Modernism in Art, Design and Architecture Christopher Crouch, 1998-11-20 This text summarises and contextualises the ideas that formed visual arts practices this century Art design and architecture are located in their social and political contexts and the ideas of modernism are traced from the development of industrialised Europe at the turn of the century to the post industrial post colonial present The complex relationship between modernism and postmodernism in the visual arts is examined and the book concludes with a review of the global impact of the new technologies on art and design production

Transcultural Architecture Thorsten Botz-Bornstein, 2015-10-30 This book shifts the focus from Critical Regionalism towards a broader concept of Transcultural Architecture and defines Critical Regionalism as a subgroup of the latter One of the benefits that this change of perspective brings about is that a large part of the political agenda of Critical Regionalism which consists of resisting attitudes forged by typically Western experiences is softened and negotiated according to premises provided by local circumstances At the book s centre is an analysis of Reima and Raili Pietil s Sief Palace Area project in Kuwait Further cases of modern architecture in China Korea and Saudi Arabia show that the critique which holds that Critical Regionalism is a typical western exercise is not sound in all circumstances Furthermore the book proposes that a certain architectural rationality can be contained in architecture itself not imposed by outside parameters like aesthetics comfort or even tradition

The Architecture of Gunnar Birkerts Kay Kaiser, 1989 Gunnar Birkerts has designed some of America s most innovative and distinctive architecture A member of the Modern Movement s postwar generation he has shown that modernism can accommodate lyrical emotional dynamic and regional influences within its abstract construct His design concepts which grow from the individual character of site and client defy stylistic categorization Over his career he has won more than fifty major awards The Architecture of Gunnar Birkerts not only presents the architects work but also explores the influences of his background design methodology and philosophy on his buildings from book flap

The Information Specialist's Guide to Searching and Researching on the Internet and the World Wide Web Ernest Ackermann, Karen Hartman, 2014-06-11 Written by a professor of computer science and a reference librarian this guide covers basic browser usage e mail and discussion groups discusses such Internet staples as FTP and Usenet newsgroups presents and compares numerous search engines and includes models for acquiring evaluating and citing resources within the context of a research project The emphasis of the book is on learning how to create search strategies and search expressions how to evaluate information critically and how to cite resources All of these skills are presented as within the context of step by step activities designed to teach basic Internet research skills to the beginner and to hone the skills of the seasoned practitioner
