Trillin, 2025-02-18 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER A fascinating portrait of journalism and the people who make it told through pieces collected from the incomparable six decade career of bestselling author and longtime New Yorker writer Calvin Trillin The Lede contains profiles that are acknowledged classics of the form and will be studied until A I makes hash out of all of us Dwight Garner The New York Times I've been writing about the press almost as long as I've been in the game At some point it occurred to me that disparate pieces from various places in various styles amounted to a picture from multiple angles of what the press has been like over the years since I became a practitioner and an observer Calvin Trillin has reported serious pieces across America for The New Yorker covered the civil rights movement in the South for Time and written comic verse for The Nation But one of his favorite subjects over the years a superb fit for his unique combination of reportage and humor has been his own professional environment the American press In The Lede Trillin gathers his incisive often hilarious writing on reporting reporters and the media world that is their orbit He writes about a legendary crime reporter in Miami a swashbuckling New York Times reporter and an erudite film critic in Dallas who once a week transformed himself from an appreciator of the French nouvelle vague into a crude connoisseur of movies like Mother Riley

Meets the Vampire There are pieces on the House of Lords aspirations of a North American press baron the paucity of gossip columns in Russia the embroilment of a weekly newspaper in a missing person case and the founding of a publication called Beautiful Spot A Magazine of Parking Uniting all of this is Trillin's signature combination of empathy humor and graceful prose The Lede is an unparalleled portrait of one of our fundamental American institutions from a master journalist
