Looking For Mr Goodbar:

Looking for Mr. Goodbar Judith Rossner, 2014-07-08 Inspired by a true story Looking for Mr Goodbar is the story of the life and death of Terry Dunn an attractive young schoolteacher educated in parochial school from a respectable family the kind of girl you don't notice very much the kind of girl who seems to have everything under control until one New Year's Eve when she is murdered

New York Magazine, 1977-10-31 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Watch Them Die Kevin O'Brien, 2008-11-25 Hannah kept wondering why this was happening to her Two people had been murdered and somebody was telling her in advance how they would die But why were they killed

New York Magazine, 1977-09-19 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Hard Hats, Rednecks, and Macho Men Derek Nystrom, 2009-10-21 Everywhere you look in 1970s American cinema you find white working class men They bring a violent conclusion to Easy Rider murdering the film's representatives of countercultural alienation and disaffection They lurk in the Georgia woods of Deliverance attacking outsiders in a manner that evokes the South's recent history of racial violence and upheaval They haunt the singles nightclubs of Looking for Mr Goodbar threatening the film's newly liberated heroine with patriarchal violence They strut through the disco clubs of Saturday Night Fever dancing to music whose roots in post Stonewall homosexuality invite ambiguity that the men ignore Hard Hats Rednecks and Macho Men argues that the persistent appearance of working class characters in these and other films of the 1970s reveals the powerful role class played in the key social and political developments of the decade such as the decline of the New Left and counterculture the re emergence of the South as the Sunbelt and the rise of the women's and gay liberation movements Examining the youth cult film the neo Western southern and the new nightlife film Nystrom shows how these cinematic renderings of white working class masculinity actually tell us more about the crises facing the middle class during the 1970s than about working class experience itself Hard Hats thus demonstrates how these representations of the working class serve as fantasies about a class Other fantasies that offer imaginary resolutions to middle class anxieties provoked by the decade's upheavals Drawing on examples of iconic films from the era Saturday Night Fever Cruising Five Easy Pieces and Walking Tall among others Nystrom presents an incisive evocative study of class and American cinema during one of the nation's most tumultuous decades

Dennis Schaefer, Larry

Salvato,1985-12-23 Fifteen top cinematographers discuss their approaches to filmmaking the films on which they have worked and the techniques they have used to solve specific problems The Stuff of Spectatorship Caetlin

Benson-Allott,2021-04-06 Film and television create worlds but they are also of a world a world that is made up of stuff to which humans attach meaning Think of the last time you watched a movie the chair you sat in the snacks you ate the people around you maybe the beer or joint you consumed to help you unwind all this stuff shaped your experience of media and its influence on you The material culture around film and television changes how we make sense of their content not to mention the very concepts of the mediums Focusing on material cultures of film and television reception The Stuff of Spectatorship argues that the things we share space with and consume as we consume television and film influence the meaning we gather from them This book examines the roles that six different material cultures have played in film and television culture since the 1970s including video marketing branded merchandise drugs and alcohol and even gun violence and shows how objects considered peripheral to film and television culture are in fact central to its past and future Diane Keaton Deborah C.

Mitchell,2001-08-09 In the past 30 years Diane Keaton has been an actress a director and a photographer This work begins with her early years in California but the primary focus is on her film career from the 1970s through the present The author examines Keaton s image as star and public figure drawing on information from interviews including personal conversations with Keaton feature pieces press releases books photographs posters films and reviews of films Each chapter provides an overview of the significant events and influences in Keaton s life during a particular period along with a thematic and stylistic analysis of that period s feature films television movies and photography The film analyses include an examination of themes and technical elements such as cinematography mise en scene movement editing sound acting costumes set and narrative structures The American Popular Novel After World War II David Willbern,2013-04-05 Through the perspectives of selected best selling novels from the end of World War II to the end of the 20th century including The Catcher in the Rye To Kill a Mockingbird The Godfather Jaws Beloved The Silence of the Lambs and Jurassic Park this book examines the crucial issues the U S was experiencing during those decades These novels represent the voices of popular conversations as Americans considered issues of family class racism and sexism feminism economic ambition sexual violence war law religion and science Through the windows of fiction the book surveys the Cold War and anti communism the prefeminist era of the 1950s and the sexual revolution of the 1970s forms of corporate power in the 1960s and 1980s the traumatic legacies of slavery and Vietnam the American fascination with lawyers cops and criminals alternate styles of romance in the era of late capitalism our abiding distrust of science and our steadfast wonder about the Great Mysteries Hollywood and Catholic Women Kathryn Schleich,2012-03 In this second edition of her exploration of Catholic women in film and television author

Kathryn Schleich presents an in depth feminist point of view while addressing important questions about the role of women in both the Church and Hollywood Throughout Schleich s extensive research she noticed that themes of fear mistrust and even hatred of women were prevalent While examining such deeply ingrained attitudes it soon became evident to Schleich that Catholic women still have a long way to go in Hollywood As she carefully explores the sexual tension between Sister Benedict and Father O Malley in The Bells of St Mary's the brutal murder of Theresa Dunn in Looking for Mr Goodbar and the stereotype shattering Grace Hanadarko of Saving Grace Schleich offers an insightful portrayal of women's oppression within the Catholic Church and explores whether Catholic women are better off today This study encourages contemplation of the place of Catholic women within the ever changing spheres of cinema and television ultimately encouraging movement toward the goal of achieving equal status for women in all realms of life
