Alzheimers discusses issues like driving hallucinations delusions bathing respite feeding tubes hospice guilt sexuality genetics aging warning signs placement or home care diagnosis hospice finding help emotions and more Sixty six columns and more from the highly regarded All About Alzheimers feature written by the author and published monthly in Todays Senior Magazine are assembled here to help the family and caregiver through the demanding trials of living with someone who has Alzheimers Few things are as frustrating and maddening as Alzheimers and caring for someone with the disease is uniquely different from other medical conditions In time the patient is unable to help in his own care even to follow such simple instructions as stand up or sit down creating a difficult situation for everyone Perhaps you think when someone forgets you just remind them no one forgets their own children how to eat dress and use the bathroom But they do In this book you will learn the difference between your forgetting a word and remembering it later and the Alzheimers patient who forgets but cannot remember later because the memory is not just momentarily forgotten it no longer exists If it does not exist it cannot be recalled Youll learn things you need to know that will seem counterintuitive and require changes in your normal responses They are not always easy to use but they can make life with this disease a bit easier for both the afflicted individuals and those who care for and love them You will come to understand the basics of the illness why such bizarre things happen and how to react to unexpected and on going problems without making things worse
