Narrative Modes In Punjabi Novel:

Narrative Modes in Punjabi Novel Niranjana Tasnīm, 2002 Legacies of the Homeland Paramjeet Singh, 2018-04-07 This book is not intended to provide a list of the 100 best books ever written and published by Punjabi authors. Given the sheer range of books written by Punjabi authors and the unpredictability of individual taste, any such definitive list is quite impossible. Secondly, the choice has been restricted to books that were written by them either in Punjabi, Hindi or Urdu but have been translated into English. Thus, personal choice, restricted by availability, has dictated this selection. The choice of books includes autobiographies, novels, short stories, poems and plays. Research books, religious books and books written originally in English have not been included. From the Introduction, I am amazed at the scholarship, the passion and the love with which Paramjeet Singh has written this book. It will be a reference volume for all times. Nirupama Dutt, Poet, Journalist, Translator. Mr. Singh's effort is commendable as he is making available some of the rarest of gems of Punjabi literature to the non-Punjabi readers. I congratulate Mr. Singh on putting together this selection and hope that non-Punjabi readers of this book would find new horizons of cultural experience opening up before them. Of course, for Punjabi readers, it may be yet another opportunity to experience a sense of genuine pride in their rich legacy of language, literature and culture. Prof. Rana Nayar The Contours of Punjabi Poetry Niranjana Tasnīm, 2005. Articles on the works of modern Punjabi poets include a selection of Punjabi poems translated into English. At the Crossroads Niranjana Tasnīm, 2006. Articles on 20th-century Punjabi and Urdu literature also include briefly miscellaneous articles. Encyclopaedic Dictionary of Punjabi Literature R. P. Malhotra, Kuldeep Arora, 2003 Postcolonial Literary Studies Robert P. Marzec, 2011-09-15. Internationally recognized for its superior scholarship, Modern Fiction Studies was one of the first journals to publish articles on postcolonial studies. Since postcolonialism's inception, scholars have defined, clarified and enriched its conceptions and theoretical development in the pages of MFS. This anthology collects the best and most important articles on postcolonial literary studies published in MFS in the past thirty years. Postcolonial Literary Studies brings together groundbreaking scholarship focusing on significant works of fiction by such writers as Chinua Achebe, J. M. Coetzee, Jamaica Kincaid, V. S. Naipaul, Arundhati Roy, Salman Rushdie, Bapsi Sidhwa, Ngugi wa Thiong'o and more. The essays feature ideas that helped shape the discipline from its earliest stages to the present and represent some of the finest examples of literary, theoretical, historical and cultural criticism. With its focus on literary figures and texts rather than solely on theory, this volume fills a significant gap in the fields of postcolonialism, global studies and literary criticism in general. This rich collection of essays by the field's leading scholars will prove indispensable to instructors and students across a broad spectrum of humanistic studies. It not only highlights the development and transformation of postcolonial literary study but also, by mapping out new directions of study, considers its continual significance and expansion. Indian English Literature Gajendra Kumar, Uday Shankar Ojha, 2005. Contributed articles. Indian National Bibliography, 2003-07 Book Review Index, 2003 Explorations in Australian
