Research-Creation in Music and the Arts Sophie Stévanec, Serge Lacasse, 2017-12-12 Since the 1970s the landscape of higher education and research has been considerably altered by the integration of the arts within the university environment Even though a form of research is inherent to artistic creation the creative process is not comparable to the established procedures involved in academic research As such how can the imperatives of intellectual and sometimes restrictive rigour characteristic of scholarly endeavours be reconciled with the more explorative and intuitive approach of artistic creation The concept of research creation allows artists and scholars to collaborate on a common project acknowledging each participant's expertise in the production of an artistic work that either generates theoretical reflections or has emerged from academic research. This fully revised and updated translation of Sophie St Vance and Serge Lacasse's original French book offers an overview of the historical, political, social, cultural, and academic contexts within which research creation has emerged in Quebec and Canada, before similar yet often divergent conceptions appeared elsewhere in the world. Focussing primarily on the case of music, the book goes on to explore the pedagogical potential of research creation within a university-based environment and proposes a clear and encompassing definition as well as a theoretical model of research creation supported by concrete examples. By underscoring the reciprocal nature of this approach and the potential benefits of collaborative relationships, the authors' vision of research creation extends far beyond the field of music and art alone; rather, it has the potential to integrate all approaches and disciplines that seek to combine practice and research. Ergasteria:

Premises and Processes of Creation in Antiquity Elena C. Partida, Constanze Graml, 2025-07-03 This volume presents 23 papers that offer insights into aspects of creation, manufacture, and processing in antiquity, viewing craftsmen and artists in their socio-cultural and geopolitical setting. New finds from Greece, North Africa, the Black Sea, Italy, and Central Europe provide a trigger for discussion. Art Films, 1982 Paul Gauguin Dario Gamboni, 2014-09-15 French artist Eugène Henri Paul Gauguin (1848-1903) once reproached the Impressionists for searching around the eye and not at the mysterious centre of thought. But what did he mean by this enigmatic phrase? In this innovative investigation into Gauguin's art and thought, Dario Gamboni illuminates Gauguin's quest for this mysterious centre and offers a fresh look at the artist's output in all media, from ceramics and sculptures to prints, paintings, and his large corpus of writings. Foregrounding Gauguin's conscious use of ambiguity, Gamboni unpacks what the artist called the language of the listening eye. Gamboni shows that the interaction between perception, cognition, and imagination was at the core of Gauguin's work, and he traces a line of continuity in them that has been previously overlooked. Emulating Gauguin's wide-ranging curiosity with literature, psychology, theology, and the natural sciences, not to mention the whole of art history, this richly illustrated book provides new insight into the life and works of this well-known yet little-understood artist. Art Et Architecture Au Canada Loren Ruth Lerner, Mary F. Williamson, 1991-01-01 Identifies and summarizes thousands of books, article, exhibition catalogues, government publications, and theses published in many countries and in several languages from the early nineteenth century to 1981. Guide to the Literature of Art History 2 Max Marmor, Alex Ross, 2005 This bibliography supplements the greatest of modern art bibliographies, Etta Arntzen and Robert Rainwater's Guide to the literature of art history (ALA, 1980). Preface
