Seaside David Mohoney, Keller Easterling, 1991 Seaside provides a history of the town interviews with its planners zoning and building codes and drawings photographs and descriptions of over 120 buildings by 40 architects Movie Towns and Sitcom Suburbs Stephen Rowley, 2015-10-21 Media depictions of community are enormously influential on wider popular opinion about how people would like to live In this study Rowley examines depictions of ideal communities in Hollywood films and television and explores the implications of attempts to build real world counterparts to such imagined places Postmodern Urbanism Nan Ellin, 1999 A comprehensive guide to the scope of contemporary urban design theory in Europe and the USA e-topia William J. Mitchell, 2000-08-25 How an electronically connected world will shape cities and urban relationships of the future The global digital network is not just a delivery system for email Web pages and digital television It is a whole new urban infrastructure one that will change the forms of our cities as dramatically as railroads highways electric power supply and telephone networks did in the past In this lucid invigorating book William J Mitchell examines this new infrastructure and its implications for our future daily lives Picking up where his best selling City of Bits left off Mitchell argues that we must extend the definitions of architecture and urban design to encompass virtual places as well as physical ones and interconnection by means of telecommunication links as well as by pedestrian circulation and mechanized transportation systems He proposes strategies for the creation of cities that not only will be sustainable but will make economic social and cultural sense in an electronically interconnected and global world The new settlement patterns of the twenty first century will be characterized by live work dwellings 24 hour pedestrian scale neighborhoods rich in social relationships and vigorous local community life complemented by far flung configurations of electronic meeting places and decentralized production marketing and distribution systems Neither digiphile nor digiphobe Mitchell advocates the creation of e topias cities that work smarter not harder Shaping Communities Carter L. Hudgins, Elizabeth C. Cromley, 1997 Ed SUNY Buffalo Revised papers from two conferences 1992 and 1993 Dwell, 2000-12 At Dwell we re staging a minor revolution We think that it s possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines Images of the Street Nicholas Fyfe, 2006-05-11 Images of the Street captures the vitality excitements and tensions of the street Using examples from the U K India Australia and North America the contributors draw on research in cultural geography sociology cultural studies and planning to explore the making and meaning of urban space Among the themes examined are 1 the way streetscapes are shaped by interplay between politics planning and local political economy 2 social differences of individuals experiences of the street 3 how social identities are shaped and represented in fiction and film 4 the meaning and significance of streets as settings to play out social practices 5 how social life is regulated on the street formerly by police and indirectly through architecture and urban design      SynergiCity Paul Hardin Kapp, Paul J. Armstrong, 2012-09-30

SynergiCity Reinventing the Postindustrial City proposes a new and invigorating vision of urbanism architectural design and urban revitalization in twenty first century America Culling transformative ideas from the realms of historic preservation sustainability ecological urbanism and the innovation economy Paul Hardin Kapp and Paul J Armstrong present a holistic vision for restoring industrial cities suffering from population decline back into stimulating and productive places to live and work With a particular emphasis on the Rust Belt of the American Midwest SynergiCity argues that cities such as Detroit St Louis and Peoria must redefine themselves to be globally competitive This revitalization is possible through environmentally and economically sustainable restoration of industrial areas and warehouse districts for commercial research light industrial and residential uses The volume s expert researchers urban planners and architects draw on the redevelopment successes of other major cities such as the American Tobacco District in Durham North Carolina and the Milwaukee River Greenway to set guidelines and goals for reinventing and revitalizing the postindustrial landscape Contributors are Paul J Armstrong Donald K Carter Lynne M Dearborn Norman W Garrick Mark Gillem Robert Greenstreet Craig Harlan Hullinger Paul Hardin Kapp Ray Lees Emil Malizia John O Norquist Christine Scott Thomson and James Wasley      Suburban Nation Andres Duany, Elizabeth Plater-Zyberk, Jeff Speck, 2000 Duany and Elizabeth Plater Zyberk are at the forefront of the New Urbanism movement and in Suburban Nation they assess sprawl s costs to society be they ecological economic aesthetic or social 115 illustrations      Technology and Place Steven A. Moore, 2011-01-20 Developing sustainable architectural and agricultural technologies was the intent behind Blueprint Farm an experimental agricultural project designed to benefit farm workers displaced by the industrialization of agriculture in the Rio Grande Valley of Texas Yet despite its promise the very institutions that created Blueprint Farm terminated the project after just four years 1987 1991 In this book Steven Moore demonstrates how the various stakeholders competing definitions of sustainability technology and place ultimately doomed Blueprint Farm He reconstructs the conflicting interests and goals of the founders including Jim Hightower and the Texas Department of Agriculture Laredo Junior College and the Center for Maximum Potential Building Systems and shows how ironically they unwittingly suppressed the self determination of the very farm workers the project sought to benefit From the instructive failure of Blueprint Farm Moore extracts eight principles for a regenerative architecture which he calls his nonmodern manifesto      Designing Suburban Futures June Williamson, 2013-05-07 Suburbs deserve a better more resilient future June Williamson shows that suburbs aren t destined to remain filled with strip malls and excess parking lots they can be reinvigorated through inventive design Today dead malls aging office parks and blighted apartment complexes are being retrofitted into walkable sustainable communities Williamson provides a broad vision of suburban reform based on the best schemes submitted in Long Island s highly successful Build a Better Burb competition Many of the design ideas and plans operate at a regional scale tackling systems such as transit aquifer protection and power generation While some seek to fundamentally transform development patterns others work with existing infrastructure to create mixed use shared networks Designing Suburban Futures offers concrete but visionary strategies to take the sprawl out of suburbia creating a vibrant new suburban form

Invisible City John I. Gilderbloom, 2009-02-17 A legendary figure in the realms of public policy and academia John Gilderbloom is one of the foremost urban planning researchers of our time producing groundbreaking studies on housing markets design location regulation financing and community building Now in Invisible City he turns his eye to fundamental questions regarding housing for the elderly the disabled and the poor Why is it that some locales can offer affordable accessible and attractive housing while the large majority of cities fail to do so Invisible City calls for a brave new housing paradigm that makes the needs of marginalized populations visible to policy makers Drawing on fascinating case studies in Houston Louisville and New Orleans and analyzing census information as well as policy reports Gilderbloom offers a comprehensive engaging and optimistic theory of how housing can be remade with a progressive vision While many contemporary urban scholars have failed to capture the dynamics of what is happening in our cities Gilderbloom presents a new vision of shelter as a force that shapes all residents

Civitas by Design Howard Gillette, Jr., 2011-06-06 Since the end of the nineteenth century city planners have aspired not only to improve the physical living conditions of urban residents but also to strengthen civic ties through better design of built environments From Ebenezer Howard and his vision for garden cities to today's New Urbanists these visionaries have sought to deepen civitas or the shared community of citizens In Civitas by Design historian Howard Gillette Jr takes a critical look at this planning tradition examining a wide range of environmental interventions and their consequences over the course of the twentieth century As American reform efforts moved from progressive idealism through the era of government urban renewal programs to the rise of faith in markets planners attempted to cultivate community in places such as Forest Hills Gardens in Queens New York Celebration Florida and the post Katrina Gulf Coast Key figures including critics Lewis Mumford and Oscar Newman entrepreneur James Rouse and housing reformer Catherine Bauer introduced concepts such as neighborhood units pedestrian shopping malls and planned communities that were implemented on a national scale Many of the buildings landscapes and infrastructures that planners envisioned still remain but frequently these physical designs have proven insufficient to sustain the ideals they represented Will contemporary urbanists efforts to join social justice with environmentalism generate better results Gillette places the work of reformers and designers in the context of their times providing a careful analysis of the major ideas and trends in urban planning for current and future policy makers

Travel by Design Marlon G. Boarnet, Randall Crane, 2001-03-08 Can transportation problems be fixed by the right neighborhood design The tremendous popularity of the new urbanism and livable communities initiatives suggests that many persons think so As a systematic assessment of attempts to solve transportation problems through urban design this book asks and answers three questions Can such efforts work Will they be put into practice Are they a good idea

Demystifying Your Business Strategy David Lei, John W.

Slocum,2014 This book offers managers a comprehensive overview of the drivers of evolutionary advantage and practical insights on how to spot the emerging inflection points helping them to develop and maintain a strategic competitive advantage     Design Book Review ,1996     Urban Ethic Eamonn Canniffe,2006-06-01 Although contemporary practice in urbanism has many sources of design guidelines it lacks theory to provide a flexible approach to the complexities of most urban situations The author provides that theoretical framework looking beyond the style obsession of urban makeovers to the fundamental elements of city making The scope of this book takes in illuminating historical analysis and significant theoretical coherence while recent case studies link the physical environment to the citizens within it ultimately offering a new methodology for the analysis and design of urban spaces which encourages a balance between diversity and community

Changing Suburbs Richard Harris,Peter Larkham,2003-09-02 The editors and contributors to this volume demonstrate how suburbs and the meaning of suburbanism change both with time and geographical location Here the disciplines of history geography and sociology together with subdisciplines as diverse as gender studies art history and urban morphology are brought together to reveal the nature of suburbia from the nineteenth century to the present day     Pride in Modesty Michelangelo Sabatino,2010-01-01 Pride in Modesty argues that ordinary often anonymous everyday things inspired and transformed Italian art and architecture from the 1920s through the 1970s     The Visual Dictionary of American Domestic Architecture Rachel Carley,1997-03-15 Visual presentation of the many types of houses built in America from the earliest Indian dwellings to designs for futuristic homes
