Maze of Justice Tawfiq al- Ḥakīm,1947 Maze of Justice Tawfiq Ḥakīm,1989 Diary of a Country Prosecutor Tawfik al-Hakim,2023-07-11 1920s Cairo A young and ambitious prosecutor is dispatched from the bustling city to a provincial village to investigate a serious crime Armed with his European education the prosecutor is confident that he will dispense justice in this rural outpost But he finds himself increasingly befuddled by an alien legal system and the clueless bureaucrats who enforce it As he teases out the facts of the case only one thing becomes clear justice is never as simple as it seems First published in 1937 this classic by one of the Arab world s leading dramatists has lost none of its bite The Maze of Justice Tawfiq Ḥakīm,1989 An Egyptian comedy of errors Partly autobiographical it is in the form of a diary by a young public prosecutor posted to a village in rural Egypt Imbued with the ideals of a European education he encounters a world of poverty and backwardness red tape and incompetence of state officials Maze of Justice Tawfiq Ḥakīm,1947

A Grand Delusion Eberhard Kienle,2001-04-12 The author argues in this text that the much vaunted reform and liberalisation of Egypt s economy has been partial and selective far from beneficial to all Egyptians While the encouragement of the private sector has indeed benefited some it has failed to improve the standard of living of others in particular the lower middle classes and a large part of the landless rural population Most importantly economic reform and liberalisation have failed to produce a greater degree of political democracy notions of political accountability clean elections a genuinely free press the containment of police powers have turned out to be a great delusion which masks restrictions on political participation and civil liberties Shari'a Wael B. Hallaq,2009-04-16 Wael Hallaq s magisterial overview of Shari a examines the doctrines and practices of Islamic law from the seventh century to the present In a compelling narrative the author unravels the complexities of his subject to reveal a deep knowledge of the law which will engage and challenge both student and scholar On Time On Barak,2013-07-19 Revised version of the author s dissertation New York University 2009 Space in Modern Egyptian Fiction Ramadan Yasmine Ramadan,2019-11-01 In 1960s Egypt a group of writers exploded onto the literary scene transforming the aesthetic landscape Space in Modern Egyptian Fiction explores how this literary generation presents a marked shift in the representation of rural urban and exilic space reflecting a disappointment with the project of the postcolonial nation state in Egypt Combining a sociological approach to literature with detailed close readings Yasmine Ramadan explores the spatial representations that embodied this shift within the Egyptian literary scene and the disappearance of an idealized nation in the Egyptian novel This study provides a robust examination of the emergence and establishment of some of the most significant writers in modern Egyptian literature and their influence across six decades while also tracing the social economic political and aesthetic changes that marked this period in Egypt s contemporary history The Undergraduate's Companion to Arab Writers and Their Web Sites Dona S. Straley,2004-08-30 This companion provides information on the lives and works of about 150 authors who write primarily in

Arabic covering the first known works of Arabic literature in the 5th and 6th centuries A D to the present day While concentrating on literary authors writers from the fields of history geography and philosophy are also represented The individuals represented were chosen primarily from the Encyclopedia of Arabic Literature Among the major authors are Najib Mahfuz the 1988 Nobel laureate Nawal Saadawi the Egyptian physician who is the leading female literary author in the Arab world and the most frequently translated into English Abu al Ala al Ma arri the 11th century poet whose verses are taught to every Arab schoolchild and Avicenna the great physician and philosopher transmitter and interpreter of Aristotle whose work on medicine was long the standard not only in the Middle East but also in Latin translation in Europe In addition entries will be included for the anonymous romances so common in Arabic literature such as The Arabian Nights a cycle of stories perhaps even better known in the West than in the Arab world Interest in the history and culture of the Arab world at U S universities has taken a quantum leap since the events of September 11 2001 In this book the author demonstrates that at least three major distinct literary and cultural traditions are included within the fields of Middle Eastern and Islamic studies Arabic Persian and Turkic The Arabic tradition is the oldest largest and most widely dispersed Undergraduate courses in Arabic literature and culture are now being taught at both lower and upper levels at many universities Such courses are often used by undergraduates to fulfill basic educational requirements for their degrees Students in such courses often have difficulty finding information on Arab writers and this volume fills the void

The Revolt of the Young

,2015-01-08 Tawfiq al Hakim 1898 1987 is recognized as one of the most important figures in the history of modern Arabic literature Considered a pioneer in many literary forms including drama novels and short stories al Hakim influenced generations of Egyptian writers The Revolt of the Young is a collection of essays originally published in 1984 that shows al Hakim as a public intellectual addressing the ongoing conflict between generations Al Hakim muses on the cultural artistic and intellectual links and breakages between the old and the young generations He focuses on the young and their role in the continuing development of Egyptian society which over the course of the last century or so has undergone foreign occupation an experiment in parliamentary democracy within a monarchical system a socialist revolution characterized by both successes and failures the emergence of a dictatorial presidency and now the development of a complex political scenario currently dominated by groups with varyingly strong ties to the tenets of Islam Al Hakim did not live long enough to witness the most recent phases of this elongated and often disruptive process of experimentation and change but in his writing he focuses on the institution that he regards as crucial to any forward progress the family The essays present readers with a voice from the past with uncanny foretelling of issues raised by the events that occurred in Egypt more than twenty years after al Hakim s death Radwan s translation along with Roger Allen s foreword brings to light al Hakim s lucid and erudite commentary much of it as relevant to the problems facing Egyptian youth today as it was when first published

examine the emergence of nationalism among the Egyptian middle class during the 1930s and 1940s and its growing awareness of an Arab and Muslim identity Previously Egypt did not define itself in these terms but adopted a territorial and isolationist outlook It is the revolutionary transformation in Egyptian self understanding which took place during this period that provides the focus of this study The authors demonstrate how the growth of an urban middle class combined with economic and political failures in the 1930s eroded the foundations of the earlier order Alongside domestic events the momentum of Arabism abroad and the impact of events in Palestine necessitated Egyptian regional involvement Egypt's present position as a major player in Arab Muslim and Third World affairs has its roots in the fundamental transition of Egyptian national identity at this time

Politicising World Literature May Hawas, 2019-04-12 Politicising World Literature Egypt Between Pedagogy and the Public engages with postcolonial and world literature approaches to examine the worldly imaginary of the novel genre and assert the political imperative to teaching world literature How does canonising world literature relate to societal political or academic reform Alternating between close reading of texts and literary history this monograph studies a corpus of novels and travelogues in English Arabic French Czech and Italian to historicise Egypt's literary relations with different parts of the world in both the modern period and the pre modern period In this rigorous study May Hawas argues that protagonists particularly in times of political crises locate themselves as individuals with communal or political affiliations that supersede if not actually resist national affiliations

State Law and Legal Positivism, 2021-12-13 This volume formulates the hypothesis of a truly global revolution that reflected a Great Divide between ancient and new legal regimes

The volume brings together several case studies of transition from an ancient to a new legal regime characterized by the positivization of the law. This was an effect of Western imperialism but also of local elites' conviction that positive law was an efficient instrument of governance. The contributors emphasize the depth and scale of the positivist legal revolution and explore the phenomenon whether it was the outcome of either direct colonialism (Morocco, Egypt, India) or indigenous reformism (Ottoman empire, China, Japan).

A Cultural History of the Arabic Language Sharron Gu, 2013-10-17. This history of literary Arabic describes the evolution of Arabic poetry and prose in the context of music, ritual performance, the arts, and architecture. The thousands of years old language is perhaps more highly developed and refined than any other on earth. This book focuses on what is unique about Arabic compared to other major languages of the world: Greek, Latin, Hebrew, English, and Spanish, and how the distinct characteristics of Arabic took shape at various points in its history. The book provides a cultural background for understanding social and political institutions and religious beliefs more influenced by the rhythms and depths of poetic language than other cultures in the Middle East today.

State and Culture in Postcolonial Africa Tejumola Olaniyan, 2017-10-16. How has the state impacted culture and cultural production in Africa? How has culture challenged and transformed the state and our understandings of its nature, functions, and legitimacy? Compelled by complex realities on the ground as well as interdisciplinary scholarly debates on the state-culture dynamic, senior scholars and emerging voices examine the intersections of the state, culture, and politics in postcolonial Africa. In this lively and wide-ranging volume, the coverage here is continental, and topics include literature, politics, philosophy, music, religion, theatre, film, television, sports, child trafficking, journalism, city planning, and architecture. Together, the essays provide an energetic and nuanced portrait of the cultural forms of politics and the political forms of culture in contemporary Africa.
