Everage,2010-05-18 Traci Edmonds is a 53 year old single mother of three living a modest an certainly uneventful life She is a relatively shy stay at home mom operating a small travel business She has determined that at her age her time for finding a life mate is over and she resigns herself to living the rest of her life without love Then she makes a bid to provide travel arrangements for an electronics firm's annual retreat. She is given the contract to make arrangements for the retreat aboard a cruise ship with the stipulation that she personally give the firm's top executive staff a pre-retreat trial run. Little does she know that this particular cruise would bring the unexpected and her life would be changed forever. During the cruise, Traci meets the company owner, Gary Crosse. He is what most women fantasize as their dream man: tall, dark, handsome, sometimes brooding. He is also rich and successful and a playboy. But like Traci, he is in his 50s or 57, to be exact. Gary has an infamous reputation in business and his personal life. He is a stickler for detail in business and a barracuda in his romances. Prior to meeting Mr. Crosse, Traci is warned: have all of your T's crossed your I's dotted before presenting anything to Mr. Crosse. And do not fall prey to his very lethal charm. Traci heeds the warnings on her interactions with Gary Crosse and makes sure that her dealings with him are conscientious and professional. Until one fatal night, just prior to the end of the cruise, Gary Crosse visits her cabin in the middle of the night and makes his intentions known, and they are not professional. This single act catapults them on a 30-year relationship filled with passion, romance, spirituality, physical and emotional trials, as well as danger, intrigue, and family unity. They endure tragedy, jealousy, betrayal, and forced separation. Then a racially motivated physical attack nearly destroys their relationship. It's that incident which leads Traci into the development of a family ministry. But in spite of the trials they endure, they do endure with the love they share and the grace, mercy, and protection of God almighty. And they bequeath a legacy of wisdom and faith to their family, friends, and all that knew them. The Southwestern Reporter, 1899

Responsibility and the Demands of Morality Stephen J. White, 2024-12-17. Stephen J. White (1983-2021) was developing a comprehensive view of responsibility and its limits when his life was tragically cut short. This volume contains his collected papers. White's view of responsibility spans across ethics, action theory, and interpersonal epistemology. Its core idea is that to be responsible for doing or believing something is to be answerable for why one has done it or why one believes it, and to be responsible for a state of affairs is to be answerable for why things are that way rather than some other way. White deploys this conception of responsibility to illuminate the notions of autonomy, coercion, shared reasoning, self-prediction, doxastic wronging, and peer disagreement. He also investigates the nature of practical reasoning; he argues against a production-oriented conception of practical reasoning, delineates the scope of transmission principles in means-ends reasoning, and identifies a limited form of self-prediction in practical reasoning that is subject to an anti-opportunism constraint. The papers form the outline of a deep ethical outlook that takes seriously our personal and collective responsibilities and yet leaves room for personal autonomy both in thought and in action.
