Unwarranted Barry Friedman, 2017-02-21 In June 2013 documents leaked by Edward Snowden sparked widespread debate about secret government surveillance of Americans Just over a year later the shooting of Michael Brown a black teenager in Ferguson Missouri set off protests and triggered concern about militarization and discriminatory policing In Unwarranted Barry Friedman argues that these two seemingly disparate events are connected and that the problem is not so much the policing agencies as it is the rest of us We allow these agencies to operate in secret and to decide how to police us rather than calling the shots ourselves The courts have let us down entirely Unwarranted is filled with stories of ordinary people whose lives were sundered by policing gone awry Driven by technology policing has changed dramatically from cops seeking out bad guys to mass surveillance of all of society backed by an increasingly militarized capability Friedman captures this new eerie environment in which CCTV location tracking and predictive policing has made us all suspects while proliferating SWAT teams and increased use of force puts everyone at risk Police play an indispensable role in our society But left under regulated by us and unchecked by the courts our lives liberties and property are at peril Unwarranted is a vital timely intervention in debates about policing a call to take responsibility for governing those who govern us Children's Books in Print R R Bowker Publishing, Bowker, 1999-12 Something about the Author Anne Commire, 1976 Series covers individuals ranging from established award winners to authors and illustrators who are just beginning their careers Entries cover personal life career writings and works in progress adaptations additional sources and photographs Alan Clark: The Biography Ion Trewin, 2009-09-14 The unknown life of Alan Clark celebrated diarist womaniser Tory MP and controversial minister in Mrs Thatcher's governments Celebrated diarist famous womaniser Tory MP and controversial minister a castle owning toff and lecherous cad to some to others a colourful and life enhancing figure Alan Clark was politically incorrect before the term was invented He is best remembered for his sensational diaries but what of the man Alan Clark rarely spoke about his upbringing even to his family Was it as unhappy as he hinted Ion Trewin has had unrestricted access to extensive family papers including twenty years of unpublished diaries He has talked to politicians to those who knew him at the prep school which burnt down to friends at Eton and Oxford and to some of the many women he found impossible to resist despite a loving marriage of forty one years From his struggles to teach himself to write to formidable historian and diarist from his enthusiasm for Margaret Thatcher to the drunk at the Commons dispatch box affair ALAN CLARK THE BIOGRAPHY is a revealing and absorbing account of a remarkable and unforgettable man Coach Rosie DiManno, 2013-10-29 Pat Burns was one of the great NHL coaches He worked with the Montreal Canadiens Toronto Maple Leafs Boston Bruins and New Jersey Devils and seemed always to enjoy instant success He capped his extraordinary career by coaching the New Jersey Devils to a Stanley Cup victory in 2003 Cancer his third bout finally claimed him in 2010 aged 58 Rosie DiManno who knew Burns well has written a revealing exhilarating and heartfelt account of his life his childhood as a fatherless solitary male surrounded by many women his years as a police officer his glorious coaching career and his long and characteristically valiant ending Coach is both the first major biography of Burns and one that with its revelations personal insights and riveting prose is like the man himself sure to be both controversial and hard to beat Rosie DiManno knew liked and admired Burns and in the writing of this book has interviewed many many people from every stage of his life She is not blind to his less endearing qualities but seeks to explain them DiManno reveals a man of contradictions gruff and crude bullying and sentimental and easily wounded She shows moreover a man of hockey The Burns who rode motorcycles dressed like a cowboy and sweet talked the ladies as says DiManno a self creation His one indisputable true talent was for coaching hockey He was a pure coach DiManno tells a compelling story and helps us to understand a complex man one who
