Ndiokwere,1998      Achievement as Value in the Igbo/African Identity Vernantius Emeka Ndukaihe,2006 Achievement seems to be a first class value in our world today With the ongoing global debate on what constitutes identity can we include achievement as one of the constituents In the Igbo African identity the achievement instinct is basically innate The ethics of this phenomenon needs an evaluation aimed at improving the status quo What is the plight of the Igbo African achieving in the face of modern capitalistic tendencies What has become of the many other values in her identity which has been her pride as a race How is her religiosity which is inseparable from daily living affected by modernity and its new trends of the achievement ethos These are some of the issues that are addressed in this book with the conviction that theology achievement and identity are continuity      Overcoming Women's Subordination in the Igbo African Culture and in the Catholic Church Rose N. Uchem,2001 When African scholars lament over the near destruction of African cultures they do not reflect the reality of African women s historical traditions of empowerment and inclusion in pre colonial pre Christian African societies which were also lost in the same process of Western Christian cultural imperialism Similarly most male Church theologians writing or speaking about inculturation do not address the deeper cultural issues which impact heavily on African women from back cover      Foreign Missionary Background and Indigenous Evangelization in Igboland Nkem Hyginus M.
