Billings,2002-05-28 Why did half the people on New Hanover a small island north of New Guinea vote for Lyndon Baines Johnson to be their ruler in 1964 Dorothy K Billings believes that this sort of action seen in New Guinea and other parts of Melanesia is part of the cargo cult phenomenon or micronationalist movements which are principally regarded as responses to European colonialism Based on thirty five years of fieldwork and observation Cargo Cult as Theater demonstrates how the Johnson Cult originally mocked and ridiculed by the outside world should be seen as an ongoing political performance meant to consolidate local power and advance economic development This fascinating study follows the changes in this community ritual from the time of the white master to post colonial self determination and reveals the history of this people s attempt to gain intellectual moral economic and political control over their own lives
