Pragmatism In The Age Of Jihad The Precolonial State Of Bundu:

Pragmatism in the Age of Jihad Michael A. Gomez, Michael Gomez, 2002-07-04 Bundu was an anomaly among the precolonial Muslim states of West Africa Founded during the jihads which swept the savannah in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries it developed a pragmatic policy unique in the midst of fundamentalist theocratic Muslim states Located in the Upper Senegal and with access to the Upper Gambia Bundu played a critical role in regional commerce and production and reacted quickly to the stimulus of European trade Drawing upon a wide range of sources both oral and documentary Arabic English and French Dr Gomez provides the first full account of Bundu s history He analyses the foundation and growth of an Islamic state at a crossroads between the Saharan and trans Atlantic trade paying particular attention to the relationship between Islamic thought and court policy and to the state s response to militant Islam in the early nineteenth century American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 13:1 John Obert Voll, Suroosh Igani, Chandra

Muzaffar, Abdelwahab M. Elmessiri, Abdul Majid A1 Najjar, The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam The Peasant Cotton Revolution in West Africa Thomas J. Bassett, 2006-03-30 The literature of Africa is dominated by accounts of crisis and gloom But Thomas Bassett a distinguished American geographer well known in the field of development tells an unusual story of the growth of the cotton economy of West Africa One of the few long running success stories in African development change was brought about by tens of thousands of small scale peasant farmers While the introduction of new strains of cotton in French West Africa was in part a result of agronomic research by French scientists supported by an unusually efficient marketing structure this is not a case of triumphant top down planification Employing the case of C te d Ivoire Professor Bassett shows agricultural intensification to result from the cumulative effect of decades of incremental changes in farming techniques and social organization A significant contribution to the literature the book demonstrates the need to consider the local and temporal dimensions of agricultural innovations It brings into question many key assumptions that have influenced development policies during the twentieth century

Plunder for Profit Elijah Doro, 2023-04-13 Examines the history of tobacco farming in Zimbabwe to illuminate debates on landscapes people and political economy Performing Power in Zimbabwe Susanne Verheul, 2021-09-09 Challenges depictions of law as a fa ade for political repression by examining political trials in Zimbabwe after 2000 Slavery and Emancipation in Islamic East Africa Elisabeth McMahon, 2013-04-30 This book demonstrates the links between emancipation and the redefinition of honour among all classes of people on the island of Pemba Islam and Social Change in French West Africa Sean Hanretta, 2009-03-23 Exploring the history and religious community of a group of Muslim Sufi mystics in colonial French West Africa this study shows the relationship between religious social and economic change in the region It highlights the role that intellectuals played in shaping social and cultural change and illuminates the specific religious ideas and political contexts that gave their efforts meaning In contrast to depictions that emphasize the importance of international networks and anti modern reaction in twentieth century Islamic reform this book claims that in West Africa such movements were driven by local forces and constituted only the most recent round in a set of centuries old debates about the best way for pious people to confront social injustice It argues that traditional historical methods prevent an appreciation of Muslim intellectual history in Africa by misunderstanding the nature of information gathering during colonial rule and misconstruing the relationship between documents and oral history Trajectories of Authoritarianism in Rwanda Marie-Eve

Desrosiers,2023-01-19 Challenging assumptions regarding the strength and control of authoritarian governments in Rwanda in the decades before the 1994 genocide Marie Eve Desrosiers uses original archival data and interviews to highlight the complex relations between authorities opponents and society Through careful detailed analysis Desrosiers offers a nuanced assessment of the functions and evolution of authoritarianism over time demonstrating how the governments of Rwanda s first two post independence Republics 1962 1990 sought and often struggled to cement their rule Whilst the deeper lived realities of authoritarianism are generally neglected by multi cases comparisons at the heart of comparative authoritarian studies this illuminating survey highlights the essential yet subtle authoritarian strategies patterns and forms of decay that are too often overlooked when addressing authoritarian contexts Making Citizens in Africa Lahra Smith,2013-05-20

This book provides a study of contemporary politics in Ethiopia through an empirical focus on language policy citizenship ethnic identity and gender It is unique in its focus not only on the political institutions of Ethiopia and the history of the country but in that it studies these subjects at the intersection of both modern and historical time periods In particular it argues that meaningful citizenship which is much more than the legal state of being a citizen is a process of citizens and the state negotiating the practice of citizenship Therefore it puts the citizen back at the forefront of the process of expanding citizenship suggesting the ways that citizens support resist and affect state policy on political rights Africa in the Time of Cholera Myron Echenberg,2011-02-28 This book combines evidence from natural and social sciences to examine the impact on Africa of seven cholera pandemics since 1817 particularly the current impact of cholera on such major countries as Senegal Angola Mozambique Congo Zimbabwe and South Africa Myron Echenberg highlights the irony that this once terrible scourge having receded from most of the globe now kills thousands of Africans annually Africa now accounts for more than 90 percent of the world s cases and deaths and leaves many more with severe developmental impairment Responsibility for the suffering caused is shared by Western lending and health institutions and by often venal and incompetent African leadership If the threat of this old scourge is addressed with more urgency great progress in the public health of Africans can be achieved Christianity and Genocide in Rwanda Timothy Longman,2010 This book studies the role of Christian churches in the 1994 Rwandan genocide Timothy Longman's research shows that Rwandan churches have consistently allied themselves with the state and engaged in ethnic politics making them a center of struggle over power and resources He argues that the genocide in Rwanda was a conservative response to progressive forces that were attempting to democratize Christian churches Child Slavery and Guardianship in Colonial Senegal Bernard Moitt, 2023-11-02 Uncovers the stories of children liberated from slavery in Senegal after 1848 and relegated to tutelle or guardianship Ethnic Patriotism and the East African Revival Derek R. Peterson, 2012-09-24 Ethnic Patriotism and the East African Revival shows how in the era of African political independence cosmopolitan Christian converts struggled with East Africa's patriots over the definition of culture and community The book traces the history of the East African Revival an evangelical movement that spread through much of eastern and central Africa Its converts offered a subversive reading of culture disavowing their compatriots and disregarding their obligations to kin They earned the ire of East Africa's patriots who worked to root people in place as inheritors of ancestral wisdom This book casts religious conversion in a new light not as an inward reorientation of belief but as a political action that opened up novel paths of self narration and unsettled the inventions of tradition Race and Diplomacy in Zimbabwe Timothy Lewis Scarnecchia, 2023-03-09 Examining the role of racism within international relations bureaucracies during years of diplomacy before and after Zimbabwe's Independence in 1980 Timothy Scarnecchia offers a fresh perspective on how nationalist leaders used Cold War diplomacy to shape Zimbabwe's decolonization process Available as Open Access on Cambridge Core Navigating Local Transitional Justice Laura S. Martin, 2023-05-11 In post war Sierra Leone a range of transitional justice mechanisms were implemented to address experiences of conflict violence and human rights violations Much of the research on local transitional justice processes has focused on the work of organisations failing to acknowledge how individual and communal dynamics shape and are shaped by these programs Drawing on original fieldwork in Sierra Leone Laura S Martin moves beyond discussions measuring effectiveness and considers how people navigate their circumstances in conflict and post conflict societies Developing the idea of recognised and unrecognised transitional justice processes Martin uses Fambul Tok as an example of a recognised local transitional justice program and shows how ordinary Sierra Leoneans appropriated Fambul Tok's agenda for their own purposes Ultimately this book highlights the crucial role of agency and the diverse range of actors involved in transitional justice processes Justice as Martin powerfully argues is not something that happens to or for people but is enacted by individuals and communities
