directness There is no hiding behind complicated or technical language In one of the most forceful chapters in the book the author shows how hope breeds courage and courage breeds hope But hope is not a matter of wishful thinking Drawing on St Augustine the author shows moreover that hope has two essential components Not just courage but anger as well The expression of our anger can lead to greater clarity with our discernment and spiritual perception Hope too can lead us to understand God's solidarity with us in times of sorrow and struggle Teresa White in this Lent Book draws on inspiration from writers as diverse as Julian of Norwich and Karl Rahner Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Henri Nouwen but throughout the book there is strong scriptural underpinning which the author uses to great effect

A Visit to the Sea Side, 1823

The Old Man and the Sea Anthony Smith, 2015-02-26 Octogenarian Anthony Smith's journey was originally inspired by both the Kontiki Expedition of Thor Heyerdahl who he knew and the incredible story of the survivors of a 1940 boat disaster who spent 70 days adrift in the Atlantic eventually reaching land emaciated and close to death While this might sound like a voyage no one would wish to emulate to octogenarian Anthony Smith it sounded like an adventure and he placed a typically straightforward advertisement in the Telegraph that read Fancy rafting across the Atlantic Famous traveller requires 3 crew Must be OAP Serious adventurers only In his inimitable style Smith details their voyage and the hardships they endured with a matter of fact air that makes his story seem all the more impressive His advanced age allows him a wider perspective not only on the journey but on life itself and his never say die attitude to the difficulty of the journey is inspirational Old men ought to be explorers said T S Eliot and this book certainly gives a compelling argument in his favour It is both a great story a huge storm on the final night of the voyage almost wrecked them on a reef and a call to action for the older generation do not go quietly says Anthony Smith but seek out adventure as long as you are able

Talk of Treasure Jane Carswell,2019-02-01 Jane Carswell began her working life at Pegasus Press shortly after its audacious publication of Janet Frame s novel Owls Do Cry and years later she went on to write an award winning memoir called Under the Huang Jiao Tree Two journeys in China The road between one book and the other was paved with both delight and self doubt the experience provoking Jane to write again this time about the transformation between the private interior worlds of reading and meditation and the noisy exterior world of publication between the books we read and treasure and the ones we write With a wry and engaging tone she invites us into her world and its jostling demands of music teaching writing friends and family a succession of Chinese guests and travels to a world of meditation and monasteries In the spirit of the works of Anne Lamott and Kate Llewellyn the daily activities of Jane s life are bound to small breakthroughs and quiet illuminations The author becomes a perfect companion to the reader as her life writing and meditation coalesce in profound ways But as the perfect ending to her own writing journey and understanding threatens to elude her Jane journeys to where Janet Frame grew up to find the courage and wisdom to complete her own story Lyrical and literary Talk of Treasure is a compelling memoir about how to be a writer and more simply just how to be Carswell s understated writing has a rare clarity and honesty The Dominion Post Her powers of description are so acute and tender An enjoyable and fascinating account of the ways in which our passions enable us to become fully human Ruth Fowler

Community Meditation teacher Jane Carswell treads not only carefully but thoughtfully and originally The Age A Residence Among the Chinese: Inland, on the Coast, and at Sea Robert Fortune,2012-03-08 China was still largely alien
