There have been edited books on the archaeology of nomadism in various regions and there have been individual archaeological and anthropological monographs but nothing with the kind of coverage provided in this volume Its strength and importance lies in the fact that it brings together a worldwide collection of studies of the archaeology of mobility This book provides a ready made reference to this worldwide phenomenon and is unique in that it tries to redefine pastoralism within a larger context by the term mobility It presents many new ideas and thoughtful approaches especially in the Central Asian region

The Arab World Halim Barakat,1993-10-14 This wide ranging examination of Arab society and culture offers a unique opportunity to know the Arab world from an Arab point of view Halim Barakat an expatriate Syrian who is both scholar and novelist emphasizes the dynamic changes and diverse patterns that have characterized the Middle East since the mid nineteenth century The Arab world is not one shaped by Islam nor one simply explained by reference to the sectarian conflicts of a mosaic society Instead Barakat reveals a society that is highly complex with many and various contending polarities It is a society in a state of becoming and change one whose social contradictions are at the root of the struggle to transcend dehumanizing conditions Arguing from a perspective that is both radical and critical Barakat is committed to the improvement of human conditions in the Arab world

Ecophysiology of the Camelidae and Desert Ruminants Richard T. Wilson,2012-12-06 I have spent less time in the arid zone in the last few years than I did during the 1960 s 1970 s and early 1980 s This results from a progression through age and a career structure which gradually shifted the emphasis of my work from being essentially field oriented to essentially office hound When therefore I was asked by John Cloudsley Thompson to undertake the writing of this book I hesitated for two reasons One reason was that although I now had access to good library facilities and kept up with the literature on the arid zones and their fauna I was not sure that a sedentary and pleasant life in a temperate highland island in tropical Africa would provide a mental attitude suitable to writing a book which related to areas where life is usually nomadic and often extremely disagreeable The other reason was that I was uncertain whether I could devote the time necessary to researching and writing the book on top of my professional which now specifically excluded research in the arid zones and on camels and social new found and time consuming commitments In the event I accepted and the fates were kind to me By some peculiar combination of circumstances I was given the opportunity to spend a considerable part of the first half of 1988 in some of the driest areas of the globe I had already visited all of the locations used for the construction of Fig 2

Over-stating the Arab State Nazih N. Ayubi,1996-12-31 The author s objective within this book is to place the Arab world within a theoretical and comparative framework that avoids both orientalist and fundamentalist insistence on the utter peculiarity and uniqueness of the region The book focuses in detail on eight Arab countries

Peterson,2016-02-12 Oman was ruled by the Al Bu Sa id for 250 years and during this period the fortunes of the state varied considerably But in July 1970 as a result of a palace coup the state abruptly turned away from isolation and traditions of the past The most obvious alteration was in the dramatic change in the outward appearance of the country particularly as exemplified by the rejection of the long era of stagnation and the parallel emphasis on socio economic development In the political realm however the shifting balance of power and the rapid growth and diversification of the state s administrative structure were based essentially on perennial themes in Omani politics The interplay between four of these themes forms the basis of this study first published in 1978 The role of the Sultan and the ruling family the development of the administration the exercise of tribal politics and the impact of external influences on the state are closely examined and the modifications they went in response to the various challenges of the twentieth century are discussed The constant flux in the relative importance of each of these themes illustrates the fragile nature of the traditional Omani political system for in the twentieth century the Al Bu Sa'id Sultanate found its precarious hold over the country challenged on a number of occasions These challenges ranging from the tribal and religious rebellion of 1913-20 to the Marxist Leninist revolt in Dhufar are also analysed in detail together with the response of the Sultanate to their impact Settling the Desert L. Birks, C.A. Sinclair, 2020-07-26 The Arab world increasingly falls into two divisions the capital poor and the capital rich countries where capital means in essence oil In the capital rich countries shortage of labour is the chief constraint on growth In the capital poor countries analysis of the labour market is equally central as shortage of labour compounds the already existing problem of shortage of capital This book surveys the labour markets of the Arab world state by state evaluating them by demand and supply analysis and analysing the different elements in trends of employment It forecasts the areas of stress in the next decade and suggests ways of minimising them The book based on much previously unpublished information and on extensive on the spot research in the respective Arab countries sets out the economic and social conditions which underly the impending crisis of development in the Arab region First published in 1980 Routledge Library Editions: Women in Islamic Societies Various Authors, 2021-02-25 Women in Islamic societies are often seen as a hidden and homogenous group The volumes in this set originally published between 1960 and 1983 explore the wide variety of women's roles in a range of Islamic societies from Yemen the United Arab Emirates and Kurdistan to Malaysia West Africa Iran and Turkey Due to their anthropological focus each book pays particular attention to the everyday lives of women in these regions including their agency and power within their own communities The titles also explore women's changing roles in the modernising Muslim world of the 20th century This set will be of interest to those studying women gender Islam and anthropology The Women of the United Arab Emirates Linda Soffan, 2016-10-04 First published in 1980 this book looks at the factors which influenced the position held by women in the United Arab Emirates in the second half of the 20th century It argues that Islamic Law has granted women rights and privileges in the spheres of family life marriage education and economic pursuits which aim at improving their status in society However due to the interpretations of various religious scholars influenced by local traditions and social trends women have often not been given these rights particularly in family life and marriage In contrast the book also explores how the wealth brought about by the discovery of oil has served to further strengthen the position of UAE women principally in the fields of education social affairs and economic activity This book will be of interest to those studying women in Islamic society and modernisation in the Middle East
