CRASH and other STORIES Dick Donaghue, 2013-02-28 This collection of short stories deal with a wide gambit of underlying emotions of love, dedication, mistrust, hope and many of the traits and elements that make up the complexity of human beings from all walks of life and settings. It is these diverse characteristics that make our fellow humans so interesting. Many of these stories have been published both locally and nationally in Ireland. Mexico is Missing and Other Stories J. David Stevens, 2006 What's America to do when one day Mexico suddenly disappears? That question asked by the title story in Mexico Is Missing sets the tone for a collection whose individual stories have been described as provocative, intensely relevant and wickedly macabre. Thematically and formally diverse, these pieces are unified by their devotion to the offbeat, even insane moments of contemporary life. A widow hears a voice from her computer that claims to be God. An unnamed narrator develops an unhealthy fascination with his mailman. Several characters from a joke come to life and wonder what to do with themselves. A poet married to a porn star considers the real meaning of love. The subjects of this volume range widely. From Snoopy to Southern Baptists, from witch trials to infomercials, from the President's golf game to well, the President's penis, anything is fair game in a collection that blends satire with a sincere desire to find meaning in the jumbled world that we daily inhabit. A literary critic and author, Stevens also demonstrates his formal range by juxtaposing traditional linear stories against micro-fictions and longer fractured narratives. The result is a book that traverses the literary map with impressive dexterity. Individually, the stories in Mexico Is Missing will provide various pleasures for every reader. But taken together, they represent a more profound effort to blend those diametric impulses, formal, cultural and sociopolitical, which so often define contemporary experience. This collection of 23 short stories by J. David Stevens is clever, sardonic and humorous. While you're laughing, Stevens also gives you plenty of things to think about: spirituality, the negligence of the mass media, American politics and relationships. Book jacket.

Other People's Children and Other Stories Cecilia Kato, 2014-12-02 The Nigerian Civil War left behind unsung heroines and children. Some of them had befriended soldiers to ensure the survival of their families. These children and others born out of wedlock constitute a community of people who have identity crises rocking their lives. Also, veterans of the war abandoned by the authorities were left as ordinary individuals to contend with the war's destructive impact. This is the focus of the title story Other People's Children. Homeless captures the helplessness of isolated communities that are ill-prepared to battle the insurgency in northern Nigeria. Habiba's Triumph tells of the phenomenon of forced marriages even in literate families. Literacy, however, offers a victim the freedom of choice which people of previous generations did not enjoy Broken Lives exposes the pain of broken relationships on college campuses While a young man walks away unscathed to enter another relationship a young woman is left to nurse the wounds for a lifetime The Peoples Court is a reflection of peoples rush to Nigerias capital city Abuja in search of greener pastures Some leave home only to compete with rodents in settlements that are constantly demolished without adequate notice or compensation by the authorities so as to ensure conformity to the citys master plan Temples of Desire and other Stories K.R.
