The Sea of Becoming Mary S. Vasquez, 1991 The present volume responds to a perceived need for a unified body of serious critical work from a variety of perspectives on the literary production of this dynamic and original writer It includes ten essays interviews and an annotated bibliography the first ever available on Tusquets

Post-totalitarian Spanish Fiction Robert C. Spires, 1996 This study records an epistemic shift away from logocentric and totalizing approaches to reality by analyzing the links between the novelistic strategies used by Spanish writers from 1975 to 1989 and recent international events and theoretical trends in science mathematics communication studies and art

Cultural Representations of Queer Aging in Spain Heather Jerónimo, Raquel Medina, 2025-06-02 This collection examines representations of Spanish queer aging through investigations of literary and cinematic representations of this demographic offering a showcase for research on communities often made invisible due to age and sexual identity in Spanish culture with wider implications for queer aging studies research The volume builds on theoretical foundations established by queer aging studies scholars and the ways in which queer aging differs from heterosexual aging examining negative topics that arise in literature and film such as the AIDS crisis the silencing of queer aging individuals and social stigmas against this group in addition to positive topics like the creation of communities and spaces for queer aging characters Chapters are structured in conversation with one another about key themes in depictions of queer aging in Spanish culture Several chapters examine such topics as the aging body stereotypes and discrimination old age tropes and queer invisibility while others highlight positive representations in exploring the importance of the connection to home family and community spaces for queer communities The collection represents a critical step in future work on queer aging to take future research beyond the Spanish context to extend to new geographic and disciplinary borders This book will be of interest to scholars in aging studies gerontology studies queer theory health humanities and Spanish literature and culture Reflection in Sequence Sandra J. Schumm,1999-07 The codes of conduct imposed on females by Spain's dictator Francisco Franco after the Spanish Civil War 1936-39 created a stifling environment for women until his death in 1975 Beginning with Carmen Laforet's 1944 Nadal Prize winning novel Nada novels by women many of which explore female identity began to proliferate in Spain The works examined in this study Nada Primera memoria 1960 by Ana Maria Matute La placa del Diamant 1962 by Merce Rodoreda Julia 1969 by Ana Maria Moix El cuarto de atrás 1978 by Carmen Martin Gaité El amor es un juego solitario 1979 by Esther Tusquets and Questio d amor propi 1987 by Carme Riera feature female protagonists struggling for self realization and by extension for change in a restrictive Spanish society Schumm's analysis of the seven novels demonstrates how examination of metaphoric tropes and mirror images provides insight into the protagonists development Female Exiles in Twentieth and Twenty-first Century Europe M. Stanley, G. Zinn, 2007-09-03 A number of historical events of the twentieth century gave rise to migration immigration and exile to and within the European continent This collection represents an effort to raise consciousness about the marginalization of exiled women artists writers political figures as well as members of ethnic and religious minorities Women in Contemporary Spain Anny Brooksbank Jones, 1997 This volume gives access to debates in Spanish women's studies Masculinity/Femininity: re-framing a fragmented debate ,2020-05-06 The representations and performances of femininity and masculinity are no longer set in stone according to traditions imposed by society Gender identity and gender roles are evolving This ebook provides multiple perspectives on the issue that re frame the debate in a modern context The Sea of Becoming Mary S. Vasquez, 1991 The present volume responds to a perceived need for a unified body of serious critical work from a variety of perspectives on the literary production of this dynamic and original writer It includes ten essays interviews and an annotated bibliography the first ever available on Tusquets Literary Labyrinths in Franco-Era Barcelona Colleen P. Culleton, 2016-07-22 Bringing together works by Salvador Espriu Juan Goytisolo Merc Rodoreda Esther Tusquets and Juan Marsa that portray memory as a disorienting narrative enterprise Colleen Culleton argues that the source of this disorientation is the material reality of life in Barcelona in the immediate post Civil War years Barcelona was the object of harsh persecution in the first years of the Franco regime that included the erasure of marks of Catalan identity and cultural history from the urban landscape and made Barcelona a moving target for memory The literature and film she examines show characters struggling to produce narratives of the remembered past that immediately conflict with the dominant version of Spain's historical narrative formulated to legitimize the Civil War Culleton suggests the trope of the laberinto used as an image or device in all five of the works she considers and translated into English as both maze and labyrinth opens up a space that enables readers to take vulnerability to outside interference into account as an inseparable part of remembrance While the narratives all have maze like qualities involving a high level of reader participation and choice the exigencies of the labyrinth with its unicursal demands for patience perseverance and faith always prevail Thus do the Francoist narrative and social structure in the end resurface and reassert themselves over the narrating character's perspective

Performing Parenthood Heather Jerónimo, 2024-07-05 Performing Parenthood reveals different enactments of motherhood and fatherhood in twentieth and twenty first century Spain showing how the family has adapted or at times failed to do so within the context of Spain's changing socioeconomic reality Through an examination of examples of non normative parenthood in contemporary Spanish literature and film including gay literary father figures subversive physical touch between mother and child fathers who cross dress lesbian maternal community building non biological parenting and disabled bodies the book argues that current conceptualizations of parenthood should be amplified to reflect the various existing identities and performances of motherhoods and fatherhoods Connecting canonical works to recent works the book establishes a unique dialogue that will expand the conversation about the Spanish family beyond the traditional view bringing visibility to alternative family models It argues that parental identities exist on a spectrum enabling many parental figures to disregard heteronormative standards imposed upon the role and allowing them to experience parenthood in meaningful ways Bringing visibility to literary and cinematic examples of alternative Spanish families Performing Parenthood provides a glimpse into an evolving society influenced by national and global changes

Encyclopedia of Contemporary Spanish Culture Professor Eamonn Rodgers, Eamonn Rodgers, 2002-03-11 Some 750 alphabetically arranged entries provide insights into recent cultural and political developments within Spain including the cultures of Catalonia Galicia and the Basque country Coverage spans from the end of the Civil War in 1939 to the present day with emphasis on the changes following the demise of the Franco dictatorship in 1975 Entries range from shorter factual articles to longer overview essays offering in depth treatment of major issues Culture is defined in its broadest sense Entries include Antonio Gaudí science Antonio Banderas golf dance education politics racism urbanization This Encyclopedia is essential reading for anyone interested in Spanish culture It provides essential cultural context for students of Spanish European History Comparative European Studies and Cultural Studies

Private Correspondence Esther Tusquets, 2008 Esther Tusquets was already well known in Spain as director of the Barcelona publishing house Editorial Lumen when she stunned the reading public in the late 70s and 80s with the publication of a highly acclaimed narrative cycle whose daringly innovative content and prose style broke new ground for the Spanish novel and for women's writing

Narrating Motherhood(s), Breaking the Silence Silvia Caporale-Bizzini, 2006 Feminist theory on motherhood has successfully transformed mothers into subjects of their own discourse recognized the historical heterogeneous and socially constructed origins of their life experience while at the same time widening our understanding of the notion of mothering This collection combines a literary and a wider cultural perspective from which to look at the topic of the representation of other or forgotten motherhoods Mothers who have been forced to live exiled and away from their children women who after trying to conceive get pregnant but discover they cannot bear to become mothers or even literary characters based on an autobiographical experience of a sexually abusive mother The essays critically point out how writing becomes a tool to think and write about the many aspects of motherhood such as an idealized maternal experience versus the real one or the accepted stereotypes of the good mother and the bad mother Assertive Biblical

Women William Phipps,1992-08-24 Most of the women described in this study were atypical biblical women Israelite women like women in most cultures of the world had status principally within the home However exceptional women occasionally had prominent roles outside the home and dared to assert themselves The chapters contain biographical sketches with comparisons to contemporary women s roles of two dozen women Beginning with Sarah of Ur and ending with Priscilla of Rome their lives range over an era of nearly two millennia These women were at crucial times sagacious in decision making and skillful in executing their decisions They made such a distinctive mark on the events of their time to be remembered by subsequent generations as more than breeders of male heirs Each woman s story relates how a dynamic woman was able to swim against the strong currents of patriarchy To make explicit the relevancy of this study the brief biographies are related to such current feminist issues as surrogate parenting gender stereotyping and civil disobedience over unequal treatment by governments Spanish Women's Writing 1849-1996 Catherine Davies,2000-12-01 Traces the tradition of Spanish women s writing from the end of the Romantic period until the present day Professor Davies places the major authors within the changing political cultural and economic context of women s lives over the past century and a half with particular attention to women s accounts of female subjectivity in relation to the Spanish nation state government politics and the women s liberation movement Squaring the Circle Stacey Dolgin Casado,2002 Seeking Common Ground Donna
