Advocating for Children in Foster and Kinship Care Mitchell Rosenwald, Beth N Riley, 2010-01-29 This book is the first to provide strategies for effective advocacy and placement within the foster care and kinship care systems It also takes a rare look at the dynamics of the foster and kinship relationship not just among children and the agency workers and service providers who intervene on their behalf but also between children and those who take in and care for them as permanency develops Drawing on their experience interacting with and writing about the institution of foster care Mitchell Rosenwald and Beth N Riley have composed a unique text that helps practitioners foster parents and relative caregivers realize successful transitions for youth especially considering the traumas these children may suffer both before and after placement Advocating for a child s best interests must begin early and remain consistent throughout assignment and adjustment For practitioners Rosenwald and Riley emphasize the best techniques for assessing a family s capabilities and for guiding families through the challenges of foster care Part one details the steps potential foster parents and kinship caregivers must take with the assistance of practitioners to prepare themselves for placement Part two describes tactics for successful advocacy within the court system social service agencies schools and the medical and mental health establishments Part three describes how to lobby for change at the agency and legislative levels as well as within a given community The authors illustrate recommendations through real life scenarios and devote an entire chapter to brokering positive partnerships among practitioners families and other teams working to protect and transition children Lacanian Psychoanalysis with

Babies, Children, and Adolescents Stephanie Farrelly Quinn, Carol Owens, 2018-03-29 Lacan did not say or write very much about the psychoanalysis of children There is no doctrine of the psychoanalysis of children in his work Instead his 1956 1957 seminar on the object relation and his Note on the Child of 1969 have been adopted by Lacanian analysts working with children as providing essential coordinates for direction in their clinical work This book is the result of inviting psychoanalysts of the Lacanian orientation working with children around the globe to theorise and conceptualise that work The Lacanian psychoanalyst works with the notion of the subject as a speaking being but the child subject brings particular exigencies to the psychoanalytic work Contributors attend to these exigencies in their essays by articulating the precise particularities of the direction of the treatment and psychoanalytic work with children Trauma-Focused CBT for
