Photography In California 1945-1980:

Photography in California, 1945-1980 Louise Katzman, San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, 1984 Photography in California, 1984 Photography in California 1945-1980 L. Katzman, 1984 Popular Photography, 1984-10 Art in the San Francisco Bay Area, 1945-1980 Thomas Albright, 2023-12-22

Art in the San Francisco Bay Area 1945-1980 An Illustrated History by Thomas Albright provides a comprehensive exploration of the postwar art movement in one of America's most vibrant cultural hubs. Spanning over three decades, this book delves into the unique contributions of the San Francisco Bay Area to the nation's artistic heritage, covering the evolution of its art scene, its rise to prominence, and its eventual decline in relation to New York's dominance in the 1960s. Originally sparked by a series of lectures Albright gave at the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art in 1974, the book offers a rich narrative that blends personal insight with rigorous research. Albright, a longtime art critic for the San Francisco Chronicle, brings his extensive experience and insider perspective to the task of documenting a previously unexamined period in American art history. The book's beautifully illustrated pages not only capture the artistic essence of the region but also shine a light on the creative figures and movements that shaped the Bay Area's distinctive artistic voice. This invaluable volume serves as both a historical record and an engaging guide for anyone interested in the evolution of modern art in the San Francisco Bay Area. This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program, which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice, reach, and impact. Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893, Voices Revived makes high-quality, peer-reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print-on-demand technology. This title was originally published in 1985.

PHOTOGRAPHY IN CALIFORNIA ~1945-1980æ (NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FORTY-FIVE TO NINETEEN HUNDRED AND EIGHTY). Louise Katzman, 1984 Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren, 2005-11-15

The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth-century photography and explains that history with a wide-ranging interdisciplinary manner. This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force. This Encyclopedia presents the important developments, movements, photographers, photographic institutions, and theoretical aspects of the field, along with information about equipment, techniques, and practical applications of photography. To bring this history alive for the reader, the set is illustrated in black and white throughout, and each volume contains a color plate section. A useful glossary of terms is also included. Photography and Digital Imaging Marvin J. Rosen, David L. Devries, 2002-08 Spirit Into Matter Julian Cox, Edmund Teske, 2004

Edmund Teske (1911-1996) was one of the alchemists of twentieth-century American photography. Over a sixty-year period, he created a diverse body of work that explored the expressive and emotional potentials of the medium. His drive to experiment with sophisticated techniques such as solarization and composite printing liberated a younger generation of American photographers at the same time his subject matter sometimes abstract often homoerotic and always lyrical and poetic opened up new areas for photographers to explore

Spirit into Matter is published to coincide with the first major retrospective of Teske's work to be held at the Getty Museum from June 15 to September 19 2004 Julian Cox provides an introduction and extensive biocritical essay on Teske that traces his long and varied career from Chicago in the 1930s to Los Angeles where the photographer took up residence in 1943 Cox investigates Teske's early associations with such influential figures as Frank Lloyd Wright and Paul Strand and his later associations with iconic figures including filmmaker Kenneth Anger and musicians Ramblin Jack Elliott and the Doors The first major study of this fascinating and influential artist Spirit into Matter will be a dynamic source of information for students of photography collectors and all those with an interest in the life and culture of Southern California where Teske worked for more than fifty years

New Color/new Work Sally Eauclore, 1984

Guiding New Color New Work was the premise that because photography propates images in a quantity and with a speed unknown to any other medium ideas are best realized in an extended series Often the full value or impact of a photographer's work depends upon such a context Accordingly these portfolios provide readers with a perception of the relationship of each image to others produced during the same period and make it possible to include photographs that function well as part of a group but less well in isolation Most important seeing an extensive body of work defuses speculation that single photographs might be the result of serendipity rather than an intentional summation of the photographer's ideas about life and art P 9

American Poetry and Culture, 1945-1980 Robert Von Hallberg, 1985 Challenging the common perception of poets as standing apart from the mainstream of American culture Robert von Hallberg gives us a fresh and unpredictable assessment of the poetry that has come directly out of the American experience since 1945 Who reads contemporary American poetry More people than were reading new poetry in the 1920s von Hallberg shows How do poets respond to the public preoccupations of their readers Often with fascination Von Hallberg put the poems of Robert Creeley and John Ashbery together with the postwar outburst of systems analysis The 1950s tourist poems of John Hollander Adrienne Rich W S Merwin and James Merrill are treated as the cultural side of America's postwar rise to global political power There are chapters on the political poems of the 1950s and 1960s and on Robert Lowell's sympathy for the imperialism of his liberal contemporaries Poems of the 1970s on pop culture especially Edward Dorn's Slinger and some from the suburbs of the 1980s are shown to reflect a curious peace between the literary and the mass cultures
