Bolkosky, 2002-07-30 Scholars survivors and other interested parties have offered over the years their own interpretations of the meaning of the Holocaust and the lessons we can learn from it However the quest to find a rational explanation for this seemingly irrational course of events has led to both controversy and continued efforts at assigning meaning to this most horrible of events Examining oral histories provided by survivors written accounts and explanations scholarly analysis and commonly held assumptions Bolkosky challenges the usual collection of platitudes about the lessons or the meanings we can derive from the Holocaust Indeed he argues against the kind of reductionism that such a quest for meaning has led to and he analyzes the nature of the perpetrators in order to support his position on the inconclusivity of the study of the Holocaust Dealing with the perpetrators of the Holocaust as manifestations of twentieth century civilized trends foreseen by the likes of Kafka Ortega y Gasset Arthur Koestler and Max Weber Bolkosky suggests a new nature of evil and criminality along the lines developed by Hannah Arendt Raul Hilberg and Richard Rosenstein Woven into the fabric of the text are insights from literary and historical writers sociologists and philosophers This interdisciplinary attempt to shed new light on efforts to determine the meanings and lessons of the Holocaust provides readers with a challenging approach to considering the oral histories of survivors and the popular and professional assumptions surrounding this devastating moment in history Meaning-Centered Psychotherapy in the Cancer Setting William Breitbart, 2017 Meaning Centered Psychotherapy in the Cancer Setting provides a theoretical context for Meaning Centered Psychotherapy MCP a non pharmacologic intervention which has been shown to enhance meaning and spiritual well being increase hope improve quality of life and significantly decrease depression anxiety desire for hastened death and symptom burden distress in the cancer setting Based on the work of Viktor Frankl and his concept of logotherapy MCP is an innovative intervention for clinicians practicing in fields of Psycho oncology Palliative Care bereavement and cancer survivorship This volume supplements two treatment manuals Meaning Centered Group Psychotherapy MCGP for Patients with Advanced Cancer and Individual Meaning Centered Psychotherapy IMCP for Patients with Advanced Cancer by Dr Breitbart which offer a step wise outline to conducting a specific set of therapy sessions In addition to providing a theoretical background on the MCP techniques provided in the treatment manuals this volume contains chapters on adapting MCP for different cancer related populations and for different purposes and clinical problems including interventions for cancer survivors caregivers of cancer patients adolescents and young adults with cancer as a bereavement intervention and cultural and linguistic applications in languages such as Mandarin Spanish and Hebrew
