Luther's Meditation on the Gospels ATF Press,2023-10-26 Can the bones of Luther's sermons live again In Luther's Meditation on the Gospels Roland H Bainton presents some of Luther's most timeless and resonant sermons and lectures arranged in order of the gospel accounts of Jesus' life From the beginning of his ministry to the crucifixion and resurrection Luther's insight into a wide range of key passages is displayed Bainton's careful selections of excerpts ensures that Luther's marvel at God's love his belief in salvation through divine grace and human faith and more remains effervescent Bainton provides an illuminating introduction placing the texts in their historical context and explaining the technicalities of translation Also included are numerous woodcuts from the 1562 edition of Luther's Bible further enriching our appreciation of the reformer's thought Sixty years on from its original publication Luther's Meditation on the Gospels remains a valuable contribution to Reformation studies

The Gospels W.R. Owens,2011-03-10 This unique edition of the Gospels presents the Authorized King James text in modernized spelling with invaluable Introduction and Notes which provide historical and critical context highlighting how each Gospel offers its own distinctive and memorable portrait of Jesus Commentary on the Gospel of John, with an Historical and Critical Introduction Frédéric Louis Godet,1893 Affective Meditation and the Invention of Medieval Compassion Sarah McNamer,2011-07-07 Affective meditation on the Passion was one of the most popular literary genres of the high and later Middle Ages Proliferating in a rich variety of forms these lyrical impassioned script like texts in Latin and the vernacular had a deceptively simple goal to teach their readers how to feel They were thus instrumental in shaping and sustaining the wide scale shift in medieval Christian sensibility from fear of God to compassion for the suffering Christ Affective Meditation and the Invention of Medieval Compassion advances a new narrative for this broad cultural change and the meditative writings that both generated and reflected it Sarah McNamer locates women as agents in the creation of the earliest and most influential texts in the genre from John of F camp s Libellus to the Meditationes Vitae Christi thus challenging current paradigms that cast the compassionate affective mode as Anselmian or Franciscan in origin The early development of the genre in women s practices had a powerful and lasting legacy With special attention to Middle English texts including Nicholas Love s Mirror and a wide range of Passion lyrics and laments Affective Meditation and the Invention of Medieval Compassion illuminates how these scripts for the performance of prayer served to construct compassion itself as an intimate and feminine emotion To feel compassion for Christ in the private drama of the heart that these texts stage was to feel like a woman This was an assumption about emotion that proved historically consequential McNamer demonstrates as she traces some of its legal ethical and social functions in late medieval England

The Historical Figure of Jesus E. Sanders,1995-11-30 A biography of the historical figure of Jesus The book studies the relationship between Judaism and Christianity distinguishing the certain from the improbable and assessing the historical and religious context of Christ s time The spread of Christianity is also discussed
