Women and Children First Robin Miskolcze,2007-12-01 At a crucial time in American history narratives of women in command or imperiled at sea contributed to the construction of a national rhetoric Robin Miskolcze makes her case by way of careful readings of images of women at sea before the Civil War in her book Women and Children First Though the sea has traditionally been interpreted as the province of men women have gone to sea as mothers wives figureheads and slaves In fact in the nineteenth century women at sea contributed to the formation of an ethics of survival that helped to define American ideals This study examines often for the first time images of women at sea in antebellum narratives ranging from novels and sermons to newspaper accounts and lithographs Anglo American women in antebellum sea narratives are often portrayed as models of American ideals derived from women s seemingly innate Christian self sacrifice Miskolcze argues that these ideals in conjunction with the maritime directive of women and children first during sea disasters in turn defined a new masculine individualism one that was morally minded rooted in Christian principles and dedicated to preserving virtue Further Miskolcze contends that without the antebellum sea narratives portraying the Christian self sacrifice of women the abolitionist cause would have suffered African American women appealed to the directive of women and children first to make manifest their own womanhood and by extension their own humanity Story Of The World #3 Early Modern Times Activity Book S. Wise Bauer, Susan Wise Bauer, 2004-09-28 Presents a history of the ancient world from 6000 B C to 400 A D

The Cancelling of America: Will She Survive? John D. Sanderson, 2021-07-19 There is a strong movement today to fundamentally transform America from a country of freedom liberty and justice to a nation of large government that controls every aspect of our lives Our children are being taught to hate each other and America Our speech is being censored by big tech in cooperation with the federal government and the media We are being stratified into groups by color ethnicity economic class gender religion and political beliefs and each group is encouraged to distrust and or hate others We are at a turning point to determine the future of America The purpose of this book is to give those that do not have the time to do extensive research of subjects or who do not avail themselves of multiple news and opinion sources brief exposure to the issues most prominent in driving division at a time when most of all we need to unite Monumental Mobility Lisa Blee, Jean M. O'Brien, 2019-02-07 Installed at Plymouth Massachusetts in 1921 to commemorate the tercentenary of the landing of the Pilgrims Cyrus Dallin's statue Massasoit was intended to memorialize the Pokanoket Massasoit leader as a welcoming diplomat and participant in the mythical first Thanksgiving But after the statue's unveiling Massasoit began to move and proliferate in ways one would not expect of generally stationary monuments tethered to place The plaster model was donated to the artist's home state of Utah and prominently displayed in the state capitol half a century later it was caught up in a surprising case of fraud in the fine arts market Versions of the statue now stand on Brigham Young University's campus at an urban intersection in Kansas City Missouri and in countless homes around the world in the form of souvenir statuettes As Lisa Blee and Jean M O'Brien show in this thought provoking book the surprising story of this monumental statue reveals much about the process of creating commodifying and reinforcing the historical memory of Indigenous people Dallin's statue set alongside the historical memory of the actual Massasoit and his mythic collaboration with the Pilgrims shows otherwise hidden dimensions of American memorial culture an elasticity of historical imagination a tight knit relationship between consumption and commemoration and the twin impulses to sanitize and grapple with the meaning of settler colonialism

The Mayflower Quarterly, 2008 Kindred Creation Aida Mariam Davis, 2024-12-03 A vital path home Employing African epistemologies and an embodied African beingness this book embraces the revelation and miracle of Blackness Creating a world worthy of our children requires recalling the dignity and distinction of the African way of life This book is not written for settler consumption Kindred Creation is a call and response to dream and design better worlds rooted in African lifeways a path to Black freedom a love letter to Black futures and a blueprint to intergenerational Black joy and dignity all and always on Black terms Author organizer and designer Aida Mariam Davis explores the historical and ongoing impacts of settler colonialism making explicit the ways that extraction oppression and enslavement serve the goals of empire not least by severing ancestral connections and disrupting profound and ancient relationships to self nature and community Structured in three parts Remember Refuse and Reclaim Kindred Creation is a philosophical guidebook and a vital invitation to power and reconnection Davis employs parable poetry theory memory narrative and prophecy to help readers Remember By unforgetting the unending and cascading violence of settler colonialism and other forms of domination and exploring the ways that African land language lifestyle and labor are stolen distorted and repackaged for colonial consumption to extract capital and sever ties to ancestral knowledge lifeways and dignity Refuse By rejecting and interrupting death making institutions and relationships and choosing kinship and self determination in the face of settler colonial violence Reclaim By revealing that freedom is within us and within reach Davis shares how the reader can birth new worlds and relationships and offers strategies for reclaiming land language lifestyle and labor The colonial violence and dispossession of African land language and labor is inflicted intentionally and by design Reclaiming African lifeways and remembering what was forcibly forgotten must be by creation a re membering of our interconnectedness and kinship Truth, Justice & the American Way!
