Passages Westward

Maria Lähteenmäki, Hanna Snellman, 2006-12-27 The West has always been a resource for the Finns Scholars artists and other professionals have sought contacts from Europe throughout the centuries The Finnish experience in Western Europe and the New World is a story of migrant laborers expatriates and specialists working abroad But you don't have to be born in Finland to be a Finn The experiences of second generation Finnish immigrants and their descendants open up new possibilities for understanding the relationship between Finland and the West The Finnish passage westward has not always crossed national borders Karelian evacuees headed west as did young people from the Finnish countryside when opportunities to make a living in agriculture and forestry diminished in the post war era The legacy of these migrants is still visible in the suburbs of Finnish cities today This book is a joint effort of the Department of Ethnology and the Department of History at the University of Helsinki It was written by Ph D students supervised by Academy Research Fellows Maria Lähteenmäki and Hanna Snellman in collaboration with colleagues abroad interested in current research in ethnology and history The Blyton Phenomenon Sheila G. Bannister Ray, 1982 Certain educationalists teachers and librarians tend to frown on Enid Blyton's stories saying they are trivial indifferently written and unimaginative among other things Back cover

Enid Blyton: The Biography Barbara Stoney, 2011-08-26 Enid Blyton is known throughout the world for her imaginative children's books and her enduring characters such as Noddy and the Famous Five She is one of the most borrowed authors from British libraries and still holds a fascination for readers old and young alike Yet until 1974 when Barbara Stoney first published her official biography little was known about this most private author even by members of her own family The woman who emerged from Barbara Stoney's remarkable research was hardworking complex often difficult and in many ways childlike Now this widely praised classic biography has been fully updated for the twenty first century and with the addition of new colour illustrations and a comprehensive list of Enid Blyton's writings documents the growing appeal of this extraordinary woman throughout the world The fascinating story of one of the world's most famous authors will intrigue and delight all those with an interest in her timeless books

Husbands Bosworth Polish Resettlement Camp (1948-58) Urszula Szulakowska, 2020-06-04 This book presents the history of the Polish resettlement camps in the context of the post war reconstruction of Britain during the 1950s The Polish Resettlement Act 1947 concerned some 200 000 Poles stranded in the country after the war There are very few studies available in English concerning this migration to the UK and a limited number of Polish ones The focus of this study is the Husbands Bosworth camp in Northamptonshire which was located on a decommissioned RAF aerodrome at Sulby Hall between Welford and Naseby The text relies both on eye witness testimony including the author's own experiences as a child in the camp as well as on rare documentation located in private archives In particular the nationalistic culture of the Poles within the British Isles is examined critically as an indigenous development The Polish society that emerged out of the hundreds of rural Polish camps urban Polish clubs churches schools newspapers libraries museums and art galleries was a nationalistic culture of its own kind which drew on pre war life in Poland and yet also grew along quite different lines It was a culture created in reaction and in antagonism to the political authorities of the host country This study will be of interest to anyone concerned with the history of multicultural Britain
