Open Access Mickey Abel, 2011-12-08 Open Access Contextualizing the Archivolted Portals of Northern Spain and Western France within the Theology and Politics of Entry explores the history development and accrued connotations of a distinctive entry configuration comprised of a set of concentrically stepped archivolts surrounding a deliberate tympanum free portal opening These archivolted portals adorned many of the small rural ecclesiastical structures dotting the countryside of western France and northern Spain in the twelfth century Seeking to re contextualize this configuration within monastic meditational practices this book argues that the ornamented archivolts were likely composed following medieval prescriptions for the rhetorical ornamentation of poetry and employed the techniques of mnemonic recollection and imaginative visualization Read in this light it becomes clear that the architectural form underlying these semi circular configurations served to open the possibilities for meaning by making the sculptural imagery physically and philosophically accessible to both the monastic community and the lay parishioner Pointing to an Iberian heritage in which both light and space had long been manipulated in the conveyance of theological and political ideologies Abel suggests that the portal s architectural form grew out of a physical and social matrix characterized by pilgrimage crusade and processions where the elements of motion integral to the Quadrivium sciences of Math Geometry Astronomy and Music were enhanced by a proximity to and cultural interaction with the Islamic courts of Spain It was however within the politics of the Peace of God movement with its emphasis on relic processions that often encompassed all the parishes of the monastic domain that the archivolted portal with its elevated porch like space are shown to be the most effective
