Martins, 2019-11-21 This book offers an interdisciplinary effort to address global health issues grounded on a human rights framework seen from the perspective of those who are more vulnerable to be sick and die prematurely the poor Combining his scholarship and service in impoverished communities the author examines the connection between poverty and health inequalities from an ethical perspective that considers contributions from different disciplines and the voices of the poor

The Expectation of the Poor Guillermo Cook, 2021-05-04 This is by far the most serious study undertaken by a Protestant missiologist on the Latin American base ecclesial communities It is also one of the few studies that relates this extraordinary ecclesial phenomenon with its counterpart in Protestant history The fact that Cook writes not only as a Protestant but as one identified with the evangelical tradition makes it all the more relevant It should be required reading for everyone interested in the life and mission of the grassroots church in the Americas and in the renewal of local congregations everywhere Orlando E Costas Andover Newton Theological School The book is painstakingly researched extraordinarily well written and in my judgment sets a new benchmark for understanding one of the truly phenomenal things God is doing among grassroots Christians in Latin America Alan Neely Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary Guillermo Cook has performed an invaluable service With his encyclopedic grasp of the history ethos and current activities of the comunidades de base grassroots lay communities in the Latin American Catholic Church he has provided a vivid reminder of the sort of parallel stirrings that brought renewal to many Protestant churches and spawned new spiritual movements during the last four hundred years These Catholic ecclesial communities are being used of God to transform static clergy dominated sacramentalist structures into living spontaneous movements of loving service and evangelistic concern All should join Dr Cook in praying that they shall continue to be the Hope of the Church and the Expectation of the Poor throughout Latin America today and tomorrow Arthur F Glasser Fuller Theological Seminary The Expectation of the Poor is the most inclusive study on the subject that I know Cook brings to this task his long years of experience and study as a missiologist who has spent decades working in Latin America His bibliography is probably the most complete on the subject that has been published Mortimer Arias author of The Cry of My People

Opting for the Margins Jeorg Rieger, 2003-09-11 Ideas like the preferential option for the poor arguing that people marginalized by the economy have a claim to special consideration have been among the most significant insights in twentieth century Christian theology Arising out of various theologies of liberation options for the poor and for people at the margins of society have provided major new impulses for biblical studies systematic theology church history ecclesial practice and the academic study of religion Opting for the margins continues to be an important issue at a time when the gap between rich and poor is growing at an alarming rate both in the United States and in many other parts of the world and when other gaps based for example on differences in gender or race continue to linger Recently however options for the margins have been challenged by postmodern shifts in intellectual social political and economic realities that often replace preferential options with other emphases such as general concerns for pluralism otherness and difference Options for the margins are therefore at best reduced to the special interests of certain minority groups or at worst rejected as antiquated and irrelevant for the twenty first century The essays in this volume show how some forms of postmodern thought and theology can mask patterns of oppression and provide an excuse for deafness to voices from the margins The authors writing from a wide variety of national ethnic and theological perspectives seek to revive the preferential option for the poor for the postmodern world showing how options for the margins can engage postmodernity in new ways and break new ground in religious theological and ethical as well as social political and economic thinking The essays connect philosophical and theological arguments to the concrete realities of the postmodern world and to uncover new sources of energy in the life and death struggles of people across the globe

Eradication of Poverty and Empowerment of the Poor Amal Raj Chellakan, 2007      A Church of the Poor Sedmak, Clemens, 2016-12-15 Using resources ranging from scripture to Catholic social teaching to the early Church Fathers the author examines how Pope Francis's emphasis on the Church of the Poor is calling us to a new epistemic practice involving an understanding of orthodoxy as discipleship and discipleship as a new way of getting to know and understand the world

The Spirit and the Salvation of the Urban Poor Brandon Kertson, 2019-11-15 Poverty What is it good for Absolutely nothing Still poverty is an ever present reality even in so called first world nations like the United States If the Holy Spirit is the member of the Trinity that is ever present in our world perhaps the Spirit can be a resource to address poverty In this pneumatological theology of poverty Brandon Kertson explores the current state of poverty in the United States arguing its complexities also require complex answers demanding a pneumatological approach that has yet to be offered Using Renewal theology and pneumatology Kertson develops a pneumatological four fold gospel based on Jesus pneumatic declaration of Luke 4 He explores how the Spirit addresses poverty through Jesus and the historic and global church and how we can begin to address poverty through the Spirit today The Spirit as savior baptizer healer and entelechy of the kingdom lays the foundation for a holistic response to the complex problem of poverty in our country      Christ Our Companion Roberto S. Goizueta, 2009 How the lives of the companions of Jesus become the canvas upon which God paints a picture of liberation Goizueta unites this book around the disjuncture between the Christian claim that Christ's life death and resurrection are the key to universal human meaning and our increased consciousness of the diverse pluralistic world in which we live How can a

Christian proclaim his message when the rationales for so much of the violence we see around us are grounded in religious principles The credibility of Christ's claims rests on the evidence presented by those persons who have lived out those claims

Gustavo Gutierrez Robert McAfee Brown, 2013-03-01 Here is a definitive introduction to liberation theology through the life and work of its most significant proponent Gustavo Gutierrez Robert McAfee Brown draws extensively on Gutierrez's own writings some never published in English and on personal conversations with him Brown clearly and compellingly presents the basics of liberation theology and the differences between North American and Latin American theologies The form of Gustavo Gutierrez is that of a drama Brown's initial program notes introduce and situate the author the actors the critics He sets the stage with a history of church and state in Latin America and introduces its definitive figures themes and milestones A collective biography of Gutierrez's spiritual predecessors is followed by a biography of Gutierrez himself which takes critical account of his works Then we are ready dramatically and theologically to move to the first act that of commitment to the poor The second act in two scenes explores first liberation theology's method of critical reflection on praxis and also its content nothing less than the Word of God Brown delves next into the controversies and criticisms Gutierrez faces especially the challenges from authorities in Rome Finally in act three readers discover that in this particular drama they too are on stage and must take part by reflecting on what this drama really means for them

Limits of Liberation Elina Vuola, 2002-09-19 How far are the real lives of millions of poor women really catered for in liberation and feminist theologies Vuola argues here that traditional liberation theology's notion of praxis as in L Boff and E Dussel is limited by its essentialist notion of poor and its neglect of the issue of poor women's reproductive rights Classical feminist theologies on the other hand are fraught with their own essentialist notions women's experience Both discourses are inadequate to deal with poor women's suffering widespread maternal mortality high rates of botched illegal abortions and an overall lack of reproductive rights As a response to this lack Vuola nurtures a form of Latin American feminist liberation theology that addresses directly the suffering and death of these millions of women
