National Union Catalog ,1968 Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print ,1974 Learning Strategies and Cultural Evolution during the Palaeolithic Alex Mesoudi,Kenichi Aoki,2015-04-30 This volume is motivated by the desire to explain why Neanderthals were replaced by modern humans in terms of cultural differences between the two sub species It provides up to date coverage on the theory of cultural evolution as is being used by anthropologists archaeologists biologists and psychologists to decipher hominin cultural change and diversity during the Palaeolithic The contributing authors are directly involved in this effort and the material presented includes novel approaches and findings Chapters explain how learning strategies in combination with social and demographic factors e g population size and mobility patterns predict cultural evolution in a world without the printing press television or the Internet Also addressed is the inverse problem of how learning strategies may be inferred from actual trajectories of cultural change for example as seen in the North American Palaeolithic Mathematics and statistics a sometimes necessary part of theory are explained in elementary terms where they appear with details relegated to appendices Full citations of the relevant literature will help the reader to further pursue any topic of interest Property and Equality: Ritualisation, sharing, egalitarianism Thomas Widlok,Wolde Gossa Tadesse,2005 The ethnography of egalitarian social systems was first met with sheer disbelief Today it is still hotly debated in a number of fields and has gained sophistication as well as momentum This collection of essays on property and equality acknowledges this diversification by presenting research results in two complementary volumes They bring together a wide range of authoritative researchers most of whom have worked with hunter gatherer groups These two volumes cover existing ethnographic and theoretical ground while maintaining a clear focus on the relation between property and equality The book consists of the most recent work of prominent members of the original group of researchers in hunter gatherer studies among them James Woodburn and Richard Lee and very recent ethnography on hunter gatherers and other egalitarian systems

Oxford Handbook of Cultural Evolution Jamshid Tehrani, Rachel L. Kendal, Jeremy Kendal, 2025-07-16 This handbook offers a comprehensive overview of the interdisciplinary field of Cultural Evolution which has in recent years matured into an increasingly diverse and wide reaching but intellectually coherent research programme The book showcases the disciplinary spectrum of research into Cultural Evolution from primatology and medieval literature to gene culture co evolution computer science anthropology archaeology and experimental psychology The handbook consists of review essays contributed by leading experts in their areas structured into ten sections covering key approaches and debates major themes and real world applications Taken together the essays offer an exceptionally broad and forward looking perspective on the field for researchers across the cognitive and evolutionary social sciences including those working in fields adjacent to Cultural Evolution such as Behavioural Ecology Evolutionary Psychology and Digital Humanities The handbook also provides a unique educational resource for students and teachers seeking to integrate Cultural Evolution into undergraduate and postgraduate curricula as well as highlighting some of the potential applications of Cultural Evolution in fields such as education public health and environmental policy
