'Greater India' and the Indian Expansionist Imagination, c. 1885-1965 Jolita Zabarskaitė, 2022-11-07 This book is the first systematic study of the genealogy discursive structures and political implications of the concept of Greater India implying a Hindu colonization of Southeast Asia and used by extension to argue for a past Indian greatness as a colonial power reproducible in the present and future From the 1880s to the 1960s protagonists of the Greater India theme attempted to make a case for the importance of an expansionist Indian civilisation in civilizing Southeast Asia The argument was extended to include Central Asia Africa North and South America and other regions where Indian migrants were to be found The advocates of this Indocentric and Hindu revivalist approach with Hindu and Indian often taken to be synonymous were involved in a quintessentially parochial project despite its apparently international dimensions to justify an Indian expansionist imagination that viewed India s past as a colonizer and civilizer of other lands as a model for the restoration of that past greatness in the future Zabarskaite shows that the crucial ideologues and elements used for the formation of the construct of Greater India can be traced to the svade movement of the turn of the century and that Greater India moved easily between the domains of the scholarly and the popular as it sought to establish itself as a form of nationalist self assertion

Russian Orientalism in a global context Maria Taroutina, Allison Leigh, 2023-06-27 This volume features new research on Russia s historic relationship with Asia and the ways it was mediated and represented in the fine decorative and performing arts and architecture from the mid eighteenth century to the first two decades of Soviet rule It interrogates how Russia s perception of its position on the periphery of the west and its simultaneous self consciousness as a colonial power shaped its artistic cultural and national identity as a heterogenous multi ethnic empire It also explores the extent to which cultural practitioners participated in the discursive matrices that advanced Russia s colonial machinery on the one hand and critiqued and challenged it on the other especially in territories that were themselves on the fault lines between the east and the west The World Almanac and Book of Facts ,1942 Lists news events population figures and miscellaneous data of an historic economic scientific and social nature History of Art José Pijoán,1927 Journal of the Society of Oriental Research Society of oriental research,1917 Journal of the Society of Oriental Research Society of Oriental Research (Chicago, Ill.),1928
