Practice And Teacher Experience Changing English Primary Education:

Inside the Primary Classroom: 20 Years On Chris Comber, Maurice Galton, Linda Hargreaves, Debbie Wall, 2013-01-11 In recent years primary education has been the subject of continuing debate with questions of standards and their apparent decline being raised with alarming regularity Central in informing these debates has been the ORACLE study of groupwork in primary classrooms Published during the 1980s the study described in detail the daily life of the primary classroom the teaching styles used by teachers and the responses of pupils That research has now been replicated with over two thirds of the schools originally studied being revisited using the same tests and observation instruments This book presents the findings of this second round of research and is therefore unique in being able authoritatively to document the changes or lack of them in primary education and teaching practice over the last twenty years Social World of Pupil Assessment Andrew Pollard, Ann Filer, 2000-06-01 Defining Assessment in the widest possible way ann Filer and Andrew Pollard have produced the most comprehensive ethnographic study of assessment ever attempted Their case studies cover all of the most important questions concerning assessment The findings which are both profound and unsettling have major implications for educational practice and policy particularly on how supposedly objective assessment processes depend on their context and are vulnerable to both bias and distortion In this colorful and reliable work Filer and Pollard have provided the definitive study of assessment in the 5 11 age range Promoting Quality in Learning Patricia Broadfoot, Marilyn Osborn, Claire Planel, 2000-02-01 Are English children able to grasp grammar better or worse than that of children in other countries Are they better or worse at numeracy than their neighbours Does the English education system measure up to the challenge from its competitors This is an examination of the education system in England as compared with neighbouring countries such as France This text shows what pupils in England and France are doing in the classroom and what standards they achieve The voices of the pupils themselves articulate numerous perceptions What Teachers Do - Policy, Practice and Teacher Experience M. Osborn, Elizabeth McNess, Andrew Pollard, Pat Triggs, Patricia Broadfoot, 2000-12 This work is based on a research project The authors have sought to get behind the opinions to discover what has actually been happening in schools Chapter titles include teacher stances and strategies in response to change and the changing role of headteachers Researching Educational Practices, Teacher Education and Professional Development for Early Language Learning Sandie Mourão, Carolyn Leslie, 2024-06-03 Recognising the urgent need for further progress in teacher education and preparation for the success of early language learning this volume presents research on the education and professional development of teachers exploring how they can foster multilingual spaces in the early years of formal education Investigating a range of European contexts the book examines the effectiveness of teacher education for early language learning covering contexts of multilingualism and English as a foreign language EFL with children under the age of 12 Split into three parts examining research into teacher practices education and curricula chapters cover emerging topics such as teacher education and local linguistic encounters global citizenship and transcultural education linguistic landscapes and visual narratives mixed age classrooms and literacy skills pre service and in service teacher education and teacher and teacher educator competencies and beliefs Offering a unique combination of foci on teachers teacher education and classroom practice this book will be of great interest to researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of early language education multilingualism EFL and teacher education more broadly Student teachers and teachers working in early language learning contexts may also find the volume of interest Introduction Chapters 7 11 12 and 13 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Asian Perspectives on Teacher Education Shin'ichi Suzuki, Edward R. Howe, 2013-09-13 Research into teacher education is dominated by Anglophone literature with the inevitable result that teacher education in non English speaking regions of the world largely remains unexamined This book fills the gap in the existing literature and comprises twelve invited contributions from an international panel of educationists To provide the reader with a clear structure the book offers a detailed introduction and afterword which brings together the various themes examined in each chapter The contributions offer perspectives on teacher education in the Asian region perspectives which until now have been missing from contemporary debate on teacher education Presenting research from Australia Japan the USA the People's Republic of China the Republic of Korea and Vietnam this book examines the varied situations teacher educators experience in their own countries in so doing the researchers identify resonances and dissonances in comparison with the dominant Anglophone research literature on the same subjects This book is an important contribution to the comparative study of teacher education in the first decade of the twenty first century giving a voice to an important sector of the international community of teacher educators This book was published as a special issue of Journal of Education for Teaching International research and pedagogy

Possibilities, Challenges, and Changes in English Teacher Education Today Heidi L. Hallman, Kristen Pastore-Capuana, Donna L. Pasternak, 2019-05-24 This book focuses on English teacher educators experiences concerning professionalization and teacher identity The term professionalization itself can be problematized Popkewitz 1994 as it connotes adherence to realities to professional norms that are based within particular histories Yet teacher educators must confront how to mentor prospective teachers into the field and how changes to the field manifest changes to what it means to be a professional In research about changes in English teacher education over the past twenty years Pasternak Caughlan Hallman Renzi and Rush 2017 presented five distinct foci of ELA programs that have evolved 1 changes to field experiences within teacher education programs 2 altered conceptions of teaching literature and literacy within the context of ELA 3 increased adherence to standardization 4 changing demographics of students in K 12 classrooms and 5 increased expectations for use of technology within ELA These foci impact how professionals in ELA are viewed both from inside and outside the profession and how they navigate these tensions in teacher education programs to define what it means to identify as an English teacher Throughout the book chapter authors articulate dilemmas that focus around professionalization and teacher identity questioning what it means to be an English teacher today While some chapters suggest methods for increased awareness of tensions within practice other chapters approach professionalization and teacher identity by asking what the limits of methods classes and teacher education might be in preparing ELA teachers and supporting them to remain in the profession Today's political environment devalues teachers and teaching a situation that has critics deriding the educational standards at institutes of higher education while concurrently lauding alternative programs that do not have to adhere to the same rigorous teacher certification requirements English teacher educators are now being asked to design programs soften requirements and recruit and mentor teacher candidates to a profession that in the past certified more new English teachers than it could employ The chapters in this book explore what it means to educate and be an English teacher educator under these conditions Resources in Education, 2000-10 Register of Educational Research in the United Kingdom, 1992-1995 National Foundation For Educational Research, 1995 This latest volume of the Register of Educational Research in the United Kingdom lists all the major research projects being undertaken in Britain during the latter months of 1992 the whole of 1993 and 1994 and the early months of 1995 Each entry provides names and addresses of the researchers a detailed abstract the source and amount of the grant where applicable the length of the project and details of published material about the research English Language Teacher Education in
