 book analyzes how over the last two decades immigration regimes in three primary refugee receiving states in the Global North Canada Australia and the United Kingdom have engaged with allegations about witchcraft driven violence made by asylum seekers coming from Anglophone countries across the African continent The work intervenes at the nexus of anthropological historical legal developmental and human rights literatures to offer fresh insights into extrajudicial violence and global migration Taking witchcraft based asylum cases as its focal point it argues that the recent dramatic expansion in claims to refugee protection under the particular social group category of the 1951 UN Refugee Convention reflects immigration authorities increasing willingness to consider how legally recognizable persecution can derive from cultural practices and beliefs Reflecting critically on such cases it advances understandings of how witchcraft beliefs and practices have persisted as significant engines of violence in the contemporary world It sheds light both on the limits of legal pluralism and cultural relativism in asylum adjudication and on how social scientific expertise contributes not simply to the flow of ideas but also to the channelling of people across national cultural and epistemological boundaries The book will be essential reading for students and researchers in legal anthropology African studies human rights transnational history migration and refugee law and policy and the history and anthropology of witchcraft Internet and Email Tim Tuck,2001 This book is a vivacious and enthusiastic romantic on a determined search for the one true love of her life At about two times the age of a regular princess or even more she fearlessly pursues her fairy tale ending by embracing the paradoxes and age defying opportunities offered by the modern age Bolstered by the notions that fifty is the new forty and divorced is the new single she ventures into the medium of the internet a space where all things old are excitingly renewed to search for the one The fairyland of online dating proves to be populated by characters very much akin to those found in fairy tales of old There are some trolls and other downright dastardly types and others of beastly appearance who turn out to be kindly There are also some wily witches who try to trap and ensnare Fortunately the fairy godmothers BFFs mentored Coco through the Black Forest So will she find the dashing Prince Charming and live happily ever after Read on and see Australia's Forgotten Frontier Chris Viner-Smith,2007 The author describes his life as a Patrol Officer in the 1960s in primitive areas of Papua New Guinea Some of the duties included supervising the building of roads bridges houses airstrips wharves and hospitals
