Seattle Poets And Photographers A Millennium Reflection:

Seattle Poets and Photographers J. T. Stewart, Rod Slemmons, 1999 Light water and woods have always inspired Seattle artists and poets and their views at the end of our millennium are especially rich complex subtle and often humorous This title celebrates these individual visions in a commemorative book sponsored by the City of Seattle through the Seattle Arts Commission Photographs by Marsha Burns Michael Burns Lee Friedlander Natalie Fobes Peter DeLory and poetry by Denise Levertov Richard Hugo Colleen J McElroy and others are brought together to create a handsome and thoughtful portrait of Seattle at the end of its defining century Blues and Greens Alan Chong Lau, 2000-04-01 Alan Chong Lau's poetic memoir of his days as a produce worker in Seattle's Chinatown reveals a microcosm of grassroots working class Asian America a world where customers workers and fruits and vegetables intersect in exchanges that crackle with energy and brim over with humor With the simple profundity of a Zen koan the poems bear witness to people's humanity Lau portrays in words and pictures a community in constant flux as it moves to the push and pull of immigration Blues and Greens has a lot to say about Asian Americans What emerges is an acutely observed nuanced critique of where Asian Americans native born refugee and migrant are today Blue Dusk Madeline DeFrees, 2013-06-07 Contradiction and ambiguity are essential to the poetry of Madeline DeFrees Her work is concentrated multi-layered spliced with humor and characterized by a passionate interest in every aspect of words their literal and figurative meanings and associations their histories usage disappearances and resurrections In her recent poems she approaches complex subjects with a new clarity the dividend of a long investment in the art of writing Just as her poetry demands distance from personal biography and revelation it is also deeply affected by her own life story most profoundly her 38 year tenure as a nun Throughout her writing career from her early poems written under the name Sister Mary Gilbert to her newest ones in which she casts a lifelong glance back through history and lineage the need to reclaim individual identity is balanced against the relinquishment of the self From Going Back to the Convent What was I running from or into The uneasy light of the senior prom Mother's dream of a child bride supported by pennies from heaven Or was it the writing life laid as a sacrifice to a jealous god on the tomb of the woman I'd hoped to become Whatever it was it will soon Be over I write this now to reclaim it A student of John Berryman Karl Shapiro and Robert Fitzgerald Madeline DeFrees has taught generations of poets and poetry students and earned widespread acclaim for her own work Madeline DeFrees has taught throughout the US including at the University of Montana and the University of Massachusetts Amherst where she directed its Creative Writing program She presently lives in Seattle WA Mary Randlett Mary Randlett, 2007 Mary Randlett's photographic vision of the Northwest is big hearted intricate and tender and fully inhabited by the animals tides forests mountains and spirits that dwell there The black and white photographs presented here stand as a visual record of the Northwest at its most pristine and poetic The magnificent photographs are accompanied by text that sheds light on the artist and her work including an essay by Denise Levertov and seven poems inspired by

Randlett's photographs Her works are held in at least thirty permanent collections including the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Smithsonian Institution Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003 American Book Publishing Record, 2000-07
