Sculpture In Place:

Sculpture in Place Sarah A. Clark-Langager, 2002 The natural setting is breathtakingly beautiful but the artistic expression that is the campus the combination of art and architecture makes this a true jewel in a magnificent setting

Phenomenologies of Art and Vision Paul Crowther, 2013-01-03 Contemporary discussions of the image like to emphasize art's societal functions Few studies come close to answering why pictures and sculptures fascinate and intrigue regardless of any practical functions they might serve In this original thought provoking study Paul Crowther reveals the intrinsic significance of pictures and sculptures To address the question of how painting becomes an art Crowther uses the analytic philosophy of Richard Wollheim as a starting point But to sufficiently answer the question he makes an important link to a tradition much more successful in giving voice to the deeper ontology of visual art existential phenomenology The result is a work that demonstrates the reciprocal relationship between phenomenology and analytic aesthetics To expand its ontological scope and solve the problem of expression analytic aesthetics needs phenomenology while to develop a sustained critically balanced and intellectually available ontology phenomenology needs the discursive force and lucidity of analytic philosophy This convincing case for a post analytic phenomenology of art is an important advancement of contemporary discussions of the philosophy of art

The Sculptural Imagination Alex Potts, 2000-01-01 Potts also offers a detailed view of selected iconic works by sculptors ranging from Antonio Canova and Auguste Rodin to Constantin Brancusi David Smith Carl Andre Eva Hesse and Louise Bourgeois key players in modern thinking about the sculptural The impact of minimalism features prominently in this discussion for it disrupted accepted understanding of how a viewer interacts with a work of art thereby placing the phenomenology of viewing three dimensional objects for the first time at the center of debate about modern visual art Jacket

Cuts Carl Andre, 2021-08-03 Statements dialogue letters epigrams and poems by sculptor Carl Andre a central figure in minimalism Just as Carl Andre's sculptures are cuts of elemental materials his writings are condensed expressions cuts of language that emphasize the part rather than the whole Andre a central figure in minimalism and one of the most influential sculptors of our time does not produce the usual critical essay He has said that he is not a writer of prose and the texts included in Cuts the most comprehensive collection of his writings yet published appear in a wide variety of forms that are pithy and poetic rather than prosaic Some texts are statements many of them fifty words or less written for catalog entries and press releases Others are Socratic dialogues interwoven statements or in the form of questionnaires and interviews Still others are letters public and private lengthy missives and postcards Some are epigrams and maxims for example on Damian Hirst I DON'T FEAR HIS SHARK I FEAR HIS FORMALDEHYDE and some are planar poems words and letters arranged and rearranged into different patterns They are organized alphabetically by subject under such entries as Art and Capitalism Childhood Entropy After Smithsonian Matter My Work Other Artists and Poetry and they include Andre's reflections on Michelangelo and Duchamp on Stein and Marx and such contemporaries as Eva Hesse Robert Rauschenberg Robert

Morris and Damien Hirst Carl Andre's writing and its materiality its stress on the visual and tactile qualities of language takes its place beside his sculpture and its materiality its revelation of matter as matter rather than matter as symbol Both assert the ethical and political primacy of matter in a culture that prizes the replica the insubstantial and the virtual I am not an idealist as an artist says Andre I try to discover my visions in the conditions of the world It's the conditions which are important
