Scriptures Of Won Buddhism A Translation Of Wonbulgyo Kyojon With Introduction:

The Scriptures of Won Buddhism Bongkil Chung, 2003-01-01 A philosophical analysis of Sot aesan s religious thought follows showing to what degree the central tenets of Mahayana Buddhism form the basis of Won Buddhist doctrine The Scriptures of Won Buddhism Bongkil Chung, 2003-01-31 Won Buddhism one of the major religions of modern Korea was established in 1916 by Pak Chung bin 1891 1943 later known as Sot aesan In 1943 Sot aesan published a collection of Buddhist writings the Correct Canon of Buddhism Pulgyo chongjon which included the doctrine of his new order Four years later the second patriarch Chongsan 1900 1962 had the order compile a new canon which was published in 1962 This work translated here as The Scriptures of Won Buddhism Wonbulgyo kyojon consists of the Canon a redaction of the first part of the Pulgyo chongjon and the analects and chronicle of the founder known as the Scripture of Sot aesan The present translation incorporates critical tenets from the 1943 Canon that were altered in the redaction process and offers persuasive arguments for their re inclusion Sitting Meditation in Won Buddhism Serge V. Yarovoi, 2012-08-07 The practitioners of any meditation system including those of Buddhist meditation have a variety of contemplative practices to choose from From those unlimited techniques and methods informed and thoughtful practitioners can find their own approaches depending on their level of understanding and eagerness personal inclinations and preferences and lifestyle and life goals Digging to the roots of the instructions for sitting meditation in Korean Won Buddhism the author presents various meditation practices on which the robust approach of the instructions for meditation in Won Buddhism is based Zen Evangelist John R. McRae, 2023-08-31 Huineng 638 713 author and hero of the Platform Sutra is often credited with founding the Southern school of Chan Buddhism and its radical doctrine of sudden enlightenment However manuscripts discovered at Dunhuang at the beginning of the twentieth century reveal that the real architect of the Southern school was Huineng s student Shenhui 684 758 An ardent evangelist for his master s teaching and a sharp critic of rival meditation teachers of his day Shenhui was responsible for Huineng s recognition as the sixth patriarch for the promotion and eventual triumph of the sudden teaching and for a somewhat combative style of Chan discourse that came to be known as encounter dialogue Shenhui s historical importance in the rise and success of Chan is beyond dispute yet until now there has been no complete translation of his corpus into English This volume brings together John McRae s lifetime of work on the Shenhui corpus including extensively annotated translations of all five of Shenhui s texts discovered at Dunhuang as well as McRae s seminal studies of Shenhui s life teachings and legacy McRae s research explores the degree to which the received view of the Northern school teachings is a fiction created by Shenhui to score rhetorical points and that Northern and Southern teachings may have been closer to one another than the canonical narrative depicts McRae explains Shenhui s critical role in shaping what would later emerge as classical Chan while remaining skeptical about the glowing image of Shenhui as an effective mentor and inspired revolutionary This posthumously published book is the fulfillment of McRae s wish to make

Shenhui's surviving writings accessible through carefully annotated English translations allowing readers to form their own opinions Personal Salvation and Filial Piety, 2008-02-20 The Bodhisattva Avalokitesvara was a handsome prince when he entered China. As Guanyin, the bodhisattva was venerated from the eleventh century onward in the shape of a beautiful woman who became a universal savior. Throughout the last millennium, the female Guanyin has enjoyed wide and fervid veneration throughout East Asia and has appeared as a major character in literature and legend. In one tale, Guanyin as the princess Miaoshan returns from the dead after being executed by the king her father for refusing to marry. The most popular version of this legend is The Precious Scroll of Incense Mountain, Xiangshan Baojuan, a long narrative in prose and verse and a work of considerable literary merit. It emphasizes the conflict between father and daughter in the course of which all conventional arguments against a religious lifestyle are paraded and rebutted. A lengthy description of Guanyin's visit to the underworld, which focuses on the conflict between grace and justice, is also included. Personal Salvation and Filial Piety offers a complete and fully annotated translation of The Precious Scroll based on a nineteenth-century edition. The translation is preceded by a substantial introduction that discusses the origin of the text and the genre to which it belongs and highlights the similarities and differences between the scroll and female saints' lives from medieval Europe. There follows a translation of the much shorter Precious Scroll of Good in Talent and Dragon Daughter, which provides a humorous account of how Guanyin acquired the three acolytes Sudhana, Nagakanya, and a white parrot who are often shown surrounding her in popular prints. As the first English language translation of major precious scrolls, Personal Salvation and Filial Piety will appeal to a wide range of readers, from scholars of Chinese literature to students of Buddhism. Beyond the field of East Asian studies, it will interest specialists in comparative religion and literature and feminist theologians. Because of its lively and moving narratives, the text is suitable for courses on popular Buddhist religiosity, particularly female religiosity in Chinese society.

Daesoon Jinrihoe in Modern Korea David W. Kim, 2020-08-24 East Asian nations shared a similar environment of modernisation in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. None had been colonised under Western imperialism, but all of them commonly became subjected to new authorities, whether directly or indirectly. This change of the political landscape also challenged religious communities, as many new religious movements (NRMs) emerged to satisfy the spiritual needs of local people in overcoming the hardship of transition. This book presents the unique case of a native Korean NRM which successfully survived, transformed, and was transmitted even into contemporary society. Among Donghak, later called Cheondogyo, Daejonggyo, and Wonbulgyo, the history of Daesoon Jinrihoe, derived from the Jeungsan movement, is explored here in the context of functionalism, even though the perspectives of religious philosophy and personal experiences are also regarded for the receptive and syncretic relationship with other groups. The book offers significant insight that conservative nationalistic NRMs can still survive in a digital era rather than disappear after the death of their founders. Religion
