Picabia Ecrits 1913-1920:

Challenging Modernity Mark A. Pegrum, 2000 This book for the first time examines in depth the link between modernism and postmodernism and demonstrates the extensive similarities as well as the few crucial differences between the ideas and art of the Dadaists on the one hand and those of contemporary postmodern thinkers and artists on the other

Anarchism and the Advent of Paris Dada Theresa Papanikolas, 2017-07-05 Anarchism and the Advent of Paris Dada sheds new light on Paris Dada's role in developing the anarchist and individualist philosophies that helped shape the cultural dialogue in France following the First World War Drawing on such surviving documentation as correspondence criticism periodicals pamphlets and manifestoes this book argues that contrary to received wisdom Dada was driven by a vision of social change through radical cultural upheaval The first book length study to interrogate the Paris Dadaists complex and often contested position in the postwar groundswell of anarcho individualism Anarchism and the Advent of Paris Dada offers an unprecedented analysis of Paris Dada literature and art in relation to anarchism and also revives a variety of little known anarcho individualist texts and periodicals In doing so it reveals the general ideological diversity of the postwar French avant garde and identifies its anarchist concerns in addition it challenges the accepted paradigm that postwar cultural politics were monolithically nationalist By positioning Paris Dada in its anarchist context this volume addresses a long ignored lacuna in Dada scholarship and more broadly takes its place alongside the numerous studies that over the past two decades have problematized the politics of modern art literature and culture

I Am a Beautiful Monster Francis Picabia, 2012-02-10 The first definitive edition in English of writings by poet painter pickpocket plagiarist and consummate anti artist Francis Picabia one of Dada's leading figures Poet painter self described funny guy idiot failure pickpocket and anti artist par excellence Francis Picabia was a defining figure in the Dada movement indeed Andr Breton called Picabia one of the only true Dadas Yet very little of Picabia's poetry and prose has been translated into English and his literary experiments have never been the subject of close critical study I Am a Beautiful Monster is the first definitive edition in English of Picabia's writings gathering a sizable array of Picabia's poetry and prose and most importantly providing a critical context for it with an extensive introduction and detailed notes by the translator Picabia's poetry and prose is belligerent abstract polemical radical and sometimes simply baffling For too long Picabia's writings have been presented as raw events rule breaking manifestations of inspirational carpe diem This book reveals them to be something entirely different maddening in their resistance to meaning full of outrageous posturing and hiding a frail confused and fitful personality behind egoistic bravura I Am a Beautiful Monster provides the texts of Picabia's significant publications all presented complete many of them accompanied by their original illustrations

Subjectivity ,2016-08-22 Subjectivity is one of the central issues of twentieth century philosophy literature and art Modernism which discovered the subconscious put an end to the belief in the Cartesian Subject as the autonomous centre of knowledge and self consciousness Instead the subject became something uncontrollable unreliable incomplete and fragmentary The attempts to recapture the unity of the subject led to the existential quest and the flight into ideology nazism communism Postmodernism the cultural movement of the second half of the twentieth century did not consider the subject any longer as an important category Attention was focused on the I and the Other on dialogism and polyphonism Bakhtin Ideology lost its appeal and so did the great stories Lyotard In this issue of Avant Garde Critical Studies the problem of subjectivity in twentieth century culture is discussed from various angles by specialists in the field of philosophy literature film music and dance

Ezra Pound and Referentiality Hélène Aji,2003 Dada bodies Elza Adamowicz,2019-03-14 This is the first comprehensive study of bodily images in Dada Travelling between the international centres of the movement from Zurich to Berlin Paris to New York it examines a diverse range of media including art literature performance photography and film Its overall approach is to confront Dada s bodily images not as organic unities but as fictions that reflect on the disjunctive dehumanised society of war torn Europe These fictions occupy an ambivalent space between the battlefield in their satirical exposure of ideology and the fairground in their playful manipulation and joyful renewal of the body The book features analyses of works by Max Ernst Francis Picabia Hannah Hoch Marcel Duchamp and others and will appeal to scholars and students of European history cultural history art and literature

The Routledge Companion to Surrealism Kirsten Strom,2022-11-08 This book provides a conceptual and global overview of the field of Surrealist studies Methodologically the companion considers Surrealism s many achievements but also its historical shortcomings to illuminate its connections to the historical and cultural moment s from which it originated and to assess both the ways in which it still shapes our world in inspiring ways and the ways in which it might appear problematic as we look back at it from a twenty first century vantage point Contributions from experienced scholars will enable professors to teach the subject more broadly by opening their eyes to aspects of the field that are on the margins of their expertise and it will enable scholars to identify new areas of study in their own work by indicating lines of research at a tangent to their own The companion will reflect the interdisciplinarity of Surrealism by incorporating discussions pertaining to the visual arts as well as literature film and political and intellectual history Apollinaire and the Faceless Man Willard Bohn,1991 This book examines the creation of a startling motif at the beginning of the twentieth century that of the faceless man and traces its evolution over the next few years The faceless man evolved in different directions His strategic location ensured that he would be adopted by numerous schools and shaped according to their particular needs Res: Anthropology and Aesthetics, 63/64: Spring/Autumn 2013 Francesco Pellizzi,2014-03-10 RES 63 64 includes Source and trace by Christopher S Wood Timelessness fluidity and Apollo s libation by Milette Gaifman A liquid history Blood and animation in late medieval art by Beate Fricke Guercino s wet drawing by Nicola Suthor The readymade metabolized Fluxus in life by David Joselit and other papers Historical Dictionary of Surrealism Keith Aspley,2010-10-17 Organized and strictly disciplined until the death of its leader Andr Breton in 1966 Surrealism was a broad movement that attracted many adherents After Breton s death its membership entered a state of flux with people constantly being admitted and excluded and the latter often continuing to regard themselves as Surrealists The Surrealist movement was spread over many countries and different art forms including painting sculpture cinema photography music theater and literature P 4 of cover Dada in the Collection of the Museum of Modern Art Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.),Anne Umland,Adrian Sudhalter,2008 Presents some seventy works books collages drawings films paintings photographs photomontages prints readymades reliefs in large scale reproductions and accompanying them with in depth essays by an interdepartmental group of the Museum s curators Front jacket flap Exhibiting Abstraction Christina Bartosch,2025-05-20 The time around 1910 has entered art history as the moment when abstraction was invented However where and when works of non figurative art became present in the public eye has been afforded little attention to date Exhibiting Abstraction is the first publication to be devoted entirely to the presentation of abstract art between 1908 and 1915 It uncovers strategies for the dissemination of early abstract painting in exhibitions with the aid of a register of exhibited works by Giacomo Balla Umberto Boccioni Wassily Kandinsky Frantisek Kupka Kazimir Malevich Piet Mondrian and Francis Picabia shown to the public within this period and an analysis of the artists exhibition activities The key role played by art exhibitions in the works introduction and dissemination is highlighted Dalí, Lorca y la Residencia de Estudiantes: Exposición Juan José Lahuerta,2010 La muestra analiza en el centenario de la fundaci n de la Residencia de Estudiantes la relaci n entre estos dos creadores cuando ambos coincidieron en ella entre los a os 1922 y 1929 Su objetivo es reconstruir la vinculaci n intelectual que se estableci entre ambos genios en el marco internacional de las vanguardias que ambos tomaban como horizonte cultural Encyclopedia of Literary Modernism Paul Poplawski,2003-12-30 Modernism is still widely acknowledged as perhaps the most important and influential artistic and cultural phenomenon of the 20th century Written by expert scholars from around the world and covering hundreds of different topics in a clear incisive and critical manner this reference maps the complex field of modernism in a fresh and original way The principal focus of the book is on English language literary modernism and the period 1890 1939
