Success in a Low-Return World Michael J. Oyster, 2018-11-19 Following the Great Financial Crisis the S P 500 advanced more than 17 percent annualized from February 2009 through June 2018 At this pace a buy and hold investor in the stock market would see their money double in 5 years and more than triple in 7 years This performance has lulled many investors into thinking that such above average returns will be with us into perpetuity Unfortunately this may not be the case Far more likely the return an investor may receive from the stock market will be slightly better than half the long term average about 5% to 7% Most investment portfolios hold a greater allocation to stocks than any other class of investment asset Massive amounts of wealth were created from the bull market since early 2009 providing institutions and individuals with a rising tide that lifted their portfolios above their goals without much effort The environment of the future stands to be far less accommodating so finding suitable investments other than U S stocks that can achieve the necessary returns or make up the shortfall will be a critical component of achieving goals in years to come This book will explore those solutions

Competitive Intelligence, Analysis and Strategy Sheila Wright, 2014-07-10 The Holy Grail for most organisations is the successful attainment and retention of inimitable competitive advantage This book addresses the question of how to leverage the unique intangible assets of an organisation its explicit implicit acquired and derived knowledge The refreshingly innovative concept of Intelligence Based Competitive Advantage is one which will eclipse the cost driven and resource reduction attitudes most prevalent in the first decade of this century Tomorrow s organisation will need to derive IBCA through the expert execution of bespoke competitive intelligence practice unique analytical processes pioneering competitive strategy formulation and timely execution of all three if they are to succeed This volume consists of insights from Competitive Intelligence practices at both country and organisational level Competitive Analysis processes within the firm and within challenging sector and economic environments and Competitive Strategy formulation in profit non profit real and virtual world contexts It is essential reading for anybody wishing to gain a formal understanding of the practical and intellectual challenges which will face organisations in the future as they strive to achieve strategic foresight and Intelligence Based Competitive Advantage This book was originally published as two special issues of the
