collection of all texts and contexts studied which greatly facilitates cross referencing Basque Legends Wentworth Webster, 2018-04-05 Reproduction of the original Basque Legends by Wentworth Webster Letterature dell'Africa Samuel-Martin Eno Belinga, Cristina Brambilla, 1994 Bulletin Northern Michigan College, Northern Michigan University, Northern State Normal School (Mich.), Northern State Teachers College (Mich.), 1925 Catalogue of the Library at Abbotsford ... Walter Scott, 1838 Catalogue des livres composant la bibliothèque de feu M. John George Cochrane, 1838 Logic and Humour in the Fabliaux Roy Percy, 2007 A theoretically defensible inventory of the fabliaux based on a new structural definition Joseph B dier s 1893 definition of the fabliaux as funny stories in verse is still widely accepted as the best brief and general description for a heterogeneous collection of texts But the heterogeneity creates difficulties and at the periphery of the canon all three of the criteria included in B dier s definition are open to question The inventory proposed in the current study is based on a new structural definition a conjointure akin to that of romance combining a logical episteme with a rhetorical narreme The episteme features a contradictory taken from Boolean algebra and assumes four different forms depending on whether ambiguity resulting from the contradictory is understood by neither by both or by either the sender or the receiver of a message In the first two instances a character foreign to the episteme intervenes to resolve confusion in the narreme or appears as the victim of the sophistical assumption of a contrary to fact reality in the latter instances the sender or the receiver of the message in the episteme triumphs in the narreme The resulting inventory including and augmenting the texts admitted by Per Nykrog and discarding numerous stories already challenged for authenticity is theoretically defensible to a degree not previously achieved ROY PEARCY is an Honorary Research Fellow of the University of London The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1926 Estudios humanísticos en homenaje a Luis Cortés Vázquez Roberto (ed.) Dengler Gassin, 1991-01-01 The Irresistible Fairy Tale Jack Zipes, 2012 A provocative new theory about fairy tales from one of the world s leading authorities If there is one genre that has captured the imagination of people in all walks of life throughout the world it is the fairy tale Yet we still have great difficulty understanding how it originated evolved and spread or why so many people cannot resist its appeal no matter how it changes or what form it takes In this book renowned fairy tale expert Jack Zipes presents a provocative new theory about why fairy tales were created and retold and why they became such an indelible and infinitely adaptable part of cultures around the world Drawing on cognitive science evolutionary theory anthropology psychology literary theory and other fields Zipes presents a nuanced argument about how fairy tales originated in ancient oral cultures how they evolved through the rise of literary culture and print and how in our own time they continue to change through their adaptation in an ever growing variety of media In making his case Zipes considers a wide range of fascinating examples including fairy tales told collected and written by women in the nineteenth century Catherine Breillat s film adaptation of Perrault s Bluebeard and contemporary fairy tale drawings paintings sculptures and photographs that critique canonical print versions While we may never be able to fully explain fairy tales The Irresistible Fairy Tale provides a powerful theory of how and why they evolved and why we still use them to make meaning of our lives The Gibson Craig Library James Thomson Gibson Craig,1887

Women Writers of Gabon Cheryl Toman,2016-10-07 Women Writers of Gabon Literature and Herstory demonstrates how the invisibility of women historically politically cross culturally etc has led to the omission of Gabon s literature from the African canon but it also discusses in depth the unique elements of Gabonese women s writing that show it is worthy of critical recognition and that prove why Gabonese women writers must be considered a major force in African literature This book is the only book length critical study of Gabonese literature that exists in English and although there are titles in French that provide analyses of the works of Gabonese women writers no one work is comprehensive nor is the history of women s writing in Gabon considered in the such a manner Throughout the various chapters the book explores among other things contributions that are unique to Gabonese women writers such as definitions of African feminisms as they pertain to Gabonese society the rewriting of oral histories rituals and traditions of the Fang ethnic group one of the first introductions of same sex couples in African Francophone literature discussions on the impact of witchcraft on development and the appropriating of the epic poetry known as the mvet by women writers The chapters explore works by all major voices in Gabonese women s writing including Ang le Rawiri Justine Mintsa Sylvie Ntsame Honorine Ngou and Chantal Magalie Mbazoo Kassa and the book concludes with brief introductions of a younger generation of Gabonese women writers such as Edna Merey Apinda Alice Endamne Nadia Origo Miryl Eteno and Elisabeth Aworet among others
