Pratt On Pratt Personal Reflections On A Life In Art:

Christopher Pratt Christopher Pratt,1995 Art and Rivalry Carol Bishop-Gwyn,2019-10-08 The unauthorized biography of Canada's most famous artist couple and the rivalry that drove them She painted as if with pure light radiant colours making quotidian kitchen scenes come alive with sublimated drama He painted like clockwork each stroke precise and measured with exquisite care leaving no angle unchecked and no subtlety of tone unattended Some would say Mary Pratt was fire and Christopher ice And yet Newfoundland's Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera or Jackson Pollack and Lee Krasner presented their marriage as a portrait of harmony and balance But balance off the canvas rarely makes great art and the Pratts art was spectacular As a youth at Mount Allison University in New Brunswick Mary pursued her future husband a prodigious art talent and supported his determination to study painting instead of medicine They married and removed themselves to a Newfoundland outpost where his painting alone provided the means to raise a family But as Mary's own talents became evident and she sought her own hours at the easel when not raising their four children and as rumours of Christopher's affair with a young model spread the Pratts harmonious exterior slowly cracked to scandal in Newfoundland and fascination across the country A marriage ended and gave way to a furious competition for dominance in Canadian art

Canadian Art ,1995 Women Between Verna Reid,2008 In Women Between Construction of Self in the Work of Sharon Butala Aganetha Dyck Mary Meigs and Mary Pratt Verna Reid explores the evolving perceptions of self in the work of four Canadian women visual artists Aganetha Dyck and Mary Pratt and writers Sharon Butala and Mary Meigs All four came into prominence in middle age doing their most significant work in their mature years They along with the author are members of a transitional generation of women occupying the space between the traditional world of their mothers and the postmodern world of their daughters The multiple roles they have played are reflected in the strong autobiographical content present in their work Applying feminist and autobiographical theory Reid considers the work of Butala Dyck Meigs and Pratt in light of the influences that have shaped their senses of identity As a contemporary of her subjects Reid infuses her interviews with the four women with sensitivity and immediacy lending a unique perspective to the exploration of their lives and work

Canadian Books in Print ,2003 Mindfulness and the Arts Therapies Laury Rappaport,2013-10-21 This ground breaking book explores the theoretical clinical and training application of integrating mindfulness with all of the arts therapies and includes cutting edge contributions from neuroscience with 6 sections that examine mindfulness and the arts therapies from different perspectives written by pioneers and leaders in their fields Portrait Therapy Susan

Carr,2017-09-21 This book explains the theory and practice of portrait therapy an original art therapy intervention It reveals how the intervention can be used to address a disrupted self identity which is common in people with life threatening or chronic illness and is characterised by statements like I'm not the person I used to be

Canadian Who's Who 2003

Elizabeth Lumley,2003-03 Now in its 93rd year of publication this standard Canadian reference source contains comprehensive and authoritative biographical information on notable living Canadians Those listed are carefully selected because of the positions they hold in Canadian society or because of the contribution they have made to life in Canada entries are added each year to keep current with developing trends and issues in Canadian society Included are outstanding Canadians from all walks of life politics media academia business sports and the arts from every area of human activity memberships creative works honours and awards and full addresses Of use to researchers students media business government and schools it is a useful source of general knowledge Canadian Books in Print Marian Butler,2000

Quill & Quire ,1995 Index de Périodiques Canadiens ,2000 Minding the Public Purse Janice MacKinnon,2003 Janice MacKinnon became minister of Finance for the province of Saskatchewan in 1993 under NDP Premier Roy Romanow just as the province became the first casualty of the debt and deficit crises that dominated both provincial and federal politics throughout the decade Minding the Public Purse is a unique mixture of political memoir and policy analysis An insider s account of how Saskatchewan avoided fiscal catastrophe it reveals the dynamics of the federal provincial finance ministers meetings that saw the rise of Paul Martin and his radical transformation of Canada s finances MacKinnon Canada s first female finance minister provides keen observations on how personalities and shared regional perspectives cut across party affiliations in the evolution of federal provincial deliberations on managing the debt crisis Although initially opposed to the radical cuts and downloading unilaterally imposed by the federal minister of Finance in his 1995 budget she now argues that they were essential and analyses how they have irrevocably transformed the Canadian federation MacKinnon provides a timely analysis of the implications of the fiscal crisis for the future of medicare and Canada s other social programs and shows why politicians must involve the Canadian public in an open and frank debate about the challenges and choices facing the nation Psychological Aspects of Cancer Brian I. Carr,JENNIFER STEEL,2012-12-02 Psychological Aspects of Cancer A Guide to Emotional and Psychological Consequences of Cancer Their Causes and Their Management opens with two essays on the biological basis of emotion mental driven body processes and disease The consequence of such considerations is that since thoughts and emotions can be modulated and changed by health care professionals psychological counseling should be seen not only as a way to help patients cope but possibly to influence the disease itself A unique overview of a key area of cancer care this important title then proceeds to offer a section on genetic predispositions to cancer and the psychological considerations involved in screening and pre emptive therapies and decision making in cancer therapy A third section deals with the philosophical and religious underpinnings of psychological factors involved in coping with disease state stressors and the roles of hope in coping The fourth section is an acknowledgement that patients with cancer live in a social context which often includes a partner and or caregiver The fifth section includes several essays on aspects and modalities of care giving that are designed to help patients coping with their cancer and its aftermath which increasingly extends for years An important title covering key aspects of one of the most troubling disorders of our time Psychological

Aspects of Cancer A Guide to Emotional and Psychological Consequences of Cancer Their Causes and Their Management will provide the busy practitioner with cutting edge knowledge as well as practical information that can translate into better care for patients with cancer

Art Therapy and Cancer Care Diane Waller, Caryl Sibbett, 2005-07-16 Inspired by the experience of art therapists who have pioneered work with people with cancer and including those who have experienced this devastating illness at first hand this book acknowledges the outstanding work of the Corinne Burton Trust which has supported the development of art therapy services in hospices and clinics throughout the United Kingdom Narratives case studies new theoretical insights and the inclusion of writing from Italy France and the United States of America contribute to the strength and originality of the book Therapeutic work is placed in its institutional context demonstrating the importance for the art therapy service of being understood supported and valued at managerial level and how the lack of this can impact adversely on patient care Moreover many of the contributions have a sociological and anthropological nature which gives the book a unique and challenging dimension Art Therapy and Cancer Care is key reading for art therapists artists in health care and other health or social care professionals who are looking for approaches that will improve the quality of living for cancer patients yet not shy away from the process of dying The contributors Jacqui Balloqui Maureen Bocking Timothy Duesbury Ken Evans Cinzia Favara Scacco Barry Falk Elizabeth Goll Lerner David Hardy Kathryn Horn Coneway Paola Luzzatto Caryl Sibbett Elizabeth Stone Matho Michele Wood Diane Waller

Beyond Belief Ronald R. Bernier, 2010-06-01 Beyond Belief Theoaesthetics or Just Old Time Religion explores the possible reemergence of a theological dimension to contemporary art Long estranged from symbol and sacrament contemporary artists and those who think and write about them seem to have turned once again to a vision rooted in the sacred In an era marked culturally by world weary cynicism and self conscious irony a new humanism may be emerging one which aims to move beyond fragmentation and opposition to integration and unification The aim of this book is not to propose a resurgence of religious iconography but rather to give voice to long suppressed often maligned and certainly professionally risky positions informed by and reverberating with themes of the sacred The essays included here by a range of scholars working on these issues today originated as a lively and spirited session of the 2008 College Art Association annual conference
