The Burgtheater and Austrian Identity Robert Pyrah, 2017-12-02 The collapse of the Habsburg monarchy in 1918 galvanized discussion about national identity in the new Republic of Austria As Robert Pyrah shows in this thoroughly documented study the complex identity politics of interwar Austria were played out in the theatres of Vienna which enjoyed a cultural prominence rarely matched in other countries By 1934 productions across the city were being co-opted to serve the newly patriotic cause of the Dollfuss and Schuschnigg regimes and the Burgtheater once known as the first German stage had been transformed into a national theatre for Austria Using case studies of key productions and a wealth of previously unseen archival material Pyrah sheds new light on artistic and ideological developments throughout the period including the neglected earlier years He documents previously unexplored overlaps in the cultural programmes of Left and Right and unearths evidence that key institutions were subverted by the Right well before the suspension of parliamentary rule in 1933
