Life at DrTom's: Mostly Humorous Anecdotes by a Mostly Retired Cornell Professor Thomas A. Gavin, 2013-02 Life at DrTom's is a diverse collection of easy to digest anecdotes about human behavior wildlife children wives and more from the perspective of a retired Ivy League professor DrTom taught classes in biology and conservation at Cornell University for almost 30 years and he conducted research on birds and mammals in the U S and abroad But he has found that observing humans and describing the human condition are as interesting as the study of wild animals DrTom writes with a somewhat cynical view about his own species in a way that will make you say hey I never thought of that Spanning six decades DrTom describes the colorful experiences that vary from studying squirrels on a cattle ranch in Idaho living in the rainforest of Costa Rica attending a geisha like party in Korea playing tennis for Ohio State to smoking a cigar while sipping a scotch in the forest surrounding his New York home These moments have sharpened his power of observation and informed his impression of what makes human behavior so curious But this life long exploration of what makes life interesting has generated the tangible he celebrates the most the memory of these rich encounters Readers will have no difficulty relating to DrTom's observations and conclusions about the experiences he shares You will see yourself in many of the uncanny situations in which he has found himself as a father grandfather husband teacher and retired baby boomer Regardless of your age gender or educational background the prose will make you laugh or pause or think more deeply about what you see around you

Schwann Spectrum, 2001 Presenting Bialik Azriel Eisenberg, Abraham Segal, 1956 Lesbian Rabbis Rebecca Trachtenberg Alpert, Ellen Sue Levi Elwell, Shirley Idelson, 2001 The office of rabbi is the most visible symbol of power and prestige in Jewish communities Rabbis both interpret to their congregations the requirements of Jewish life and instruct congregants in how best to live this life Lesbian Rabbis The First Generation documents a monumental change in Jewish life as eighteen lesbian rabbis reflect on their experiences as trailblazers in Judaism's journey into an increasingly multicultural world In frank and revealing essays the contributors discuss their decisions to become rabbis and describe their experiences both at the seminaries and in their rabbinical positions They also reflect on the dilemma whether to conceal or reveal their sexual identities to their congregants and superiors or to serve specifically gay and lesbian congregations The contributors consider the tensions between lesbian identity and Jewish identity and inquire whether there are particularly lesbian readings of traditional texts These essays also ask how the language of Jewish tradition touches the lives of lesbians and how lesbianism challenges traditional notions of the Jewish family Today I am completely out personally and professionally and yet I have learned that the coming out process never ends Even today I find myself in professional situations in which yet again I must reveal that I am a lesbian yet again I must prove myself worthy of functioning professionally in the straight world I still encounter moments of awkwardness some hostility and some sense of exclusion as I negotiate the pathways of my professional life Rabbi Leila Gal Berner from Lesbian Rabbis The First Generation The Jewish Quarterly ,1979
