Nobel Lectures In Peace 1971-1980:

Nobel Lectures in Peace Frederick W. Haberman, 1999 <http://www.worldscientific.com/worldscibooks/10.1142/3740>

Peace 1991-1995 Irwin Abrams, 1999 The last decade of the twentieth century is already proving to be as dramatic as any decade before. The chances of global peace seem stronger now than at any time since 1900 and the people and organizations that have contributed most towards this progress are recognized by the Norwegian Nobel Committee. The Nobel Peace prizewinners during the period 1991-1995 include men, women and organizations whose principles, dedication and diligence continue to shape history. This volume is a collection of the Nobel Lectures delivered by the prizewinners together with their biographies, portraits and presentation speeches by representatives of the Norwegian Nobel Committee for the period 1991-1995. Each Nobel Lecture is based on the work that won the laureate his or her prize. New biographical data of the laureates since they were awarded the Nobel prize are also included. This volume of inspiring lectures by outstanding individuals should be on everyone's bookshelf. Below is a list of the prizewinners during the period 1991-1995: Aung San Suu Kyi, R. Mench Tum, N. R. Mandela, F. W. de Klerk, Y. Arafat, S. Peres, Y. Rabin, J. Rotblat. Pugwash Conferences on Science and World Affairs. Legion of Peace Muhammad Yunus, Kabir Sehgal, Monica Yunus, Camille Zamora, 2018-12-11 Nobel Prize recipient Muhammad Yunus profiles 20 Nobel Peace Prize laureates with Multi Grammy winning producer and New York Times bestselling author Kabir Sehgal, Monica Yunus and Camille Zamora teaching readers to incorporate lessons from each laureate's life into their own. When Swedish chemist and engineer Alfred B. Nobel passed in 1896, he left several millions in his will to establish the Nobel Peace Prize awarded annually in six concentrations: peace, literature, physics, chemistry, physiology or medicine, and economic science. Since its establishment, there have been over 130 Nobel Peace laureates selected, each bringing his or her own unique experiences and lessons forward as an example to others. In LEGION OF PEACE, Nobel Prize winner Muhammad Yunus, Kabir Sehgal, Monica Yunus and Camille Zamora profile 20 prize recipients in a narrative accompanied by songs inspired by these great leaders, composed by Grammy-nominated children's artist Lori Henriques Quintet and three-time Grammy-nominated pianist Joey Alexander. Through this lyrical narrative, the authors share stories of these laureates' seemingly ordinary actions that transformed their lives and communities. The authors assign a superpower to each laureate that exemplifies the one basic principle that guided their actions, demonstrating to readers that all people from vastly different backgrounds can be connected by a common thread to come together to form a legion of peace. Peace 1996-2000 Irwin Abrams, 2005 In addition to the presentation speeches and the Nobel lectures, these volumes also provide brief biographies and the Nobel laureates' own accounts of their many years of preparation and effort that led to their achievements. The last decade of the twentieth century is already proving to be as dramatic as any decade before. The chances of global peace seem stronger now than at any time since 1900 and the people and organizations that have contributed most towards this progress are recognized by the Norwegian Nobel Committee. Encounters with Civilizations Gezim Alpion,2017-09-29 Encounters with Civilizations is a broad ranging work uniting sweeping themes such as history culture the media social issues and politics Building around comparative analyses of aspects of Albanian Egyptian British and Indian cultures Alpion addresses the problems people experience in their encounters with civilizations different from their birth cultures The course of history has made the confrontation and comingling of different cultures inevitable It has also engendered ambivalence toward the cultures involved including a desire to emulate the new culture or resentment or conflicting attitudes toward the relative strength or weakness of both birth and new cultures Alpion describes how Egyptian culture and politics have been shaped by foreign domination while retaining ancient customs at the social level In comparison Great Britain has been an imperial power whose cultural preeminence has shaped the images of smaller countries in the eyes of the world Alpion writes of English images of his native Albania and offers a penetrating analysis of Mother Teresa as a Christian missionary in Hindu and Muslim India focusing on her cultural presentation via the media and the cult of celebrity Whether discussing the customs of Egyptian coffee houses or Alexander the Great as a defining figure in Western and Eastern culture Alpion grasps the impact of these cultural encounters He makes us aware that understanding and resolving such differences involves considering ultimate issues of life and death

Delusions and the Madness of the Masses Lawrie Reznek,2010-11-16 We all think that we can tell the difference between someone who is mad or whom psychiatrists call psychotic and someone who is sane But can we really tell who is mad and who is not Do we really know what madness is and how it should be recognized Have psychiatrists made a sensible distinction between the patient who believes that aliens are beaming messages to him from a foreign planet and the religious fanatic who believes God communicates to him via automatic writing Is there a difference between the paranoid patient who believes that the FBI is after him and the sizeable proportion of our normal population that believe that the US government orchestrated the 9 11 bombings Here Reznek hopes to shed light on the delusions of the masses those delusions that are common to everyday people living so called ordinary lives He provides an understanding of madness and the psychological processes that drive us to adopt delusions arguing that it is a mistake to view only schizophrenic patients as delusional while excluding large groups of society from such an analysis. If we abandon the idea that whole communities cannot share a delusion we can come to a better understanding about why the world is such a dangerous place.

West Germany and Namibia's Path to Independence, 1969-1990 Thorsten Kern, 2019-05-22

Namibia's main liberation movement the South West Africa People's Organisation SWAPO relied heavily on outside support for its armed struggle against South Africa's occupation of what it called South West Africa. While East Germany's solidarity with Namibia's struggle for national self-determination has received attention, little research has been done on West Germany's policy towards Namibia which must be seen against the backdrop of inter-German rivalry. The impact of the wider realities of the Cold War on Namibia's rocky path to independence leaves ample room for research and new interpretations. In West Germany and Namibia's Path to Independence 1969-1990: Foreign Policy and Rivalry with East Germany Thorsten Kern shows that German division played a vital role in West Germany's position towards Namibia during the Cold War. West German foreign policy towards Namibia at the height of the Namibian liberation struggle is investigated and discussed against the backdrop of rivalry with East Germany. The two states' deeply diverging policies characterised in this context by competition for influence over SWAPO were strongly affected by the Cold War rivalry between the capitalist West and the communist East. Yet ultimately the dynamics of rapprochement helped to bring about Namibia's independence. This book is based upon a doctoral dissertation presented to the University of Cape Town in 2016. Kern conducted research in the National Archives of Namibia and in German archives and his work draws on interviews with contemporary witnesses.

The Development Trap Adam D. Kiš, 2018-03-05

A wave of optimism is sweeping through the international aid and development industry championed by leaders such as Jeffrey Sachs and Jim Yong Kim who believe that poverty eradication could be within our grasp. Yet in stark opposition come those who believe that all international development intervention is hegemonic, paternalistic and neocolonialist and must be done away with. In this book the author argues for a middle ground. Poverty is an entrenched intractable problem that will never be entirely eradicated. However, if we reorientate our objectives in line with realistic goals that improve the way that poverty is confronted on a smaller scale, we can still continue the fight for meaningful change. Using rigorous scholarship illustrated with vivid storytelling and personal anecdotes from fighting against poverty in the field, The Development Trap argues that we need to make progress against poverty on the micro rather than the macro scale. Instead of shooting for a single overarching end of poverty, our goals must be modest and reachable.

Heroines in History Katie Pickles, 2022-07-21 Heroines in History A Thousand Faces moves beyond stories of individual heroines taking a thematic synthesising and global in scope approach to challenge previous understandings of heroines in history Responding to Joseph Campbell's Hero with a Thousand Faces Katie Pickles explores the idea of a transcultural heroine archetype that recurs through time Each chapter addresses an archetypal theme important for heroines in history The volume offers a new consideration of the often awkward position of women in history and embeds heroines in the context of their times as well as interpreting and analysing how their stories are told re told and represented at different moments To do so it recovers and compares some women now forgotten along with well known recent heroines and brings together a diversity of women from around the world Pickles looks at the interplay of gender race heredity status class and politics in different ways and chronicles the emergence of heroines as historical subjects valued for their substance and achievements rather than as objects valued for their image and celebrity In an accessible and original way the book builds upon developments in women's and gender history and is essential reading for anyone interested in this field
