World of fashion ,1877 Morgenröthe, a suppl. to the 'Supremacy of man'. John Pulsford,1881
