Eddie Winston Is Looking for Love

The background is a vibrant red with a subtle, painterly texture. Three birds are illustrated: a small yellow and blue bird at the top, a larger orange and green bird in the middle, and a dark grey bird at the bottom. They are surrounded by green leaves and branches. A gold pocket watch with a chain is positioned on the left side, partially overlapping the text.

Looking For Love A Novel:

Looking for a Love Story Louise Shaffer, 2010 Shaffer's warm wonderfully inspiring novel follows a woman who has lost her way but just might discover who she's meant to be

The Look of Love Jennifer McKnight-Trontz, 2002-02 Swashbuckling sailors dashing dukes naughty nurses and sexy stewardesses caught in webs of love passion betrayal and intrigue these are the raw materials of the romance novel and the lusty covers that advertise them In The Look of Love Jennifer McKnight Trontz provides a rollicking history of the covers and stories that have captivated millions of readers worldwide More than 150 of the most sensational covers from this venerable if venal literary form are shown in glorious color focusing on the period from 1940 to 1970 romance design's most fertile era The Look of Love features artwork and excerpts from titles such as Passion Flower Kept Woman Rendezvous in Lisbon and Jungle Nurse Along the way it brings attention to the pioneers of the romance novel cover artists such as Barye Phillips and Robert Maguire who helped define the look of paperbacks in general and Harlequin the grand dame of romance publishers with more than 100 million novels sold each year McKnight Trontz reveals the themes that typify both the story lines and the covers hospital romance the rich and raunchy royalty tropical paradises Westerns taboo relationships pirates and warriors and love triangles resulting in this definitive compendium of camp A book for romance lovers everywhere

Marthe's Search for Love Among Couples of Pine Trees Hugo Van Bever, 2015-10-23 Mainly out of loneliness a messed up writer falls in love with Marthe his female main character and decides not to let her die as initially planned but to invite her into his life to help him write his next novel He also welcomes popular characters from other successful novels all experts in love In addition he summons Vivian a prostitute like Vivian from the movie Pretty Woman who is an expert in love for sale to spice up the story The characters and their writer embark on an erotic journey of sensuality sex and murder as the writer takes copious notes that turn into an unusual meta novel offering different vistas on life death murder and love The story ends in Vietnam at the lake of Dalat where according to an old legend pine trees formed intimate couples holding each other entwining their roots after a young couple committed suicide The legend renews itself at midnight the day the writer's group arrives Will they find love or will they seek death

Looking for Love in the Legal Discourse of Marriage Renata Grossi, 2014-09-01 This book examines the invisibility of romantic love in the legal discourse surrounding modern Australian marriage It looks at how romantic love has become a core part of modernity and a dominant part of the Western marriage discourse and considers how the ideologies of romantic love are or are not replicated in the legal meaning of marriage This examination raises two key issues If love has become central to people's understanding of marriage then it is important for the legitimacy of law that love is reflected in both the content and application of the law More fundamentally it requires us to reconsider how we understand law and to ask whether it is engaged with emotions or separate from them Along the way this book also considers the meaning of love itself in contemporary society and asks whether love is a radical force capable of breaking down conservative meanings embedded in institutions like marriage or whether it simply mirrors them This book will be of interest to everyone working on love marriage and sexuality in the disciplines of law sociology and philosophy      Looking for Love in Strange Places: A Memoir for My Stepdaughters Diana Page,2016-02-18 Back in 1968 Diana Page was going to graduate from the University of Michigan without much hope for marriage or a career She didn't have a boyfriend so a prospective husband was unlikely to materialize before the semester ended and a bachelor's in political science wasn't going to make her easily employable The solution Join the Peace Corps where she could help change the world and possibly meet a guy who shared her values Thus began Diana's adventures Her travels as a journalist and diplomat took her down the dangerous roads of Latin American history from the 1960s into the twenty-first century With excerpts from diaries letters and news articles she weaves together a narrative of war and peace presidents and peasants but mostly of ordinary people who teach her about life She also runs into a few extraordinary people along the way Fidel Castro Isabel Peron Pelé Jorge Luis Borges and Hillary Clinton among others Looking for Love in Strange Places A Memoir for My Stepdaughters is a hopeful humorous account of what happens when you seize the day without too many expectations for the future      The Look of Love Sarah Jio,2014-11-25 Inspired by the classic song this magical story from the New York Times bestselling author of Always and Blackberry Winter tells the tale of a woman with the unusual gift to see true love but will she be able to find it for herself before it's too late Born during a Christmas blizzard Jane Williams receives a rare gift the ability to see true love In spite of her unique talent Jane has emerged from an ailing childhood a lonely hopeless romantic without love on her life On her twenty-ninth birthday a mysterious greeting card arrives The card specifies that Jane must identify the six types of love before the full moon following her thirtieth birthday or face grave consequences But when Jane at last falls for a science writer who doesn't believe in love she fears that she may never accomplish her task and that her loveless fate may be sealed Jio has become one of the most read women in America Woman's World      Baldwin: A Love Story Nicholas Boggs,2025-08-19 Drawing on new archival material original research and interviews this spellbinding book is the first major biography of James Baldwin in three decades revealing how profoundly his personal relationships shaped his life and work Baldwin A Love Story the first major biography of James Baldwin in three decades reveals how profoundly the writer's personal relationships shaped his life and work Drawing on newly uncovered archival material and original research and interviews this spellbinding book tells the overlapping stories of Baldwin's most sustaining intimate and artistic relationships with his mentor the Black American painter Beauford Delaney with his lover and muse the Swiss painter Lucien Happersberger and with his collaborators the famed Turkish actor Engin Cezzar and the iconoclastic French artist Yoran Cazac whose long overlooked significance as Baldwin's last great love is explored in these pages for the first time Nicholas Boggs shows how Baldwin drew on all the complex forces within these relationships geographical cultural political artistic and erotic and alchemized them into novels essays and plays that speak truth to power and had an indelible impact on the civil rights movement and on Black and queer literary history Richly immersive Baldwin A Love Story follows the writer's creative journey between Harlem Paris Switzerland the southern United States Istanbul Africa the South of France and beyond In so doing it magnifies our understanding of the public and private lives of one of the major literary figures of the twentieth century whose contributions only continue to grow in influence

A Novel Love Story Ashley Poston, 2024-06-25 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER A professor of literature finds herself caught up in a work of fiction literally from the New York Times bestselling author of The Seven Year Slip and The Dead Romantics Eileen Merriweather loves to get lost in a good happily ever after The fictional kind anyway Because at least imaginary men don't leave you at the altar She feels safe in a book At home Which might be why she's so set on going her annual book club retreat this year she needs good friends cheap wine and grand romantic gestures no matter what But when her car unexpectedly breaks down on the way she finds herself stranded in a quaint town that feels like it's right out of a novel Because it is This place can't be real and yet she's here in Eloraton the town of her favorite romance series where the candy store's honey taffy is always sweet the local bar's burgers are always a little burnt and rain always comes in the afternoon It feels like home It's perfect and perfectly frozen trapped in the late author's last unfinished story Elsy is sure that's why she must be here to help bring the town to its storybook ending Except there is a character in Eloraton that she can't place a grumpy bookstore owner with mint green eyes an irritatingly sexy mouth and impeccable taste in novels And he does not want her finishing this book Which is a problem because Elsy is beginning to think the town's happily ever after might just be intertwined with her own

Looking for Other Worlds Jean-Charles Régine Michelle, 2022-11-10 What would it mean to reorient the study of Haitian literature toward ethics rather than the themes of politics engagement disaster or catastrophe Looking for Other Worlds engages with this question from a distinct feminist perspective and in the process discovers a revelatory lens through which we can productively read the work of contemporary Haitian writers Régine Michelle Jean Charles explores the ethical imagination of three contemporary Haitian authors Yanick Lahens Kettly Mars and Evelyne Trouillot contending that ethics and aesthetics operate in relation to each other through the writers' respective novels and that the turn to ethics has proven essential in the twenty-first century Jean Charles presents a useful framework for analyzing contemporary literature that brings together Black feminism literary ethics and Haitian studies in a groundbreaking way

Living Up the Road from Laura Ingalls Dan L. White, 2015-01-07 Laura Ingalls and Almanzo Wilder lived in the Missouri Ozarks for over a half century They loved the scenery the mild climate their little Rocky Ridge Farm the people They loved their life in the Ozarks So what's it like to live a life like that just up the road from Laura's place Dan L. White and family have done that for over a quarter century During that time they wrote a number of books about Laura and her books and her life Living Up the Road from Laura Ingalls With Excerpts from Seven Books about Her is a sampler of some of those books along with the story of their personal life in the Ozarks They found out that living up the way from Laura's place led to much the same way of life As she so well stated I believe we would be happier to have a personal revolution in our individual lives and go back to simpler living and more direct thinking It is the simple things of life that make living worthwhile the sweet fundamental things such as love and duty work and rest and living close to nature
