Seven Times Smarter Laurel Schmidt,2007-12-18 What Is Smart There s evidence of so much more than reading writing and rithmetic in every child at least seven distinct intelligences according to the theory of multiple intelligences developed by Harvard s Dr Howard Gardner In Seven Times Smarter veteran educator Laurel Schmidt offers a parent friendly explanation of this theory and of the ways that kids are simply put word smart picture smart music smart body smart logic smart people smart and self smart These intelligences aren t fixed at birth They can be nurtured and strengthened meaning that in the right environment kids get smarter Seven Times Smarter an invaluable resource for parents teachers and caregivers provides the perfect way to create this environment Unlike other craft or activity books that just fill time and keep kids busy Seven Times Smarter prompts kids aged six to fourteen to work their brains and cultivate new skills using recycled or low cost materials found in every home and enjoy it It offers an exploration of what it means to be smart checklists to recognize the seven intelligences in your child book lists to develop and celebrate all the ways your child is smart and fifty creative constructive activities that are good for kids playing alone or in a group supervised or independently including Memory Tours If a memory book is too straightforward for your artistic child try an un book a memory box or a calendar Hanging Gardens Indoors or out even the smallest garden plot can yield a bumper crop of mathematical linguistic scientific and kinesthetic skills The Boredom Brigade Boredom is a springboard for imagination imaginary structures identities occupations and friends are just some of the ways kids develop their inter and intra personal intelligences Junk Yard Genius There s an education in junk in fact it s easy to turn your broken radio alarm clock fan blow dryer or scale into a project that could fascinate kids for days Connections Virginia A. Arnold,1989 Inventing a Classroom Kathryn F. Whitmore,Caryl G. Crowell,1994 What are the patterns of teaching and learning that make a classroom holistic How do children invent oral and written language How do they create the culture and curriculum of a classroom How does the spirit of community and collaboration develop among children and teachers What are the relationships between literacy schooling and socialization as they form among the children These are a few of the broad questions that Kathy Whitmore and Caryl Crowell answer in this absorbing portrait of Caryl s third grade classroom the Sunshine Room Over the span of a school year we watch the students in this bicultural classroom within a bilingual working class neighborhood work and develop together as a community of learners It is the story of how the Sunshine Room like many whole language classrooms invents itself and how in this process the children themselves are continually inventing oral and written language culture and curriculum In two separate collaborative voices the authors carry readers through several critical events in the life of the classroom the process through which the children and the teachers negotiate the curriculum the creation of a theme study about the Middle Ages and a vicarious experience of the Middle East war through children s literature and discussions On an individual level the deep friendship between Seaira an English speaking child from the volunteer community and Lolita a bilingual Latina from the barrio is symbolic of the bicultural experience fostered in the Sunshine Room

Max, V and Me Charm Heart,2024-03-06 This is the 3rd book in the Max V and Me Series of books In Charm s 20 s and early 30 s she hardly spoke to Max and V not like she used to when she was a kid Their friendship was strained at times but overall secure Charm put her family first Assisting the dead was way down on her priority list As she was not practicing her gifts all the voices including Max s and V s were quite faint to hear All orbs were still seen that glowed Her two supernatural friends stayed close their commitments to guide and guard Charm was difficult Charm refused to participate in assisting the dead No matter how much the souls begged and pleaded for her to pass on messages to their loved ones who were living all over the world Then the mini stroke happened T I A Transient Ischemic Attack she was knocked out She awoke to familiar noises from her childhood All of her senses were heightened Disembodied voices were loud and clear Charm had lost a lot of her past memories She had to relearn many things including how to talk to the dead safely With Max and V together they had to overcome some extremely Troubled Times
